Facility Use Restrictions

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln has an interest in protecting its facilities, property and reputation associated with its intercollegiate sports. Therefore, no person shall be permitted to access, use or photograph the arenas, facilities and other University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic venues without first securing the permission of the Athletic Director or his/her designee. The only exception is an individual who upon admission to a facility records an image (e.g. photograph, videotape) for his/her non-commercial personal use. In no case shall any person be permitted to use these venues for the purposes of promoting the sale or manufacture of alcohol or tobacco or the promotion of any venture associated directly or indirectly with legal or illegal gaming or gambling.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Information Policies | Broadcasting Information

The 2005 Nebraska Media Guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of Husker volleyball. Additional information, including releases, photographs and videotapes may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263.

Media Credentials

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska

volleyball home matches should be directed to Shamus McKnight, Nebraska Volleyball Media Relations Director, P.O. Box 880123, 116 South Stadium, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123. Requests must be made in writing on appropriate letterhead at least one week before the match. Requests via fax are acceptable (see fax information below).

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper and wire-service writers covering for next-day publication; (2) radio and television personnel for broadcast origination; (3) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers.

Media Will Call

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up with identification at the media entrance at the southwest corner of the Nebraska Coliseum. The media entrance opens 90 minutes before first serve.

Media Parking

Media outlets will be issued parking credentials for the horseshoe-shaped parking lot south of the Nebraska Coliseum. To request a parking pass please call Assistant MRD Shamus McKnight at (402) 472-7772 or Media Relations Administrative Assistant Vicki Cartwright in the Media Relations Office at (402) 472-2263.

Nebraska Coliseum Directions

- From Lincoln's Municipal Airport: Exit the airport on W. Adams Street, the main road leading out to Cornhusker Highway. Follow W. Adams Street to the first stoplight and turn right on Cornhusker Highway. Follow Cornhusker Highway and take a right on 14th Street. Go south until you reach Vine Street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersection.

- From Omaha's Eppley Airport: Exit the airport to the stoplight. Turn right onto Abbott Drive. Go approximately one mile to Storz Expressway (Abbott Drive turns into Storz Expressway). Proceed approximately three miles to I-480 South. Follow the signs and get onto I-80 West to Lincoln. Follow I-80 for about 60 miles and take the 27th Street Exit. Follow 27th Street south to Vine Street and turn right. Go west on Vine until you reach 14th Street. The Coliseum is located a half block west of the 14th and Vine streets intersection.

Player Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska volleyball players should be directed to Assistant MRD Shamus McKnight (office phone: 402-472-7772), preferably 24 hours in advance. The best time for in-season interviews is after practice at the Nebraska Coliseum. Nebraska is tentatively scheduled to practice from 3 to 5:30 p.m. during the season. With advance notice, interviews can be arranged for other hours.

Cook Interviews

The best time to reach Coach John Cook for an interview is weekdays after practice. Interviews with Coach Cook should be scheduled through the Media Relations Office by calling (402) 472-7772. During the season, Cook will have weekly press conferences preceding Bill Callahan's football press conferences on Tuesdays on the sixth floor of the Don Bryant Media Facility at Memorial Stadium.

Postgame Interviews

The Nebraska postgame locker room is closed to the media. For home matches, NU's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the press room, located on the second floor to the right of the volleyball offices. The visiting team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located in the hallway off the southeast corner of the playing floor. Opposing coaches and players may be brought to the Nebraska interview room. On the road, Cook will conduct a brief press conference immediately following his postgame radio show. Following Cook's press conference, Husker players will be available to the media.

Press Row Location

Press row for Nebraska volleyball games is located on the upper level of the Coliseum behind the east serving line of the playing floor. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either end on the media platforms. The press room is located off the upstairs hallway at the southwest corner of the Coliseum.

Media Services

Pregame notes, programs and media guides will be provided before each game. Play-by-play sheets and final statistics will be distributed. Starting approximately 60 minutes before first serve, refreshments will be served in the pregame area, which will be in one of the racquetball courts adjacent to the playing court.

Radio/Television Broadcast Space

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space and credentials should be made to Shamus McKnight, Nebraska Media Relations, 116 South Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123, telephone 402-472-7772. If statisticians are needed, please contact the Media Relations Office at least one week in advance.

Broadcast Rights

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Pinnacle Sports Productions own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University of Nebraska volleyball matches. Other than the Pinnacle Sports Network and the University of Nebraska student station (KRNU), the only stations or networks that will be allowed to broadcast Nebraska matches from the Nebraska Coliseum are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team. All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Nebraska Coliseum must have permission from the University and are subject to a rights fee. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live match action or description of any match while it is in progress. Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephones on press row, or use telephones on press row for reporting on matches. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to the above stipulations.

Telephones

Nebraska provides two telephones in the Nebraska Coliseum Press Room. All long distance calls must be credit card, collect or billed to a third number. Any media source wishing to place a telephone on press row should contact University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000) at least two weeks before the game.

Broadcast Telephone Lines

Visiting radio stations are welcome to have their own telephone lines installed on press row and may do so by contacting University of Nebraska Telecommunications (402-472-2000). However, Pinnacle Sports Productions installs telephone lines for visiting official broadcasts and charges a fee for the use of those lines for non-conference games (Big 12 official stations receive the use of the lines free of charge as part of a cooperative). Stations interested in using the lines should contact Mike Elliott of Pinnacle Sports Productions at (402) 430-7312.

Media Relations Office

The University of Nebraska Media Relations Office is located in Room 116 of the South Stadium Office Building, which is located at the south end of Memorial Stadium at Stadium Drive and T streets. The South Stadium Office Building is approximately three blocks from the Nebraska Coliseum.

Fax and E-mail Access

The Nebraska Media Relations Office has an automatic facsimile machine that can transmit or receive documents. The phone number for the fax is (402) 472-2005. A facsimile machine is available in the Nebraska Coliseum Press Room following the match, and Media Relations Office personnel will send box scores free of charge as time permits. Match recaps will be e-mailed to media outlets following every match. Contact Assistant MRD Shamus McKnight (402) 472-7772 to add your name to the post-match e-mail list.

Huskers.com/HuskersNside

For the most up-to-the minute coverage of Nebraska women's volleyball on the Internet, click on Huskers.com, the official website of the University of Nebraska Athletic Department.

In addition to updated results, statistics and game stories, you can find photos, player and coach biographies, schedule and roster information and weekly releases on the Husker volleyball program.

Husker fans have the opportunity to gain even greater access to the NU volleyball program through HuskersNside, the premium site of the Nebraska Athletic Department. HuskersNside provides live video streaming of NU athletic events and daily video content to its subscribers not available anywhere else. In 2005, HuskersNside will stream nearly every regular-season volleyball match, both home and away, as well as Coach Cook's weekly press conferences.

To join, visit Huskers.com and click on HuskersNside. Because this is quality video streaming, subscribers to the site must have broadband Internet access.

The Pinnacle Sports Productions Radio Network

Pinnacle Sports Productions begins its 10th year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of the University of Nebraska football, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and softball games. Pinnacle was first awarded the broadcast rights on Feb. 9, 1996. The University renewed the Pinnacle contract on Aug. 9, 2003, for an additional five-year term that runs until July 31, 2011.

John Baylor

Pinnacle Sports Productions is owned by Paul Aaron of Elkhorn, Neb., and Dale Jensen of Phoenix, Ariz. Pinnacle has created an impressive list of state, regional and national affiliates, allowing Husker games to be heard across America. As of press time, Pinnacle Sports had put together a 17-station network for Husker volleyball that encompasses nearly the entire state of Nebraska. The Pinnacle Sports Production broadcast of every game can also be heard live on the Internet at Huskers.com.

Criteria used in evaluating bids included guaranteed annual fees; confidence in the bidder's ability to realize such fees; ability to put together a network; additional proposed programming; availability of a viable radio production facility and personnel; coverage of women's sports; other sports coverage committed; airwave coverage of the state of Nebraska and key out-of-state locations; and willingness and ability to promote the University of Nebraska in all areas, including non-athletic concerns.

The Pinnacle Sports Productions staff includes Paul Aaron, President; Kevin Moore, General Manager; Mike Elliott, Director of Operations; Randy Lee, Marketing and Men's Basketball Play-by-Play Announcer; Matt Davison, Sales and Men's Basketball Color Announcer; Jim Rose, Marketing and Football/Baseball Play-by-Play Announcer; Patty Aaron, Michael Beelman, Gary Kasper, Jamie Linn, Joni Woodruff, David LaPlante and Ron Scholz, Marketing; and Deb Kerns, office manager.

John Baylor, a veteran sportscaster, enters his 11th year as the voice of the Nebraska volleyball team. Baylor will continue to handle the play-by-play duties during the 2005 season. Sports Nightly's John Bishop will host John Cook's weekly radio show. Cook's radio show can be heard statewide on the network. The show will air on Thursday nights throughout the season and will begin on the first week of the season. The show runs from 7:30 to 8 p.m.

INTRODUCTION

THE BIG 12 CONFERENCE

History | Administration

The Big 12 celebrates its 10th anniversary season of competition in 2005-06. While there have been many proud accomplishments in the first nine years of the conference, the league and its members are also excited and poised for a bright future.

Over the past nine years, 24 different teams and over 200 individuals have won NCAA Championships. This past season marked the most successful in conference history. Baylor won the crown for women's basketball, becoming the first Big 12 squad to win in that sport. Colorado won both the men's and women's cross country trophies, just the fourth school in NCAA annals to win both in the same year. Oklahoma State regained the top spot in wrestling, winning the national title for the 33rd time. Texas captured its fourth women's outdoor track & field crown, along with its sixth national championship in baseball. A total of 23 individual event titles were also claimed by the Big 12.

Eight football squads have played in BCS bowls in the last six seasons. The Big 12 leads all conferences with four appearances in the national championship game. In basketball, an unprecedented eight men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past four seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarships and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12's philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and All-Big 12 academic squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 129 scholars have received more than $680,000 in postgraduate financial aid through the first eight years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reigns in December 1998. Under Weiberg's guidance, the league distributed over $105 million to its member institutions for the 2004-05 academic year, nearly doubling the first allocation of $54 million in the conference's inaugural 1996-97 campaign.

Weiberg has also helped lead the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN, TBS and CSTV.

The Big 12 has its headquarters in Dallas, Texas, where Weiberg and his staff administer to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports.

Nebraska's Big 12 Conference Championships

Since the Big 12 Conference began its inaugural athletic season in 1996, Nebraska has achieved substantial championship success. The Huskers have finished at the top of the league in nearly every sport, claiming 46 regular-season championships in nine years.

NU has won 24 conference championships in the past five years along with five Big 12 Tournament titles.

NEBRASKA COLISEUM

56 Consecutive Sellouts at the Home of Husker Volleyball

Former Head Coach Terry Pettit built the Nebraska volleyball program brick by brick for 23 seasons. While the Husker helm is now manned by Head Coach John Cook, Nebraska's tradition of excellence has continued to reach new heights with the help of one of the greatest home-court advantages in collegiate volleyball, the Nebraska Coliseum.

During the Pettit/Cook era, the Huskers have qualified for 23 consecutive NCAA Tournaments on the NU Coliseum floor. Cook credited the NU Coliseum crowd with willing the Huskers to a come-from-behind, 3-2 win over South Carolina in the 2000 NCAA second round. During his tenure, Pettit was always quick to point out that part of Nebraska's solid foundation came from fantastic facilities, specifically its home court in the 4,030-seat Nebraska Coliseum.

Nebraska has sold out its last 56 matches at the NU Coliseum dating back to the 2001 season. The upcoming season at the NU Coliseum was sold out prior to the start of the 2005 campaign.

"Winston Churchill said 'in the beginning, we build buildings. In the end, we are shaped by the buildings we live in.' I think the Coliseum shapes Nebraska volleyball," Pettit said. "It's an environment that creates intimacy. It's a classic structure and in a lot of ways reflects what the Nebraska program is all about."

The Coliseum, which sits nestled on the University campus, is a beautiful display of architecture highlighted by its powerful Roman columns gracing the front steps. But while its beauty is appreciated by Husker players, coaches and fans, it is one of the most-dreaded places for opponents to play in the sport of volleyball, and arguably one of the toughest places to play in college athletics.

Nebraska volleyball has had unmatched success in the confines of the cozy Coliseum, posting 12 undefeated seasons and compiling an all-time record of 419-30 (.933) under its roof. During the 1990s, Nebraska posted a record of 142-6 in the Coliseum.

While these numbers are impressive, the Big 12 and former

*-The 1991 season was played at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Big Eight members managed even fewer wins. That's because Nebraska doesn't lose to conference opponents in the Coliseum.

Only three times in 29 years of regular-season Big Eight/Big 12 play has a conference opponent ever won on the Coliseum floor. In fact, during that time, only three conference opponents have managed to win in Lincoln. Nebraska suffered its first-ever regular-season loss to a conference foe in 1999, falling to Kansas State, 15-9, 16-14, 16-18, 7-15, 15-17, on Sept. 22, snapping a streak of 101 consecutive wins against regular-season conference opponents. Nebraska then won 44 straight Big 12 matches at home before suffering a loss to Kansas State in 2003. The Huskers have lost only two Big 12 matches at home under John Cook.

Pettit said the home-court advantage is most valuable during its long, hard-fought battles.

"The home crowd was a big advantage when we were fatigued or drained in the middle of a four- or five-game match," Pettit said. "The players used the energy and electricity from the fans to pull them through difficult stretches. I don't think that it's as big an advantage against the elite teams, but it definitely makes a difference."

Nebraska has used that success at home to propel it through the NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers have hosted an NCAA Tournament match every season since 1984 and have capitalized on each opportunity by compiling a 39-3 playoff record in the stoic building. And Nebraska fans have been rewarded by seeing all of the Huskers' NCAA regional championships won on their home court.

Nebraska carried a 65-match Coliseum win streak into the 1999 season, but suffered a loss to No. 6 Pacific in the State Farm/NACWAA Classic semifinal. In 2002, the Huskers carried a 63-match home winning streak into its NCAA regional final match against Hawaii, but fell, 3-1.

The win streaks are a direct result of Nebraska's frenzied crowds that routinely jam the building's bleachers. The Huskers finished second nationally in attendance in 2004 with an average of 4,336, a total that is 107 percent of the Coliseum's capacity.

Fans have been known to line up as much as four to five hours in advance to see their Husker volleyball team in action. During the 2000 season, fans set an NCAA regular-season attendance mark of 12,504 for a match against Colorado in the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Nebraska has averaged more than 3,000 fans for 12 of the past 14 seasons.

The Coliseum's roots go back to the 1920s when it was the home for the Husker basketball team. NU's cagers played on its hardwood floors from 1926 to 1977, when the construction on the Bob Devaney Sports Center was completed.

Since then, the volleyball team has been its lone tenant. In 1991, the Huskers had a one-year hiatus from the Coliseum while the building was being renovated and tailored for volleyball. The renovation provided a more comfortable atmosphere for players, coaches and fans. Among the additions were a new sound system, scoreboard, overhead lights and a new floor. Offices for coaches and administrators, as well as a conference/media room, were constructed for a better working environment. In 1997, the Husker locker room and ready room underwent a complete facelift. Then, before the 2001 season, HuskerVision replay screens and Daktronics statistics boards were added at both ends of the court. The most recent additions to the Coliseum were completed in 2003, when the floor was resurfaced and murals of the four Husker retired jerseys were placed in the rafters, and in 2004, when a ring of honor celebrating all of Nebraska's All-Americans and national award winners were added along the court.

In 2005, Nebraska will become the first college volleyball program to add premium endline seats, with more than 50 seats being added to give Husker fans an up close view at the NU Coliseum.

Nebraska annually ranks among the national leaders in attendance. In 2004, the Huskers were second nationally, averaging 4,336 fans per home match.

2005 SCHEDULE

2005 Schedule Notes

• Nineteen of Nebraska's matches will be against teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 2005, including a potential matchup with NCAA Champion Stanford at the AVCA/NACWAA College Volleyball Showcase and a match at NCAA runner-up Minnesota.

• Nine of Nebraska's 2005 opponents were ranked in the final 2004 AVCA Coaches poll (Hawaii, Penn State, Stanford, Ohio State, Minnesota, Texas A&M, Missouri, Kansas State and Texas), while two other opponents (Kansas and Pacific) received multiple votes in the final poll.

• Nebraska will host the AVCA/NACWAA College Volleyball Showcase for the third time and first since 1999. NU also hosted the event in 1995. It will be the first volleyball event to take place at Qwest Center OMAHA, the site of the 2006 NCAA Finals. This will be the Huskers fifth appearance in the preseason event (2001, 1999, 1996, 1995).

• In the last 10 years, Nebraska is 152-10 (.938) in the NU Coliseum.

• Nebraska has won all seven matches against Big Ten teams under Head Coach John Cook, and has won its last nine matches against Big Ten teams dating back to the 1999 NACWAA Tournament.

• Nebraska will host Pacific at the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Sept. 10, the first time NU has hosted a non-conference match at the Devaney Center since taking on Creighton in the Nebraska Volleyball Classic on Sept., 29, 2002.

• The Huskers have won 26 of 29 Big Eight/Big 12 titles. NU has won seven of the nine possible Big 12 regular-season titles – all but the 1997 and 2003 crowns – and claimed 17 Big Eight Tournament titles from 1976 to 1995. The Big 12 does not play a conference tournament.

• The 2004 campaign marks the 10th season of Big 12 volleyball. Last season, a league record seven teams earned NCAA Tournament bids, including Colorado, Kansas State, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Texas and Texas A&M.

• Since Nebraska began playing volleyball in 1975, the Huskers have lost only five home matches to conference opponents and only four regular-season league matches. Nebraska's all-time conference home record (Big Eight and Big 12 combined) is 214-4 (.982).

• For the third straight year, NCAA Regional sites have been predetermined with locations in Omaha, State College, Pa., College Station, Texas, and Palo Alto, Calif.

• All of Nebraska's 2005 games will be carried on the Pinnacle Sports Network, including 107.3 FM in Lincoln, and on Huskers.com.

The Cornhusker Legend

Before 1900, Nebraska football teams were known by such names as the Old Gold Knights, Antelopes, Rattlesnake Boys and the Bugeaters. In its first two seasons (1890-91), Nebraska competed as the Old Gold Knights, but beginning in 1892, Nebraska adopted Scarlet and Cream as its colors and accepted the Bugeaters as its most popular nickname until the turn of the century. Named after the insect-devouring bull bats that hovered over the plains, the Bugeaters also found their prey in the Midwest, enjoying winning campaigns in every year of the 1890s until a disappointing season in 1899.

After its first losing season in a decade, it must have seemed only fitting that Nebraska move in a new direction, and Lincoln sportswriter Charles S. (Cy) Sherman, who was to gain national renown as the sports editor of the Lincoln Star and helped to originate the Associated Press poll, provided the nickname that has gained fame for more than a century. Sherman tired of referring to the Nebraska teams with such an unglamorous term as Bugeaters. Iowa had, from time to time, been called the Cornhuskers, and the name appealed to Sherman. Iowa partisans seemed to prefer Hawkeyes, so Sherman started referring to the Nebraska team as Cornhuskers, and the 1900 team was first to bear that label.

Of course, the name caught on and became a Nebraska byword, eventually becoming the official nickname for the state.

There is no official symbol of a Cornhusker, and various cartoonists have caricatured the mystical something that typifies Nebraska football—some winning fan approval and others arousing fan ire.

The cartoon character, "Herbie Husker," evolved out of Nebraska's trip to the 1974 Cotton Bowl in Dallas. Artist Dirk West of Lubbock, Texas, designed a Cornhusker cartoon for the Cotton Bowl press headquarters that caught the eye of former Husker SID Don Bryant. Later, Bryant contacted West for permission to use the cartoon, and West expressed a desire to refine his original cartoon and improve some of the character's features. As a result, West was commissioned to draw an original Cornhusker cartoon character that served as a mascot for all Husker athletic teams.

"Herbie" is the registered logo of the Cornhusker Athletic Department, which controls its use. West's concept of Nebraska football is appropriate—a burly, rugged and confident fellow who is proud of both the athletic and the agricultural traditions of the University of Nebraska.

In 2003, "Herbie" enjoyed a resurgence in the spotlight as he underwent a makeover, helping him better portray Nebraska's "image of strength and power," according to Athletic Director Steve Pederson. A new and improved "Herbie" was unveiled Aug. 30, 2003.

Along with Herbie, the athletic department unveiled Lil' Red, the Cornhuskers' contemporary mascot, in 1994. Lil' Red has been commonly seen on the sideline of all Nebraska athletic teams in recent years and remains NU's official mascot along with "Herbie."

NCAA RULES FOR BOOSTERS

Compliance Guidelines for Nebraska Boosters

The University of Nebraska Athletic Department takes great pride in abiding by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) and the Big 12 Conference rules and guidelines that govern Division I competition. For the benefit of the many alumni, fans and booster club members who are so active in supporting and assisting the Huskers throughout the year, we would like to remind everyone of a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic representatives and boosters.

NCAA Principles

Institutional Control

It is the responsibility of the University of Nebraska to control its intercollegiate athletic program in compliance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA.

Responsibility

The University of Nebraska's responsibility for the conduct of its program includes responsibility for the actions of its staff members and for the actions of any other individual, booster or organization engaged in activities promoting the athletic interests of the institution.

Compliance

The University of Nebraska must monitor its program to assure compliance and to identify and report to the NCAA instances in which compliance has not been achieved. An institution found to have violated NCAA rules is subject to disciplinary and corrective actions as determined by the NCAA.

NCAA Definitions

Athletic Representative/Booster

You are considered to be a University of Nebraska athletic representative if you:

- Are a present or past member of a University of Nebraska booster club or agency that promotes the Huskers' intercollegiate athletic program;
- Have made financial contributions to the athletic department or to an athletic booster organization of the University of Nebraska;
- Are, or have been, providing benefits (e.g., summer jobs, meals etc.) to enrolled student-athletes, their family members or friends;
- Are, or have been involved in any manner of promoting the University of Nebraska intercollegiate athletic program.

Please note: Once an individual is identified as an athletic representative, that person retains that identity indefinitely. The University of Nebraska is ultimately responsible for the acts of all "representatives of athletic interests" in relation to NCAA rules and regulations.

Prospective Student-Athlete

A prospective student-athlete is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above, including students in prep schools and junior colleges as well as students who have officially withdrawn from a four-year institution and plan to transfer to another institution. In addition, a student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution or a booster provides the individual or the individual's relatives or friends with any financial assistance or benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students in general. A good rule of thumb is to treat ALL STUDENTS as prospects.

Student-Athlete

A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the athletic staff or other representative of athletic interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

Contact

A contact is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect, or the prospect's parent or legal guardian, and an institutional staff member or athletic representative during which any dialogue occurs.

Recruiting

Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family member (or guardian) by an institutional staff member or by athletic representative of the institution, for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment and ultimate participation in the institution's intercollegiate athletic program.

Guidelines and Reminders for Boosters

- A booster may not contact the prospect, prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospective student-athlete, family members or friends.
- A booster may not become directly or indirectly involved in making arrangements for a prospect, or the prospect's relative or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.
- A booster may not contact a prospective student-athlete through letter writing, telephone calling or other forms of communication.

However, here are a few ways that a Husker booster may be involved:

- Do discuss summer employment opportunities with a prospect after he/she has signed a National Letter of Intent with the University of Nebraska.
- Do attend high school athletic events without contacting prospective student-athletes.
- Do continue existing friendships with families and friends of prospective student-athletes.
- Do send recommendation letters, newspaper clippings or similar information about prospective student-athletes to Husker coaches.

Extra Benefit Guidelines and Reminders for Boosters

Extra Benefit

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or an athletic representative to provide a student-athlete or the student-athlete's relative or friend a benefit not expressly authorized by NCAA legislation.

Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit by NCAA definition. Examples of extra benefits include but are not limited to:

- Providing cash or loans of any amount;
- Signing or co-signing for a loan or other forms of financial assistance;
- Providing the use of a telephone to make local or long distance calls;
- Transporting a student-athlete or providing the use of a vehicle;
- Providing free or reduced rent housing;
- Giving gifts of any kind (i.e. birthday, Christmas, Valentine's Day);
- Promising a student-athlete postgraduate education or employment;
- Offering free services (i.e. clothing, airline tickets, laundry, car repair, haircuts, restaurant meals);
- Providing payment to a student-athlete for a booster club speaking engagement;
- Providing employment for relatives or friends.

Here are a few ways that a Husker booster may help:

- Do invite a student-athlete to participate in non-profit, charitable or educational events.
- Do invite a student-athlete into your home for an occasional meal.
- Do contact the NU Athletic Compliance Office for approval prior to a student-athlete engaging in outside speaking or promotional activities.
- Do pay a student-athlete the commensurate rate for actual and legitimate employment.

2005 OUTLOOK

NU Returns Three All-Americans, Six Starters in Quest for Big 12 and National Title

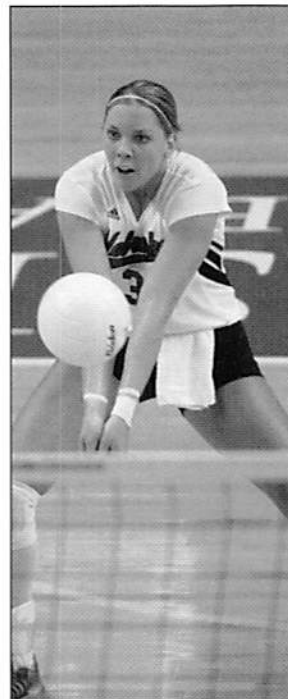

Jennifer Saleaumua

Melissa Elmer

Christina Houghtelling

One Goal • One Team • One Championship

That is the motto on the wristbands of the 2005 Huskers, a constant motivation since losing to USC in the regional final last December.

The five-game loss to the Trojans left Nebraska three points away from a berth in the national semifinals and gave the Huskers a renewed purpose heading into the fall.

"There is definitely a sense of urgency and an edge based on how last season ended," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "From a coaches' perspective, it is obvious that this team will be as motivated as any team in the country."

Not only are the Huskers motivated, but also return a wealth of talent from a team that went 30-2 and had a 27-match winning streak. Six starters return from the defending Big 12 champions, including All-Americans Melissa Elmer, Sarah Pavan and Jennifer Saleaumua. NU also welcomes a top-five recruiting class that could prominently figure into what system the Huskers look to establish this fall.

"We have a great foundation with the returning players, but we are replacing almost half of our team from last year with five new players," Cook said. "The dynamics of the team are going to change with a new assistant coach (Lee Maes) and five new players. It will take part of the season to find out what roles different players will fill. It will be an interesting journey as all of this develops."

Middle Blockers

After leading the nation in blocking for the fourth time in five years in 2004, the strength of the Husker lineup is a middle blocking corps that returns two-time All-American Melissa

Elmer and former U.S. National Team player Tracy Stalls.

One of two seniors on the Husker roster, Elmer led the nation in blocks (1.89 blocks per game) and became only the second player in school history to record 200 blocks in a season. The 6-foot-2 senior averaged 2.91 kills per game and led the Huskers in hitting percentage (.345). During the summer, Elmer trained with the U.S. National Team, competing at the Montreux Volley Masters Tournament in Switzerland. Cook said the experience she gained with the national team will pay off this fall.

"Melissa has gained a great deal of confidence from her experience with the USA program and the success she enjoyed at that level," Cook said. "She got to see a lot of bigger, faster athletes and teams that play much faster than she's used to in college. That exposure will give her a good perspective on college volleyball and will make her a better player."

Stalls quietly put together one of the best freshman campaigns in school history in 2004. She ranked third in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in blocking with 1.65 blocks per game, including 12 matches with seven or more blocks. Stalls reached double figures in kills six times, including a season-high 14 against Iowa State. She underwent off-season knee surgery, but should be at close to 100 percent for the start of the season. Cook said that Stalls' worth to the team belies her statistics.

"Tracy brings a level of experience for our team that you can't coach," Cook said. "She has great instincts and such experience that as soon as she gets healthy and is on the court, she raises the level of our team."

With Stalls working her way back to full health, sophomore Meghan Smith and freshman Amanda Gates will have opportunities to break into the Huskers' rotation.

Smith appeared in eight matches in a limited role last season, but started two of NU's final three spring matches after Stalls' surgery. A two-time all-state performer at Sidney High School, she had five kills and four blocks against Minnesota and was considered the Huskers' most improved player at the end of spring drills.

Gates brings impressive credentials into the Husker program. A Volleyball Magazine Feb 50 selection, she was a first-team Super-State pick after leading Columbus High School to a Class A runner-up finish in 2004. As a senior, she totaled 476 kills and led Class A with a .451 hitting percentage.

Opposite

After one of the most dominant freshman campaigns in school history, Sarah Pavan will once again anchor Nebraska's potent attack this fall. The 6-foot-5 Pavan earned AVCA first-team All-America honors and was the AVCA National Freshman of the Year after pacing NU with 4.54 kills per game. She had seven 20-kill efforts, including a career-high 35 in the regional final against USC. After a summer of extensive weight training, Pavan continues to expand her arsenal and will contend for national honors this fall.

"Sarah had a great freshman year, but she is never satisfied with what she has done and that is what makes her such a special player," Cook said. "We know she is a great attacker, and where she can make the next step is when she can score points with her attack, her block and her serve. She has a chance to be one of the best in the country in scoring points in all three areas."

Outside Hitters

The outside hitter position shapes up to be one of the deepest positions on the Husker roster. NU has three players with starting experience in Jennifer Saleaumua, Christina Houghtelling, and Dani Mancuso, while NU also welcomes one of the nation's top recruits in freshman Jordan Larson.

One luxury that Cook has is the return of Saleaumua. A three-time All-Big 12 selection at outside hitter, she was second on the team in both kills (3.09) and digs (3.74) per game last season and is on track to become only the second player in school history to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs. A superb all-around player, Saleaumua shared Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors in 2004, and trained at both outside hitter and libero with USA Volleyball in the summer. No matter what role she fills on the court, Saleaumua will play a vital role in the Huskers' success this fall.

"I think Jennifer will be a multi-role player for us," Cook said. "She could be used as a hitter or at libero. That is how USA Volleyball used her over the summer and she responded well and was one of the better performing players."

"Jennifer has accomplished nearly everything in her career and has two things left to do, win a national championship and graduate. Those are two big goals for her, and she is willing to do whatever it takes to make it happen."

Houghtelling is another player with experience in the USA Volleyball program, as she joined Elmer on the U.S. Volleyball A-2 team in Switzerland. Houghtelling, who moved to outside hitter prior to last season, enjoyed a solid sophomore campaign in 2004, averaging 2.90 kills and 2.34 digs per game in 30 matches. Houghtelling's best match came at Missouri, when she had a career-high 17 kills on .739 hitting. She also ranked among the Big 12 leaders with 0.34 service aces per game.

"Christina finally has a year where she was able to train in the spring and summer and is beginning to scratch the surface of how good she can be," Cook said. "Her selection to play with Team USA opened her eyes, and she benefitted from the experience even more than Melissa (Elmer) and Jennifer (Saleaumua)."

While Houghtelling started a majority of the matches on the outside, Dani Mancuso split time at the position last season. The 6-foot-2 junior from Omaha averaged 2.77 kills and 2.27 digs per game in 24 matches. Mancuso, who has started at times in each of the last two seasons, showed the ability to single-handedly take over matches, including a career-high 22 kills in a crucial road win at Kansas State. This season, Mancuso could also fill a variety of needs for the Huskers. She is currently training at both outside hitter positions, as she will likely backup Pavan on the right side. Mancuso also saw time at libero during the spring.

"Dani has shown over the last two years that she can play at an all-conference level," Cook said. "She has gotten stronger and has matured mentally, and we are looking for her to become a more consistent player for us. If she does that, she is going to have a chance for a lot of playing time this season."

Larson enters the Husker program with high expectations following a stellar high school and club career. A Fab 50 recruit, Larson was a three-time Super State selection, finishing her career with a state record 561 services aces. As a senior, she tallied 501 kills on .490 hitting to lead Logan View to the state semifinals. In addition, she was a two-year member of the U.S. Junior National Team, earning MVP honors at 2004 NORCECA Continental Junior Championships.

"Jordan has ability as an attacker to score points with her block and serve, but I think her best skills are her passing and ability to play defense," Cook said. "There are very few players in the country that have skills in those areas like she has."

Setter

One of the most anticipated battles in fall camp will be at setter. After going with a 5-1 offense last season, Cook has plenty of options to choose from this fall with three talented setters in camp, including returning starter Dani Busboom and newcomers Maggie Griffin and Rachel Holloway.

The veteran of the trio, Busboom played in a 6-2 offense as a freshman before taking over the full-time setting duties last fall. Busboom earned AVCA All-Midwest Region honors in 2004, ranking third in the Big 12 with 13.10 assists per game. Her average was the highest by a setter in seven seasons, while helping NU rank in the top-20 nationally in both hitting percentage and kills per game. Cook said that it will be important for Busboom to take advantage of a talented supporting cast around her.

"She has a bunch of great hitters around her, and we are looking for Dani to open up our offense a little bit and make us harder to defend," Cook said. "If she can consistently do that, it will raise the level of our entire team."

Nebraska was fortunate to add a second setter with starting experience this summer with the addition of Michigan State transfer Maggie Griffin. Last season, the St. Charles, Ill., native earned Big Ten All-Freshman honors, averaging 12.98 assists and 2.18 digs per game. In addition to her college experience, she also guided her club team to two Junior Olympic national titles. Griffin's experience at MSU will help her quickly adjust to the Big 12.

"Maggie is a very skilled setter who has tremendous instincts," Cook said. "She is not a typical newcomer, as she gained a lot of experience playing in the Big Ten last year, and she gives us a number of options to work with at the setter position."

Holloway has already built an extensive resume as she begins her club career. Originally signed for the 2006 season, Holloway graduated a year early to begin her college career this fall. She was a two-time first-team All-Colorado selection and Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2004. A two-year captain of the U.S. Youth National Team, she led the team to a fourth-place finish at the Under-18 World Championships in China earlier this summer.

"We believe that Rachel is the top setter recruit in this class," Cook said. "She has great instincts, and was trained by her club coach, Jim Miret, to do a lot of things that you only see international setters do. She is a highly skilled all-around player, and has an opportunity to come in and play as a freshman."

Libero

The only position guaranteed a new starter is libero, where either Saleaumua or freshman Rachel Schwartz will roam the position.

Schwartz comes to the Husker program from Lincoln East High School, where she was a Prep volleyball.com All-American. In 2004, she ranked among the state leaders in both kills and digs en route to leading Lincoln East to a state playoff berth as a senior. While Schwartz played outside hitter in high school, Cook says that Schwartz's athleticism and competitive nature make her ideally suited for the libero spot.

"Rachel is a great athlete and has proven that she can compete in different environments," Cook said. "We are looking forward to having her at the libero position and think that she can be a great libero in our program."

2005 Schedule

The Huskers will be tested with one of the most demanding schedules in school history, as 19 of its matches will be against NCAA qualifiers from 2004.

"The climate of college volleyball has changed because the regionals are pre-determined, it is not as important what type of record you have," Cook said. "When we put together the schedule, we had only two weeks (before Big 12 play) and we wanted to schedule as tough as we could to be prepared for the start of conference matches."

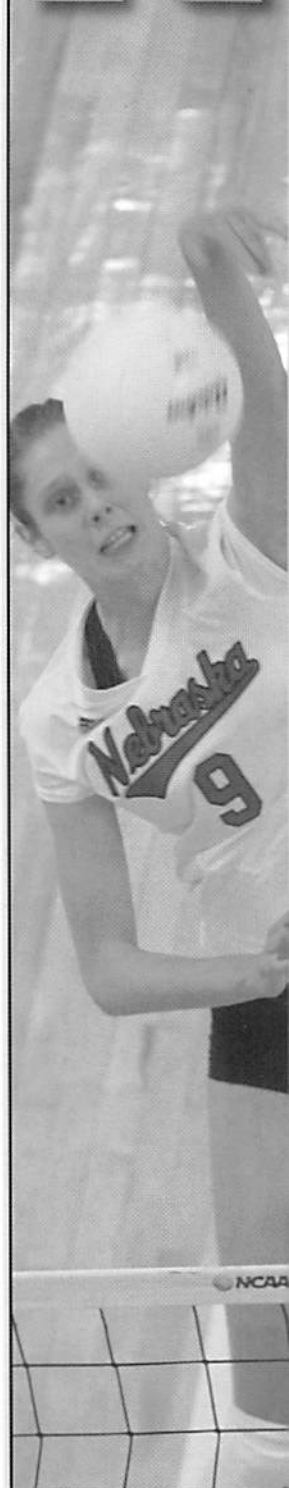

"Our two goals for every year are to win the Big 12 and to win a national championship," Cook said. "It throws out a challenging schedule, but we have a team that will embrace that and improve from it, whether we win or lose. It will make us a better team and we'll know what we need to work on to prepare us for the Big 12."

Nebraska opens the 2005 campaign by competing in the AVCA/NACWAA College Volleyball Showcase at the Qwest Center in Omaha. The Huskers will face Hawaii, while Penn State and Stanford form the other half of the bracket, as the field includes four of the top five teams in the CSTV/AVCA preseason poll.

The docket does not get easier, as Nebraska hits the road for a three-game trip which includes matches with nationally ranked Ohio State and Minnesota. The Huskers then return home for the Players Challenge, a three-day tournament that features Penn State, along with long-time powers Pepperdine and Pacific.

"Our goal in the Players Challenge is to create a premier tournament in Nebraska," Cook said. "We have the fan support and the interest and now we are getting some teams that want to come in here and make it a special event. All three teams are top-20 programs with great history and tradition. It ought to be the premier tournament in the country."

Couple that non-conference schedule with a league slate that had seven teams qualify for the NCAA Tournament a year ago and you see why the 2005 schedule is the toughest in recent memory.

2005 SEASON NOTES

Cook's Winning Ways

Nebraska Coach John Cook has been amazingly successful during his five seasons at the helm, posting a 154-11 record (.933 winning percentage). All 11 losses have come against teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament, including the eventual NCAA champion in both 2001 (Stanford) and 2002 (USC). The Huskers have played 545 games during Cook's tenure, winning 471 and losing just 74 (.864).

In the Big 12, Cook has enjoyed even greater success, going 97-3 in his five seasons. Nebraska has posted four undefeated seasons in league play (2000-02, 2004) and has dropped just 33 of the 329 conference games it has played over the past five seasons, good for an .899 winning percentage.

Cook was the AVCA Coach of the Year in 2000 after leading Nebraska to a 34-0 season and a national title. He was also named the 2001 Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Rank and File

Nebraska is one of two teams to be ranked in the USA Today/AVCA Coaches poll for all 319 weeks of its existence following the 2004 season. The Huskers have been ranked in the top 10 for 285 of the 319 weeks, which ranks second behind Stanford's 290.

NU has spent a total of 40 weeks in the top spot, and its most recent No. 1 ranking was Dec. 6, 2004. Only UCLA (51), Hawaii (48) and Stanford (47) have spent more weeks at No. 1 than Nebraska.

Sellout Streak Extends to 56

Nebraska will carry a streak of 56 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum into the 2005 season. The Huskers sold out all 15 matches they played at the Coliseum last season (NU played one match at the 13,595 seat Bob Devaney Sports Center). The streak began with a 10-game stretch to close the 2001 season and extended through the 2002, 2003 and 2004 campaigns. The last non-sellout came on Sept. 25, 2001, against Creighton. Nebraska ranked second nationally in total attendance, averaging 4,336 fans per match.

All-America U

Nebraska continued its string of All-America success in 2004, as Melissa Elmer, Sarah Pavan and Jennifer Saleaumua were named AVCA All-Americans. For Elmer, it was her second straight All-America certificate, as she was a second-team selection in 2003 before earning first-team honors in 2004. It was the first award for both Pavan, a first-team honoree, and Saleaumua, a second-team selection.

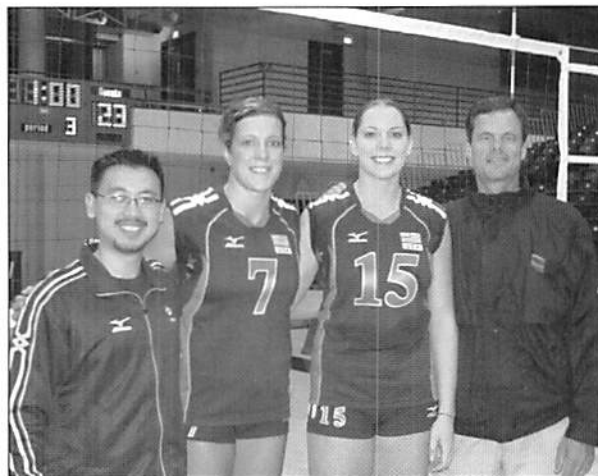

Nebraska has had at least one All-American every season since 1983, a total of 23 straight seasons, including 14 in Coach John Cook's five seasons at Nebraska. A total of 25 players have combined to earn 49 AVCA All-America certificates. Nebraska leads the nation in both categories.

Home-Court Advantage

Nebraska posted a 14-1 record in the Nebraska Coliseum in 2004, continuing the building's tradition as one of the most feared places to play in college volleyball. Nebraska has posted 12 undefeated seasons at home in school history, including six in the past 11 years.

1995 National Champions; Terry Pettit to be Honored

The Nebraska Athletic Department will celebrate the 10th anniversary of the Huskers' first NCAA volleyball title during the annual Red/White Scrimmage on Aug. 20. The entire team, including All-Americans Allison

Weston, Christy Johnson and Lisa Reitsma and Head Coach Terry Pettit, will return to the Coliseum for the ceremonies. In addition, Pettit, a three-time national coach of the year who compiled a 694-149-1 record in 23 seasons at NU, will also be honored for his many contributions to the Husker volleyball program.

Red, White and Blue

Nebraska continued its Olympic tradition in 2004 with Nancy Metcalf's (Meendering) selection to the U.S. Olympic team. Metcalf, a three-time All-American at Nebraska, became the third Husker to make an Olympic team, joining Lori Endicott, who competed in the 1992 and 1996 Olympics, and Allison Weston, who was the captain of the U.S. Team in the 2000 Olympics.

Current Huskers Melissa Elmer, Christina Houghtelling and Jennifer Saleaumua had an opportunity to train with the U.S. National Team program this summer, while Elmer and Houghtelling also represented Team USA at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland.

Success in the Classroom

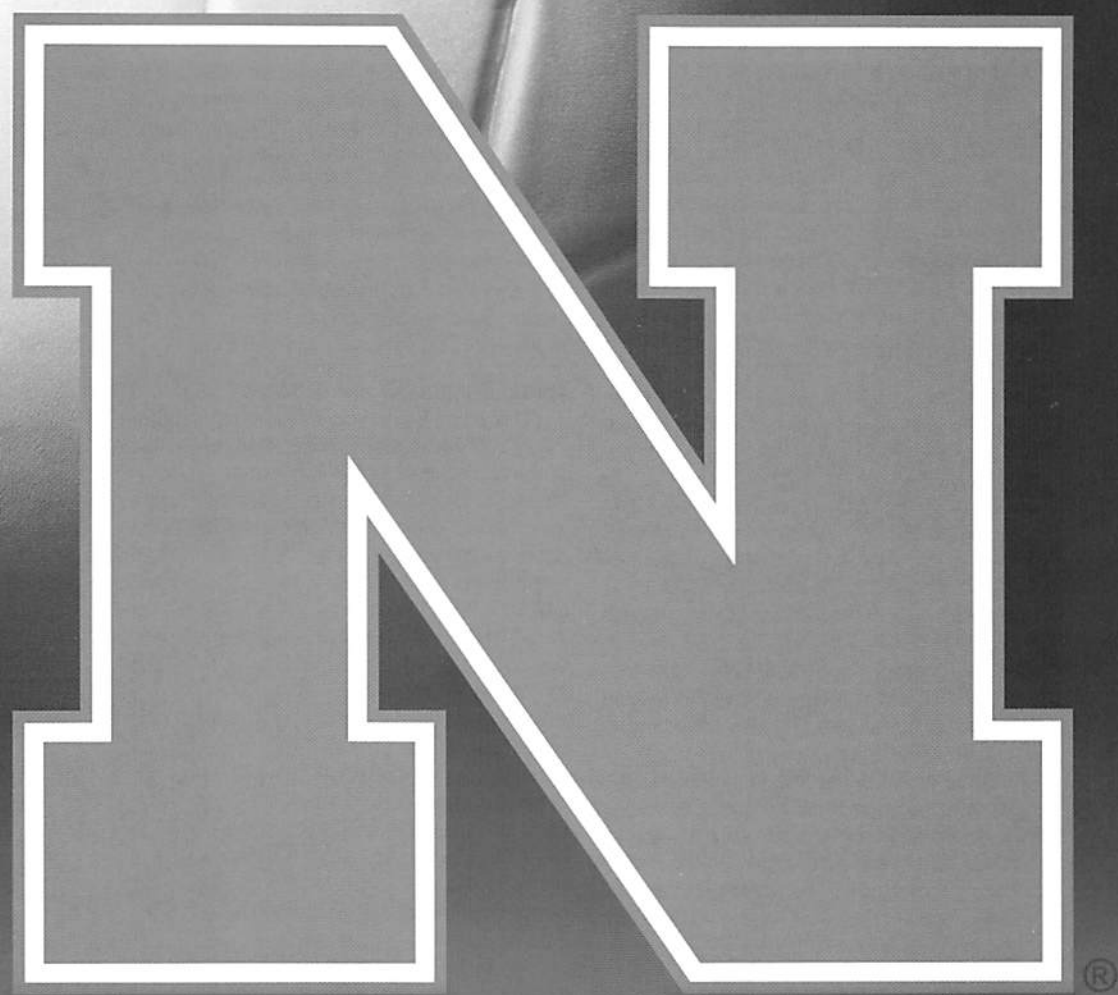

Nebraska continued to excel in the classroom in 2004, as seven Huskers were chosen for the academic All-Big 12 team. The list also included a league-high six first-team honorees (Michelle Lynch, Kelsey Fautsch, Dani Busboom, Christina Houghtelling, Dani Mancuso and Amanda McCormick). Overall, NU has produced an NCAA-leading 17 academic All-Americans, who have earned a nation-best 26 academic All-America certificates. NU has had at least one CoSIDA Academic All-American in 17 of the last 21 seasons.

Foreign Invasion

While Nebraska has traditionally excelled in recruiting the Midwest, freshman outside hitter Sarah Pavan joins an exclusive club among Husker volleyball players. The Kitchener, Ontario, product is only the fourth player from outside the United States in the program's history, joining Greichaly Cepero (Dorado, Puerto Rico; 1999-2002), Maria Hedbeck (Sollentuna, Sweden; 1993-96) and Debbie Brand (Adelaide, Australia; 1989-92).

N

JOHN COOK

Head Coach | Sixth Year | University of San Diego (1979)

John Cook faced a daunting task when he was hired in 2000 to succeed Terry Pettit as the head coach of the Nebraska volleyball team. After all, the legendary Pettit spent 23 seasons at the helm of the Huskers, producing a 694-148-11 overall record and guiding NU to 21 conference championships and six NCAA semifinal appearances.

But in just five seasons as Pettit's successor, Cook has already begun to create an impressive legacy of his own. Since he was named the Nebraska head coach on Dec. 15, 1999, Cook has led the Huskers to the 2000 national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and four Big 12 Conference titles. Cook has guided NU to a 154-11 overall record and a 97-3 league mark. Of NU's 11 losses under Cook, nine were to top-15 teams, and three were to NCAA champion or runner-up teams (2001 NCAA champion Stanford, 2001 NCAA runner-up Long Beach State, 2002 NCAA champion USC). Overall, Cook is 50-9 against ranked teams at Nebraska, and the Huskers have seven wins against top-five teams during the last five years.

With Cook at the helm, Nebraska has produced one Olympian, one AVCA Division I National Player of the Year, one NCAA Top Eight Award winner, one AVCA Division I National Freshman of the Year, one Honda Award winner, 14 AVCA All-Americans, one CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, seven CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, two Big 12 Players of the Year and three Big 12 Co-Players of the Year. The Huskers have also combined for 15 All-Big 12 Conference awards and 27 academic All-Big 12 certificates.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unnoticed, as he was named the 2000 AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the 2001 Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

The 2004 season may have been one of Cook's best coaching jobs, as a youthful squad that had as many as five freshmen or sophomores on the court went 30-2 and were ranked No. 1 in the country heading into the NCAA Tournament. The Huskers displayed a suffocating defense, leading the nation in both opponent hitting percentage (.103) and blocks per game (4.02) before falling to two-time defending NCAA champion USC in five games in the regional final. Three Huskers - Melissa Elmer, Jennifer Saleaumua and Sarah Pavan - earned AVCA All-America honors, while Pavan was chosen as the AVCA National Freshman of the Year. With six starters back from a team that went 20-0 in the Big 12 and went 13-1 against nationally ranked teams in 2004, hopes are high entering the 2005 campaign.

Cook has also been instrumental in helping to expand the program's visibility throughout the state and throughout the Midwest. In 2004, the Huskers hosted a regular-season match against Creighton in North Platte so that the fans in the western part of the state could see the Huskers in person. In addition, Cook's efforts have helped Nebraska enjoy one of the most extensive multi-media packages in the country, as every match is carried live on a state-wide radio network and nearly every contest is shown either live on television or streamed live on the Internet.

Three Straight 30-Win Seasons

Cook didn't waste any time creating his own legacy after taking over for Pettit. In 2000, his first season at the helm, Cook was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the national championship. The Huskers, who became just the second team in NCAA history to cap an undefeated season with a national title, were ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Top 25 poll for a record 14 straight weeks. Nebraska also broke single-season school records for wins and winning percentage.

The Nebraska players flourished under Cook, whose responsibilities included working directly with the setters during his first two seasons. Sophomore setter Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA National Player-of-the-Year honors. Three Huskers won AVCA All-America certificates, and five Nebraska players were named to the All-Big 12 teams. Laura Pilakowski earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, and a

John Cook has compiled a 315-84 record in 12 seasons at the collegiate level, including a national title in 2000.

Nebraska Under Cook

In just four seasons at NU, John Cook has produced eight AVCA All-Americans who have combined for 14 awards. In 2004, Melissa Elmer earned her second All-America certificate, while Jennifer Saleaumua and Sarah Pavan both garnered All-America accolades for the first time. The 2004 campaign marked the fourth time in five years that three Huskers were chosen for All-America honors. In 2001, a school-record and nation-best four Huskers earned AVCA All-America awards.

Cook's players have also excelled academically on a national level. In Cook's five seasons at NU, five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have combined for seven awards.

conference-best seven Huskers earned academic All-Big 12 recognition.

"It was the perfect season," Cook said. "Coming into my first year, I couldn't have imagined anything better than what our coaching staff and this team experienced."

In 2001, Cook's second season, Nebraska fell just two wins short of capturing another NCAA title. The Huskers, who were ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 in the AVCA poll all season, went 20-0 in the Big 12 en route to capturing their fifth consecutive conference championship, and Cook was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year. NU finished the season with a 31-2 record after falling to eventual national champion Stanford in the NCAA semifinals.

Nebraska broke the school record for opponent hitting percentage and placed four players on the AVCA All-America teams, the most in a single-season in school history. Right side hitter Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was selected as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner and was also named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year.

Pilakowski and Cepero joined Metcalf on the CoSIDA Academic All-America teams, as Pilakowski earned second-team honors and Cepero received third-team recognition. A conference-best nine Nebraska players were awarded academic All-Big 12 honors.

In Cook's third season, the Huskers found continued success. NU finished the season ranked fifth in the AVCA poll with a 31-2 record to secure its third straight 30-win season. Nebraska produced the most dominant conference season in school history, going 20-0 and losing just two games en route to winning the league championship for the third straight year. Cepero and Amber Holmquist again earned first-team AVCA All-America honors, and Pilakowski was recognized on the second team. Pilakowski was named a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American, and Holmquist was a second-team pick. Cepero, Holmquist and Pilakowski shared Big 12 Player-of-the-Year accolades. Nebraska was the NCAA blocks per game champion for the third consecutive season and ranked second nationally with a .326 hitting percentage.

John Cook has led Nebraska to Big 12 titles in four of his five years as head coach.

Cook credited Husker seniors Cepero, Holmquist, Pilakowski and Lindsay Wischmeier for much of Nebraska's success.

Cook faced perhaps his greatest coaching challenge at Nebraska during the 2003 season, when the Huskers had to replace three All-Americans and their first-ever libero. With so much young talent, Cook opted to run a 6-2 (two-setter) offense to utilize as many players as possible. NU went on to finish the season with a 28-5 record, an 11-4 mark against NCAA Tournament teams, and an appearance in its 10th straight Sweet 16 after winning 13 of its final 15 matches.

Building the Badgers

Cook, who served as an assistant under Pettit for three seasons from 1988 to 1991, took over the Nebraska head coaching job after serving as associate head coach during the 1999 season. Before returning to Nebraska in 1999, Cook led Wisconsin to six straight postseason appearances in seven seasons as the Badgers' head coach.

Cook's accomplishments at Wisconsin earned him praise as one of the game's top young coaches. Cook built the Badgers into a top-10 program during his seven-year career in Madison, which included back-to-back trips to the NCAA regional finals in 1997 and 1998.

In his final match at Wisconsin, Cook's Badgers fell to the Huskers in a three-hour, five-game battle in the 1998 Pacific Regional Championship in the Nebraska Coliseum. Wisconsin ended the season ranked seventh in the final USA Today/AVCA Coaches Poll after compiling a 30-5 overall record.

Cook, 47, compiled a 161-73 record at the helm of the Badgers, including an 89-51 league mark in one of the nation's toughest conferences. He was named the Big Ten Co-Coach and AVCA District 2 Coach of the Year in 1997 after leading the Badgers to a share of the Big Ten title with a 19-1 mark and school-best 30-3 overall record.

In his seven years as head coach, the Badgers advanced to six straight postseason

During his tenure at UW, he coached four All-Americans, nine AVCA All-District award winners, 11 All-Big Ten honorees and two Big Ten Freshmen of the Year. He also coached 21 academic All-Big Ten selections during his seven seasons.

Other Coaching Experiences

Cook also brings Olympic and championship experience to the Husker staff. As the first assistant coach with the U.S. Men's National Volleyball team, Cook aided the United States to a bronze medal in the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. The team's defensive coordinator, he was also in charge of scouting and supervising the team's flexibility, strength and conditioning programs.

For his Olympic coaching experience, Cook was honored in June of 1993 at the NACDA/USOC Collegiate Coaches Recognition Awards Luncheon.

In the summer of 2004, Cook served as head coach of the Women's National Volleyball Training Team, guiding his squad to the title in the Women's Open Division of the USA Volleyball Adult Open Championships in Atlanta, Ga.

During his first tenure at Nebraska (1989-91), the Huskers advanced to the NCAA semifinals two of the three seasons, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Nebraska also went 36-0 in conference play, capturing three Big Eight Conference championships each of those three seasons. During that time, he served as Pettit's recruiting coordinator, chief scout and strength and conditioning coordinator. Cook was also the liaison with the academic advising center.

In the U.S. Olympic Festival competition, Cook served as head coach of the bronze medal-winning North team in 1989 and was an assistant coach with the third-place West team in 1987.

A co-founder of the San Diego Volleyball Club, Cook served as a coach with the club from 1986 to 1988. The club won two Southern California Regional Championships and finished among the final four teams twice in the USVBA Junior Olympics for girls 18 and under.

Cook also served as the head assistant coach at the University of California-San Diego from 1983 to 1984, where he aided the Tritons to an NCAA Division III national championship in 1984 and a second-place national finish in 1983. Cook's coaching credentials include leading Francis Parker High School in San Diego to two California state championships. During his six-year coaching stint from 1981 to 1988, he had a .900 winning percentage with an overall record of 162-18, including a 90-match winning streak.

A well-known speaker on volleyball skills, Cook travels around the nation participating in clinics. During his stay at Wisconsin, he served as the host of the Badger Coaching Symposium every spring.

A graduate of the University of San Diego, Cook earned his bachelor's degree in history in 1979. He completed his master's degree in teaching and coaching effectiveness from San Diego State in 1991.

Cook and his wife Wendy, a former two-time All-America setter at San Diego State, are the parents of two children, Lauren, 14, and Taylor, 11.

Q&A WITH COACH JOHN COOK

N

Q: What do you enjoy most about coaching at Nebraska?

A: I get the opportunity to work with exceptional athletes and exceptional people every day. I have a wonderful staff to work with in Lee, Charlene and Tina, and the four of us are surrounded by an excellent support staff.

The second thing is that our fans are as passionate as you will find anywhere in the country. Nebraska volleyball really means something to this community and to the young girls across this state. Players have an opportunity to be role models, and to have an impact on people's lives.

Q: What is your coaching philosophy?

A: There are four things that come to mind. No. 1, I see myself as a teacher. It was always my dream to be a teacher, and coaching is teaching. No. 2, next to my family and my faith, the people involved with Nebraska volleyball are the most important thing in my life.

Third, at Nebraska, we like to recruit great athletes. Then we will figure out what those athletes are the most exceptional at and design our system to best take advantage of those qualities. How can we make each athlete the best volleyball player they can be? That's the question we try to answer.

And finally, our players are committed to academic excellence and becoming complete student-athletes.

Q: What do you look for in a recruit?

A: Academically we have a tradition of great student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, the program attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students. Overall, we're looking for good citizens. I've never seen a Nebraska volleyball player treat the opponent or their teammates without respect.

Q: When you are recruiting a potential student-athlete, what are Nebraska's selling points?

A: I think the best thing for a recruit to do is see our team play. We play at a high level, but what may be most important, is how we play. It's a very exciting brand of volleyball based on great athletes moving very quickly and transitioning very fast. We've always had a reputation of taking great athletes and training them to become exceptional volleyball players.

We have a great academic tradition with our academic support staff and the Hewitt Center. We lead the nation in academic All-America honors and the majority of our players go on to graduate school.

I think another important factor is the exposure our program receives. Our goal is to be on the cutting edge. We are the only program in the country that has its own radio network with a flagship station that is one of the strongest in the state, a state-wide weekly television program and all of our matches shown live on the Internet.

Our school's rich volleyball tradition over the years also plays an important role in recruiting. In many cases, people know they were meant to be here.

Q: How important is the Nebraska Coliseum to Husker volleyball?

A: I have coached at Nebraska in some capacity for 10 seasons, and time and time again, I've seen the Coliseum will the Huskers to wins in close matches. I don't know if it's the ghosts or spirits of the building, or maybe just the intense energy of the fans, but playing in the Coliseum has become pivotal to our success.

It's exciting for the players to know that no matter who the opponent may be, the Huskers will play in front of a sold out crowd. We annually rank among the national attendance leaders and have 56 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum. Our fans give us an unmatched home court advantage.

Q: In your first four seasons, the Huskers have posted a 154-11 record and have advanced to the NCAA semifinals twice. What have been the keys to your success?

A: There are so many different things that have factored into our success over the past few seasons, but I guess I would point to four things. No. 1, we've had players who have been committed to Nebraska volleyball, were disciplined, worked hard, and trusted the coaches and each other.

No. 2, the staff has been able to maintain a great chemistry and balance in running this team.

The third thing is our fans. We have honestly had our fans will us to win a handful of matches over the past five seasons that have allowed us to play for national championships. These teams have been fun to watch, and our fans have responded.

The fourth factor is the Nebraska athletic department administration. Their support has been remarkable, and for that I am very thankful.

Our athletic director, Steve Pederson, is very excited about the Nebraska athletic department and the future of Husker volleyball.

Q: Why is this coaching staff among the elite staffs in the country?

A: Two of the most important points to make is the experience of our staff and level of teaching from both the college and USA Volleyball program. When Craig (Skinner) was hired at Kentucky, our goal was to find the best coach to come into Nebraska and help us accomplish our goals and without a doubt, Lee (Maes) was the strongest candidate that we could find. He has been heavily involved in the USA program, has coached at the club level and built California into a top-20 program. He started and created the USA Volleyball High Performance program that many of our best players have participated in over the years.

Charlene has been a wonderful addition to our staff. She is one of the best setters this country has ever produced and has competed on the U.S. National Team in the Olympics and had many successes as their starting setter.

I also think that as a whole, we are a young, enthusiastic, energetic staff that never stops trying to challenge and motivate the players to become the best they can be.

Q: Can you talk about expanding into Omaha for the AVCA/NACWAA Showcase, NCAA Regionals and the 2006 NCAA Championships?

A: Omaha is a great sports town, and the College World Series has proven that over the years. College sports are important in this part of the country because of the absence of pro sports teams in the region.

Why not make Omaha the volleyball capital of the United States? It has a chance to do that with three great events over the next two years. Volleyball needs to prove it can sell out major events, and Omaha has a chance to establish itself as a great volleyball town that can attract and keep events like the NCAA Championships.

John Cook earned AVCA National Coach of the Year in 2000 after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the first undefeated season in school history.

LEE MAES

Head Assistant Coach | First Year | Long Beach State University (1994)

A veteran of the collegiate and international coaching ranks, Lee Maes (pronounced MAYS) begins his first season as head assistant coach in the Nebraska program.

Maes, who has spent the last seven seasons at the University of California, was hired in January of 2005, replacing Craig Skinner, who was named the head coach at the University of Kentucky last December.

Nebraska Head Coach John Cook said that Maes' extensive coaching background, technical knowledge and infectious enthusiasm make him a rising star in the collegiate coaching ranks.

"He's going to bring some new energy and ideas to this program," Cook said. "He's shown that he is an excellent recruiter, and I know he is one of the best coaches in the gym that I have ever been around."

In his role as head assistant coach, Maes handles player training while serving as the Huskers' recruiting coordinator. He also handles opponent scouting and game preparation and oversees Nebraska's summer camp program.

For the past 12 years, Maes has accumulated extensive national and international experience with the USA Volleyball program. In 2004 and 2005, he coached with the National A-2 Team, winning the gold medal at the 2004 U.S. Open Championships in Atlanta, Ga., where he served as an assistant to Cook. This summer, Maes continued his involvement with the USA national program, serving as an assistant coach with the A-2 National Team, a group that included current Huskers Melissa Elmer, Christina Houghtelling and Jennifer Saleaumua.

In the summer of 1998, Maes was a coach with the USA Girls Youth National Team that won the gold medal at the NORCECA Zone Championship in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. In the summer of 1999, he again coached the USA Girls Youth National Team at the World Championships in Portugal.

Maes has filled various roles with the USA national and junior high-performance programs and has led the girls' National High Performance team as head coach in training and competition from 1999 to 2003.

"He has extensive experience with the USA Volleyball program and has spent the last eight years coaching in the Pac-10," Cook said. "I had an opportunity to coach with him on the U.S. National A-2 Team in 2004, and after that experience, I thought that he would be someone that we would pursue if we ever had an opening on our staff."

Before Nebraska

Maes was instrumental in helping California's rise since his arrival on the Berkeley campus in 1998, as the Golden Bears have reached the NCAA Tournament in each of the past three seasons - a first for California since the late 1980s. For his efforts, he was promoted to associate head coach before the 2004 season.

In 2004, the Golden Bears went 17-12, including wins over eventual national champion Stanford and national semifinalist USC, and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament before finishing No. 18 in the final USA Today/CSTV Coaches poll. Maes also assisted in the development of Camille Leffall, who earned second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2004. Maes was promoted to associate head coach following the 2003 season in which California finished 25-7 overall and advanced to the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 for the first time in school history. Maes was involved in all aspects of the Golden Bear program, including on-court training and opponent scouting and recruited a total of 11 All-Pac-10 Conference performers, including two-time All-American Mia Jerkov.

In addition to his experience in helping with California's women's volleyball program, Maes served as the Bears' head men's volleyball coach from 1997 to 2000. In his first season (1997-98), he guided Cal to the NCCVL Conference championship and a national runner-up finish at the NIRSA Collegiate Club National Championship in Austin, Texas. That season culminated in Maes being honored as coach of the year, as he helped produce a pair of first-team All-Americans and a second-team All-American. Maes' men's team recorded three consecutive top-five national finishes (1998-2000), amassing an overall record of 98-27.

Prior to arriving at California, Maes spent seven seasons coaching with the Ichiban Volleyball Club, winning five medals at the Junior Olympic National Championships, including a national title in 1996. Two of his former club players, Misty May and Heather Bown, represented the United States at the 2004 Summer Olympic Games in Athens, Greece. During his 15 years as a junior club coach for both boys and girls, Maes coached and trained over two dozen junior and high school All-Americans while more than 100 of his former club players have gone on to play at the collegiate level.

Most recently, Maes coached with the Golden Bear Volleyball Club. In 2003, his Golden Bear 18-Forefront team earned the 18-Open bronze medal at the Junior Olympic Championships. Maes served as the girls' varsity head coach at Lakewood (Calif.) High School from 1989 to 1997. He was also the boys' varsity coach at Edison High School in Huntington Beach for four seasons (1994-97).

A native of Long Beach, Calif., Maes graduated from Long Beach State in 1994 with a degree in broadcast journalism and geography.

CHARLENE TAGALOA

Assistant Coach | Third Year | Brigham Young University (1999)

Charlene Tagaloa (pronounced shar-LEEN Ton-ga-LOE-uh) is in her third season as an assistant coach with the Nebraska program. A former U.S. National Team setter, Tagaloa coaches the Husker setters and provides a supportive role in recruiting. Her additional duties include serving as the team video coordinator and as a liaison for academics and community involvement. She also assists with summer camps.

In 2004, Tagaloa helped sophomore Dani Busboom earn AVCA All-Midwest Region honors, as Busboom ranked 24th nationally in assists with 13.1 assists per game. Her average was the highest by a Husker since 1998, while she also helped Nebraska rank in the top-20 in both hitting percentage (.281) and kills per game (17.20).

In her first year at Nebraska, Tagaloa was essential to the development of two young setters in the Huskers' 6-2 offense, as the Huskers replaced three-time All-American Greichaly Cepero. With the help of Tagaloa, Busboom and sophomore Michelle Lynch led NU to a .249 hitting percentage, which ranked fourth in the Big 12.

"Charlene is one of the best setters this country has ever produced," NU Coach John Cook said. "She understands what it takes to make it to the top of her sport, and she has worked with USA Volleyball's future setters. Charlene is a great role model for our players who have their own Olympic dreams."

Tagaloa remains heavily involved with USA Volleyball, serving as a coach for the High Performance Camps in each of the past three years. In 2002, she was elected to the USA Volleyball Board of Directors to serve a three-year term as an international female player representative.

Before Nebraska

Tagaloa previously served one season as an assistant coach with the U.S. Junior National Team, helping to guide the squad to a silver medal at the 2002 NORCECA Women's Continental Championship. Tagaloa's other previous coaching experiences include a stint as BYU's undergraduate assistant coach in 1995 and as assistant coach of the Grand Rapids Force of the United States Professional Volleyball League during the 2001-02 season. She also runs Tagaloa's Setting/All Skills Clinics with her husband.

Playing Experience

Tagaloa made a Nebraska connection during her time with the U.S. National Team when she competed alongside former U.S. National Team captain Allison Weston (1992-95). Tagaloa and Weston were roommates during the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

A member of the U.S. National Team from 1997 to 2001, she was the starting setter for the squad from January of 1999 to August of 2000. In her first season directing the U.S. National Team's offense, Tagaloa earned the best setter award at the 1999 NORCECA Championships after leading her team to a second-place finish. She also guided the squad to a bronze medal at the 1999 Pan American Games. In 2000, Tagaloa helped Team USA qualify for the Sydney Olympics as the starting setter at the NIKE Americas Volleyball Challenge. She also earned the best setter award at the four-team event. However, Tagaloa sprained her wrist during a tour of Germany just prior to leaving for the Grand Prix, Team USA's final tune-up before the Olympics, and was relegated to a supporting role in Sydney.

Tagaloa has played professionally overseas, competing in Italy for Barrese Volley Napoli and in Switzerland for Adliswil. She also competed professionally in Salt Lake City in the National Volleyball Association (1994-95) and the Professional Volleyball League (1995-96).

Before her international career, Tagaloa played collegiately at Brigham Young from 1991 to 1994. A two-time AVCA All-American, Tagaloa guided BYU to the school's first-ever NCAA semifinal appearance in 1994 after earning Western Athletic Conference Player-of-the-Year honors. During her four-year career at Brigham Young, the Cougars produced three WAC championships and a 109-16 record. Tagaloa, the 1991 WAC Freshman of the Year, ended her career as the Cougars' all-time assist leader with 5,321. A native of Phoenix, Ariz., Tagaloa attended Clark High School in Las Vegas, Nev., where she was named a Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 recruit and a Mizuno First-Team Prep All-American.

Tagaloa earned a bachelor's degree in therapeutic recreation from Brigham Young in 1999. The former Charlene Johnson, Tagaloa is married to Ropeti (Inga) Saofaiga Tagaloa. They have three children, a 12-year-old son Kaiipo (Fresh) and two daughters, Vailin-Gabby, 3, and Sydney, 1.

CHRISTIE LANDRY

Volunteer Assistant Coach | First Year | Michigan State University (2002)

The newest member of the Husker coaching staff, Christie Landry begins her first season as a volunteer assistant coach in the Husker program.

A former All-Big Ten setter at Michigan State and assistant coach at Kentucky, Landry will assist the Husker program in a variety of ways, including assisting Charlene Tagalao in the training of the setters and assisting in the Huskers' recruiting efforts. Landry will also take an active role in on-court drills during practice.

Nebraska Head Coach John Cook said that Landry's playing and coaching experience will be beneficial to the Nebraska program.

"Christine was a great add-on as a volunteer assistant," Cook said. "She is very good in the gym, and she is motivated because she wants to be a head coach and this is a great opportunity for her. She can hit and set if we need to, and that provides us with another person in the gym with great skill."

Before Nebraska

Landry, 26, began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky during the 2004 season. In her role, she primarily worked with the setters while assisting with recruiting and directing team travel.

Prior to joining the collegiate ranks, she was an assistant coach for the Sports Performance Volleyball Club. In that role, she worked with the setters and coordinated scouting and statistical analysis efforts. In 2003, her club team placed third at the USA

Championships. She began her coaching career while at Michigan State, serving as the freshman coach at Haslett High School as she completed her degree.

Playing Experience

A 2002 graduate of Michigan State, Landry played for the Spartan program from 1997 to 2000, helping the Spartans to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances during her career under legendary coach Chuck Erbe. A two-time All-Big Ten selection (1998 and 2000), she finished her career in third place on MSU's all-time lists in both total assists (3,761) and assists per game (9.62) despite not playing the position until her sophomore season. In 2000, she was named team MVP after totaling 1,503 assists - the second-highest total in school history at the time - and leading Michigan State to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The 6-2 Landry was drafted into the United States Professional League in 2002 for the St. Louis Quest. She quickly joined the Club Voleibol Sant Cugat in Barcelona, Spain, where she spent the season training and traveling throughout Europe.

Landry attended Saint Francis High School in Wheaton, Ill., where she was named the 1996 Chicago Sun Times High School Player of the Year and the Gatorade Player of the Year. While playing club volleyball, she was a Junior Olympic All-American in 1995 and 1997 and a member of the USA Volleyball gold-medal winning teams in the same years. Landry was a Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 selection in 1997.

TINA WESTERHOLD

Director of Operations | Second Year | Nebraska Wesleyan Univ. (2000)

Tina Westerhold is in her second year as Director of Operations for the Husker volleyball program.

In her role, Westerhold handles a variety of duties for the Husker volleyball team, including team travel, budgeting, coordinating tournaments and camps and assisting visiting teams. She also serves as a liaison for volleyball support units, including facilities and events, media relations, marketing, compliance, HuskerVision, the ticket office, alumni and The Match Club. She also provides radio color commentary with John Baylor during Nebraska's road matches.

Westerhold joined the Husker volleyball staff in January of 2004 after serving as an academic counselor at Nebraska for the previous two years. She served briefly as an NU assistant academic counselor during the summer of 2001 before returning to Lincoln in May of 2002 after receiving her master's degree. She was promoted to interim academic counselor in August of 2003, serving as the counselor for men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis, women's basketball and swimming and diving.

Before arriving at Nebraska, Westerhold worked in games and event management at Wisconsin-La Crosse, where she oversaw home event operations, including marketing and promotions, and was the event manager for the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference softball championship. Westerhold previously worked as an intern for the Lincoln Lightning and was an intern in the Nebraska Wesleyan sports information office.

While at Nebraska Wesleyan, Westerhold was a four-year letterwinner for the Prairie Wolves' volleyball team. She was a first-team All-NIAC selection in 1997 and 1998 and was a second-team pick in 1999. A standout in the classroom, Westerhold received the scholar-athlete award for volleyball in 1999 and 2000, and was a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa health and human performance honorary at Wesleyan.

A native of Pender, Neb., Westerhold graduated with high distinction from Nebraska Wesleyan in May of 2000 with a degree in sports management. She received a master of exercise and sport science with an emphasis in sports administration from Wisconsin-La Crosse in May of 2002.

VOLLEYBALL SUPPORT STAFF

JOLENE EMRICSON

Athletic Trainer | Fourth Year

Jolene Emricson is in her fourth season as the athletic trainer for the Nebraska volleyball team.

Before arriving in Lincoln, Emricson spent one year as the men's lacrosse athletic trainer at the University of Denver.

Emricson, who is from Colorado Springs, Colo., earned a bachelor of arts degree from the Metropolitan State College of Denver in human performance and sport with a concentration in athletic training. She received her master's degree in education from the University of Nebraska in May of 2004.

LAURA PILAKOWSKI

Strength Coach | Second Year

Laura Pilakowski is in her second year as a full-time strength and conditioning coach for the Nebraska volleyball, softball and soccer programs. She is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist.

Pilakowski was a two-time AVCA All-American volleyball player at Nebraska and three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American. A three-time first-team All-Big 12 selection, she shared conference player-of-the-year honors as a senior in 2002. She was Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year in 2002-03 and the Big 12 Sportswoman of the Year in 2003 for her athletic and academic success and her extensive involvement in the community. As an athlete, Pilakowski excelled in the weight room, where she was a two-time Husker Power Volleyball Lifter of the Year and the 2001 Husker Power Female Athlete of the Year.

A native of Columbus, Neb., Pilakowski graduated with highest distinction from the University of Nebraska in December of 2003, earning a bachelor's degree in marketing.

MICHELLE GLOVER

HuskerVision Production Coordinator Sixth Year

Michelle Glover enters her sixth year as a video production specialist, and seventh on the HuskerVision staff. She works directly with the nationally prominent volleyball team, and she produces and hosts John Cook's weekly state-wide television show. Glover also serves as the producer of the HuskerVision screens at Memorial Stadium on gamedays and on the Bill Callahan Show. Glover also directs the HuskerVision screens for men's basketball games.

Glover, a native of Neosho, Mo., came to NU after nearly four years as a director at KOLN/KGIN-TV and three years at KTVQ-TV in Kirksville, Mo. She earned her bachelor's degree from Truman State. Glover and her husband Jason, have two sons, Gage (4) and Easton, who was born in April of 2005.

KEITH ZIMMER

Assistant A.D. for Student Life
15th Year

Keith Zimmer has been with the athletic department since 1988. Before being promoted to his current position in April of 2004, Zimmer served as the associate director of academic programs and director of life skills.

Zimmer directs the career counseling program for student-athletes and the community outreach program. He is in charge of academic awards and contributes to the development of academic-related videos, brochures and newsletters. Regarded as a national leader in the Life Skills area, Zimmer was selected as a trainer for the NCAA Life Skills program in 1997. In 1998-99, Nebraska's Life Skills program received the prestigious Program of Excellence Award. Zimmer also helps facilitate "Husker CHOICES," the NCAA Choices Alcohol Education program.

Zimmer serves as the sport counselor for softball, soccer and volleyball and assists the director with football. He also oversees the athletic department's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee.

Zimmer is a board member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports and is a two-time recipient of the Award of Excellence for his leadership and commitment to the Lincoln Public Schools and Ventures in Partnership program. With assistance from the Lincoln Public Schools Special Education Department and Golden Key National Honor Society, Zimmer directed the "School is Cool" Jam, which reached more than 100,000 elementary students in its 10-year existence. He is an honorary member of the Golden Key National Honor Society and Mortar Board and has received the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students.

Zimmer earned his bachelor's degree at Wayne State College and his master's in education from Springfield (Mass.) College. Zimmer and his wife, Michelle, have two sons, Logan and Caden.

SHAMUS MCKNIGHT

Assistant Media Relations Director
Ninth Year

Shamus McKnight is in his second year working with the Husker volleyball program and ninth year at the University of Nebraska. McKnight handles all media relations for Nebraska's baseball and volleyball programs. At Nebraska, he has been responsible for six media guides that have earned "Best in the Nation" Awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), while also serving as the content manager for the athletic department website, Huskers.com, for five years. In 2004, his volleyball guide was named "Best in the Nation."

McKnight served as the NU media relations office intern for two years (1997-99) and handled media relations for men's and women's gymnastics and assisted with football duties. A 1996 graduate of Baldwin-Wallace College, he also served stints at Central Connecticut State University and the U.S. Senior Golf Open.

STEVE PEDERSON

Athletic Director | Third Year

Tradition, Teamwork, Integrity. These are the core values of the Husker Nation, and also the principles of champions.

After being named his alma mater's 12th athletic director on Dec. 20, 2002, Steve Pederson quickly established these ideals as the driving force that would guide Nebraska back to the pinnacle of collegiate athletics.

To reach that objective, Pederson's first priority was improving Nebraska's facilities to help attract the best student-athletes in the country. Plans were quickly put in place for what will become the best collegiate athletic facility in the nation, one that will be the showcase of the athletic department and provide the edge needed to bring home the next Husker championships.

"Steve has the necessary vision and leadership it takes to be successful at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics," said head football coach Bill Callahan. "He has infused our athletic program with energy and optimism that will provide great momentum in years to come."

The benefits of the new facilities could be extraordinary considering the Huskers' recent success. Leading the way in 2004-05 was the Nebraska baseball team, which captured the imaginations of Husker fans around the nation by reaching the 2005 College World Series and winning a school-record 57 games. It was the third time in five years NU played on the sport's grandest stage, as the Huskers ended the greatest season in program history among the final six teams vying for a spot in the championship series.

Nebraska squads led the Big 12 with eight regular-season or tournament titles in 2004-05, including a conference-best six regular-season championships. It was the most titles by the Huskers since the 2000-01 campaign. Nebraska also won four Big 12 coach-of-the-year and two player-of-the-year honors while adding five freshman- or newcomer-of-the-year accolades.

Last year, 13 of Nebraska's 23 varsity sports were ranked among the top 25 in their final national polls or at the NCAA Championships, led by the women's bowling team which earned the national title for the second consecutive season. It is the only team to win the championship since the sport was recognized by the NCAA. Overall, Nebraska has won 22 team national titles to rank among the top collegiate programs in the country.

The Husker men's and women's track and field teams combined for three conference titles and three top-10 finishes at nationals, while the top-ranked volleyball team went undefeated on its way to another Big 12 crown. The women's gymnastics team won the league title for the seventh time since the formation of the Big 12 before advancing to the Super Six Finals.

In the classroom, five Huskers earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, raising Nebraska's NCAA-leading total to 222, while Huskers earned 531 honors the last two semesters by being selected to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll with a 3.0 or better GPA. A conference-leading 139 Husker student-athletes claimed academic All-Big 12 honors and 108 earned their degrees last year.

Pederson is an award-winning athletic director with experience at four prominent Division I schools. A tireless worker with a contagious winning attitude,

Pederson is implementing his vision for the future of Nebraska, which includes three vital components to success: a staff that will outwork the competition; enhancing facilities in order to attract the nation's best student-athletes; and a unified approach to enable student-athletes to succeed in all facets of life.

"Steve has worked hard to revitalize the tradition that has made Nebraska one of the best athletic programs in the country," said Mike Devaney, son of Hall of Fame Coach and Athletic Director Bob Devaney. "My dad felt that you had to have fun and enjoy what you are doing to be successful, and Steve has made it fun again. At the same time, he is not afraid to make tough decisions. I believe my dad would agree with Steve's vision of the future."

Nebraska's championship tradition has been built by outstanding student-athletes and coaches over the years, but Pederson believes the foundation of Nebraska's success is its fans — not only the 1.7 million people who call the state home, but also fans who support NU from around the nation.

Since December 2002, Pederson has worked hard to integrate Husker fans into the NU athletic program. He declared the 2003-04 season the "Year of the Fan" and conceptualized the first Husker Nation Tour, where football coaches, players and staff blanketed the state. The event was an instant success, and has reached more than 35,000 fans across the state over the past three years.

Pederson developed the Husker Nation Pavilion for football fans to enjoy a family-friendly, fan-fest atmosphere before home football games. He also worked to keep ticket prices down, as tickets increased just $1.25 in his first two seasons at Nebraska and prices ranked sixth among Big 12 schools. Pederson also made single-game football tickets available in an on-line pool that has allowed additional fans an opportunity to see Husker home games.

From creating the first comprehensive strength program to its nationally renowned academic support system, Nebraska has always been at the forefront in providing unmatched resources for its student-athletes. Pederson is continuing that tradition as he has shown the foresight and vision needed to ensure long-term success for athletic programs, both at Pittsburgh and Nebraska.

In November of 2003, Pederson announced the Husker Nation Championship Drive, a $50 million fund-raising project to support the creation of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex. The state-of-the-art building will house renovated athletic medicine, weight room and locker room facilities along with football and administrative offices. The comprehensive project also includes a new indoor facility and practice fields that will benefit each of Nebraska's 23 programs, and will provide an additional 6,000-plus seats for Memorial Stadium, pushing capacity to 80,000 when construction is completed in 2006.

Pederson's efforts have the interests of the student-athletes in mind. He has implemented support programs to aid student-athlete's academic, athletic, personal and professional development. In order to assist student-athletes with their postgraduation pursuits, he worked with Assistant Athletic Director for Student Life Keith Zimmer to enhance Nebraska's nationally recognized Life Skills program. They created the Life Skills Award for the team that demonstrated the strongest commitment to all phases of the life skills program, including outreach, education and leadership.

According to Pederson, one crucial area in building an athletic department is to have coaches who not only possess strong leadership skills and the vision to run a program, but also the integrity to follow Big 12 and NCAA rules.

In January of 2004, Pederson hired Bill Callahan to guide the Husker football program back to elite status. Recognized nationally as one of the brightest minds in football, Callahan came from the NFL's Oakland Raiders, where he led the franchise to an AFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XXXVII in his first season as head coach.

A firm believer in the philosophy that hard work pays off, Pederson was given his first chance at leading a Division I program when he was hired as athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh in 1996. A young and relatively unknown commodity at the time, Pederson returned the Panthers to the national spotlight in just six years.

Pederson is credited with turning around the Pittsburgh athletic program. As a result of his hard work and effective leadership style, Pederson was named the recipient of the 2002 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award, annually presented by the All-American Football Foundation for outstanding administrative achievement.

Pederson helped construct several new facilities at Pittsburgh, including shaping the vision of the Petersen Events Center, a convocation center that provided Pittsburgh with one of the finest college basketball arenas in the country. Behind Pederson's efforts, the Panther football team was blessed with the Duratz Athletic Complex and the UPMC Sports Performance Complex, a practice venue that opened in 2000. In 2001, the Panthers debuted Heinz Field, a new facility the football team shares with the Steelers. Pederson also oversaw major upgrades to several Olympic sport facilities.

During his tenure at Pittsburgh, Pederson hired six coaches who combined to earn Big East Coach-of-the-Year honors in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, baseball and track and field. Under Pederson's head coaching hires, the football team made three straight bowl appearances, including two victories, while the men's basketball team went on to gain back-to-back Sweet 16 berths.

In his first stint at Nebraska, Pederson helped negotiate the original football contract with adidas in 1995 and oversaw the recent completion of a new contract that will supply all Husker teams with adidas apparel through 2010.

If it seems that Pederson has a passion for the Huskers, he does. Although Pederson lived outside the state for 13 years while gaining valuable experience at three major Division I institutions, Pederson's love of Nebraska has never wavered.

Pederson and his wife, Tami, both earned degrees from the University of Nebraska. Steve earned his bachelor's degree from UNL in business administration in 1980 and began his career at Nebraska, first as a sports information assistant (1980-81) and then as football recruiting coordinator (1982 to 1986). He returned as the associate athletic director for football operations from 1994 to 1996.

As the Husker associate athletic director for football, Pederson oversaw the refurbishment of the football administrative offices, and the construction of a new halftime meeting room, postgame interview room and players and coaches locker rooms. He reorganized the program's administrative wing and played a definitive role in Nebraska's three national championships in the 1990s (1994, 1995 and 1997) under Head Coach Tom Osborne.

Pederson left the state of Nebraska in 1988 to serve as Ohio State's recruiting coordinator until 1991, then moved on to the University of Tennessee to devote three years as the athletic administrator for football from 1991 to 1994. In his three seasons at Tennessee, the Volunteers' recruiting classes were regarded among the nation's top three nationally by several publications. He was promoted from recruiting coordinator to assistant athletic director for recruiting in 1992, and then was elevated to associate athletic director for football operations in 1993.

Pederson has been active on several committees. He is currently a member of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame District Screening Committee. While at Pittsburgh, he served as the chairman of the Big East Conference Executive Committee and additionally served as the Big East representative to the NCAA's Football Issues Committee.

A native of North Platte, Neb., Pederson has experience in the non-athletic business sector, spending one year as Ak-Sar-Ben's Public Relations Director (1981-82), and two years in private business in Nebraska (1986 to 1988), before returning to college football in 1988 at Ohio State.

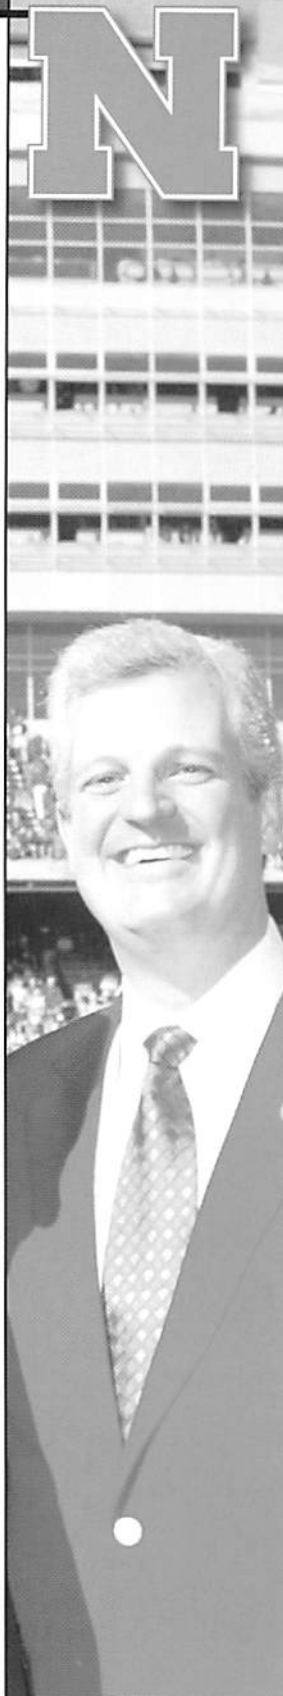

Pederson, who was born Oct. 24, 1957, and his wife Tami Osborne Pederson have three children: Mark (22), Kari (19) and Kristin (16).

Tami earned a bachelor's of music education degree and a master's of music degree from the University of Nebraska. She is a violinist with the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra and teaches violin at Nebraska Wesleyan University. She has performed with professional orchestras and string quartets in Nebraska, Ohio, Tennessee and Pennsylvania and has taught at Capital University and the University of Tennessee.

In the past year, Tami, along with Janelle Boehm and Lisa Miles, organized SHARE (Spouses of Husker Athletics Reaching and Embracing), which has done tremendous charitable work within the state. It has involved 30 spouses of Husker athletic department coaches and staff and six local organizations.

MARC BOEHM

Executive Associate A.D. | Third Year

Marc Boehm (pronounced BAME) was hired in May of 2003 to serve as Nebraska's Executive Associate Athletic Director. Boehm is the top assistant to the athletic director and fulfills the director's responsibilities in his absence.

Boehm has administrative oversight of the Husker men's and women's basketball programs and oversees the efforts of the development, athletic medicine and ticket offices. He also provides guidance to HuskerVision and NU's Internet presence, Huskers.com, and assists the athletic director on special projects, including television and radio contracts.

As primary administrator for the basketball programs, Boehm has worked tirelessly to create a fan-friendly atmosphere at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. From adding court-side seats to developing affordable season-ticket packages, he has been instrumental in making the Devaney Center one of the best home-court atmospheres in the Big 12 Conference.

Both teams have seen growing numbers at the turnstiles under Boehm, as the teams have combined for three postseason appearances in the past two seasons. The women's team advanced to the third round of the WNIT in 2005, just one year after the men's team won two postseason games to reach the third round.

Boehm's efforts to enhance NU's gameday atmosphere were not restricted to the basketball programs. He was instrumental in conceptualizing and developing the Husker Nation Pavilion, which quickly became the premier pregame event around home football games. The area, which is free to the public, includes a video board, interactive games, autograph sessions with current and former athletes, professional music groups and vendors. It also serves as the location for the Pinnacle Sports Network pregame show, giving fans a family-friendly venue.

Boehm also took the lead role in obtaining First National Bank as a premier sponsor for the Nebraska Athletic Department for nearly $3 million over a three-year period. First National Bank joined ALLTEL, Pepsi and adidas as premier corporate sponsors for Husker athletics.

The 43-year old Boehm held the same position under Steve Pederson at Pittsburgh from 1997 to 2003. With the Panthers, Boehm assisted in the rise of the basketball program with the men's team posting back-to-back Sweet 16 appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

Boehm also played a central role in the development of the Panthers' new athletic facilities. He was a principal planner for the football team's move into the UPMC Sports Performance Complex and Heinz Field, and played a key role in various aspects of the Petersen Events Center, the university's new basketball arena.

Boehm served as interim athletic director at Pittsburgh for nearly five months before coming to Nebraska. During that time, he hired new men's (Jamie Dixon) and women's basketball (Agnus Berenato) and soccer (Sue-Moy Chin) head coaches for the Panther program. Under Dixon's direction, the Panthers won a school-record 31 games in his first season and reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third consecutive season.

Boehm spent five years as associate executive director of the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where he was instrumental in building community and marketing programs. He helped pioneer the Fiesta Bowl's move into what eventually evolved into the Bowl Championship Series and worked with the collegiate community in the operation of the game and its 40 other community events. In addition, Boehm directed and managed a 125-member fund-raising committee of Arizona business leaders that was responsible for generating more than $4.5 million in cash and in-kind partnerships.

Before joining the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl staff, Boehm spent four years as associate executive director and public relations director of the Sun Bowl from 1987 to 1991. He went to the Sun Bowl after one year as a sports information intern at the University of Florida.

Born in Grand Island, Boehm earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Kansas State University in 1984 and added a master's degree in sports management from St. Thomas (Fla.) University in 1985. Boehm and his wife, the former Janelle Broderick of Minot, N.D., have three boys, Broderick, Christian and Lukas John.

DR. BARBARA HIBNER

Associate A.D./SWA | 28th Year

Beginning her 28th year at Nebraska, Dr. Barbara A. Hibner serves as associate athletic director and senior women's administrator.

In addition to her responsibilities with compliance for the entire athletic program, Hibner has also coordinated and directed special events, including conference and NCAA events in basketball, gymnastics, softball, volleyball, soccer, swimming and diving and men's and women's tennis. Most recently, she served as the tournament director for the first and second rounds of the 2004 NCAA Volleyball Tournament at the NU Coliseum and the 2005 NCAA Softball Regional at Bowlin Stadium in Lincoln.

Hibner supervises the publication of the student-athlete handbook and was the senior editor of the letterwinners directory, "107 Years of Letterwinners at Nebraska," in 1997. Hibner was also the driving force in the creation of Nebraska's mascot, "Lil' Red" in 1994.

Hibner was an active member of the NCAA Committee on Athletics Certification and served a five-year term as a peer reviewer. She also completed service as chairwoman of the Big 12 Conference Board of Senior Woman Administrators in September of 1999, and currently is a member of the Big 12's Administrative and Television Committees.

Hibner was selected to receive the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award from the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2003. She was chosen as the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators District VII Administrator of the Year in 1997. The National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women named Hibner the 1998-99 Region Three Administrator of the Year. Hibner, who received the YWCA Tribute to Women award in 1994, was honored in 2000 with the Nebraska Athletic Department's first Trailblazer Award.

Hibner joined the NU staff in 1978 as the assistant women's athletic director with responsibility for day-to-day operations, compliance and development of the first staff policy and procedures manual for the women's athletic department. She became the women's athletic director in 1985. Her position changed from women's athletic director to associate athletic director and senior women's administrator in 1994. The 2005 year will be Hibner's final one at NU, as she is retiring in December. Husker softball coach Rhonda Revelle will assume the duties of SWA in January of 2006.

Hibner is a supporter of the progress and advancement of women's athletics at Nebraska and throughout the nation. In the past 10 years, soccer (1994), bowling (1997) and rifle (1998) have been added, making Nebraska the Big 12 leader with 13 sports programs providing women 117 scholarship opportunities. She established events in Lincoln for women's gymnastics, basketball and volleyball. Hibner was responsible for the partnership between the women's athletic department and DARE in 1989 that encouraged student-athlete involvement in community service projects. She received the lifetime achievement award from the Lancaster County Sheriff's Office in May of 2004.

A native of Gettysburg, Pa., Hibner earned her bachelor of science degree from Penn State University in 1964. She continued her education at the State University of New York at Cortland, receiving her master of science degree in 1970. She earned a Ph.D. from Texas Women's University in 1977.

Hibner came to Nebraska after serving as a successful teacher, coach and athletic administrator at both the high school and collegiate levels.

She is a member of the National Association for Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators. Hibner previously was a member of the National Association of Athletic Marketing and Development and the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators.

Hibner is also a member of the American Association of University Women, and the softball, women's basketball and volleyball coaches associations. She was also a member of the NCAA Women's Committee on Committees from 1989 to 1991. She was chairperson of the NCAA Division I Midwest Softball Advisory Committee and a member of the NCAA Division I Softball Committee from 1999 to 2003. She also served as director of the Women's College World Series in 1991.

Hibner has also served on the Board of Directors of the University of Nebraska Federal Credit Union for six years, and is a past president of the University of Nebraska Association for Administrative Development.

HARVEY PERLMAN, J.D.

University of Nebraska Chancellor

Harvey Perlman was named the 19th Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on April 1, 2001. He had served as Interim Chancellor of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln since July 16, 2000.

A former dean of the University of Nebraska College of Law (1983-1998), Perlman has also served as interim senior vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNL (1995-96).

Perlman, a Nebraska native, was raised in York, Neb., and earned a bachelor of arts in history and a juris doctorate from the University of Nebraska. During his law school years, he was editor in chief of the Nebraska Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, a law honors society.

He joined the NU law faculty in 1967 after spending a year as a Bigelow Teaching Fellow at the University of Chicago Law School. He served on the Nebraska law faculty until 1974 when he joined the faculty at the University of Virginia Law School. He returned to Nebraska in 1983 when he accepted the deanship of the Nebraska Law College, a post he held until 1998 when he returned to the professoriate. He has also served as a visiting professor at Florida State University College of Law, the University of Puget Sound School of Law and the University of Iowa College of Law.

His area of legal expertise lies in torts and intellectual property. He is a member of the Nebraska State and American Bar Associations. He is a member of the Council of the American Law Institute. He is a commissioner of the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. He is co-author of 'Intellectual Property and Unfair Competition' (5th edition, 1998) and co-reporter for the 'Restatement of Unfair Competition' (1994). In February 2002, Perlman was named a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation. Fellow status denotes an individual who has demonstrated outstanding dedication to the welfare of his or her community and is committed to the highest principles of the legal profession. Only the top one-third of one percent of the legal profession is eligible for nomination as a Fellow.

At the University of Nebraska, he was chair of the search advisory committee for chancellor in 1991, chairs the Nebraska Bioethics Advisory Panel, and is a member of the Nebraska State Fair Board and the Bowl Championship Series Presidential Oversight Committee.

Perlman and his wife, Susan, an NU alumna, are the parents of two daughters. Anne, who earned degrees from UNL and the University of Nebraska Medical Center, practices medicine in Lincoln. Amie, who graduated from UNL in May 2002, attends law school at Nebraska. He and Susan enjoy the company of two grandchildren, Will and Ava.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO, J.D.

University of Nebraska Faculty Representative

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative to the NCAA and Big 12 Conference since May 15, 1997.

In January 2003, Potuto was appointed to hold one of the Big 12 Conference's three seats on the NCAA Division I Management Council, the chief administrative and legislative body of Division I. She is also in her seventh year as a member of the Division I Committee on Infractions (COI) and serves as the committee vice chair. Potuto also serves as a member of the executive committee of the Division IA Faculty Athletics Representatives and has been appointed by the NCAA president to serve on a committee to review NCAA rules governing enforcement and waiver processes. Among her Big 12 Conference committee responsibilities, Potuto served on the Big 12 Conference Commissioner Search Committee and on the conference strategic planning committee. She is the conference liaison to the Faculty Athletics Representatives Association (FARA), where she also served as the Division I representative on the executive committee. In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation.

Potuto is an expert on issues related to gender equity in collegiate sports and generally on the NCAA enforcement and infractions process. In Fall 2004 Potuto testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings. With regard to other current issues in sports, Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, and she also drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission.

At Nebraska, Potuto is an ex officio member of the academic senate's intercollegiate athletics committee and of the subcommittee to evaluate academic support services. She also was vice chairwoman of the rules governance committee of Nebraska's NCAA site certification committee. Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books and numerous articles.

Potuto teaches constitutional, procedural and criminal law as well as a course in sports law. She joined the Nebraska law faculty as an assistant professor in 1974 and was named to the Larson professorship in 1988. Potuto has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. While on sabbatical during the 1983-84 academic year, Potuto was an assistant prosecutor in the Essex County (Newark, N.J.) prosecutor's office. She also spent five summers working in the prosecutor's office in Morris County, N.J.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall in 1971. She received her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College in 1974. She is a member of the bar of the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

ONE GOAL - ONE TEAM - ONE CHAMPION

MELISSA ELMER

6-2 | Senior | Middle Blocker | Fort Wayne, Ind. (Northrop)

Two-time All-American Melissa Elmer returns to anchor the Huskers' middle blockers in 2005 • Is one of only seven returning AVCA first-team All-Americans this fall after leading the nation in blocking in 2004 (1.89 blocks/game) • Spent part of the summer training with the U.S. National Team, competing with the A-2 team at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland • Led the tournament in blocking, including seven kills on .467 hitting with five blocks in a loss to reigning Olympic gold medalist China • Enters her senior season ranked in NU's top 10 in both block assists (464, third) and total blocks (517, seventh) and could threaten the school career marks in both categories set by three-time All-American Amber Holmquist (1999-2002) • Has the natural ability to be a focal point in the Huskers' offense in 2005 • Is a returning captain who inspires her teammates with a tremendous work ethic.

"Melissa has gained a great deal of confidence from her experience with the USA program and the success she enjoyed at that level," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She got to see a lot of bigger, faster athletes and teams that play much faster than she's used to in college. That exposure will give her a good perspective on college volleyball and will make her a better player for us this season."

2004: Junior Season

Elmer lived up to her reputation as one of the nation's top middle blockers, earning first-team AVCA All-America honors in 2004 • Led the nation with 1.89 blocks per game, becoming only the second Husker to record 200 blocks in a season • Topped NU in hitting percentage (.345), a total that was fifth in the Big 12, while averaging 2.91 kills per game • Paced all league players in blocks per game in Big 12 matches (2.00) and was third in hitting percentage (.363) • Recorded double-figure block totals five times, including an 18-kill, 12-block effort at Oklahoma on Nov. 20, that clinched NU's outright Big 12 title • Had a season-best 12 blocks - the highest single-match total in the league in 2004 - in a sweep of Kansas on Nov. 12 when she also added nine kills on .500 hitting • Tallied 10 blocks on three other occasions, including the regional title game against USC on Dec. 11 • Was one of NU's top postseason performers, hitting .500 in each of the Huskers' first three NCAA contests, including a 13-kill effort on .500 hitting at No. 15 Louisville on Dec. 10 • Had 12 kills on .550

JENNIFER SALEAUMUA

5-11 | Senior | Outside Hitter/Libero | National City, Calif. (Bonita Vista)

2005: Outlook

One of three returning All-Americans, Jennifer Saleaumua (pronounced Sal-ee-ah-MOO-uh) could fill several roles for the Huskers this season • Has spent the first three seasons at outside hitter, but could also split time at libero, a position she has worked extensively at in the spring and with Team USA in the summer • Possesses excellent all-around skills and could play nearly any position on the floor • Already holds Nebraska's career record for digs with 1,132 digs and is 23 kills away from being only the second player in school history to record 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs • Named the Big 12's co-Defensive Player of the Year in 2004, as she averaged 3.74 digs and 3.09 kills per game • Holds two of the top four single-season dig totals in school history and is averaging 3.58 digs per game during her Husker career • Has 34 double-doubles in 96 career matches, including 10 last season • Is on track to become only the second player in school history to earn first-team all-conference honors for four straight years (Greichaly Cepero, 1999-2002) • Is an emotional leader who will be counted on to play an important leadership role this fall.

"I think Jennifer will be a multi-role player for us," Nebraska Head Coach John Cook said. She could be used as a hitter or at libero. That is how USA Volleyball used her over the summer and she responded well and was one of the better performing players.

"Jennifer has accomplished nearly everything in her career and has two things left to do, win a national championship and graduate," Cook said. "Those are two big goals for her, and she is willing to do whatever it takes to make it happen."

2004: Junior Season

Saleaumua's all-around abilities keyed the Huskers to a 30-2 record, a Big 12 title and an NCAA Regional finals appearance in 2004 • Named a second-team AVCA All-American after ranking second on the squad in both kills (3.09) and digs (3.74) • Honored as the Big 12's Co-Defensive Player of the Year after holding opponents to a national-best .103 hitting, including .092 hitting in league matches • Was a first-team All-Big 12 selection for the third straight season • Ranked eighth in the Big 12 in digs, helping Nebraska lead the league in that category • Totaled 10 double-doubles on the year, including two in the NCAA Tournament • Had 15 kills and 22 digs in the regional final loss to No. 8 USC on Dec. 11 • Led Nebraska's comeback at double figures 23 times in 32 matches, including a 15-match streak from Oct. 1 to Nov. 19 • Was at her best against top-25 teams, averaging 4.40 digs per game in 12 matches against ranked foes • Recorded a career-high 27 digs against Missouri on Oct. 15, the second-highest total in the Big 12 in 2003 • Paced NU in kills 12 times, including a career-best 19-kill effort at Kansas on .340 hitting • Hit a season-high .500 with 18 kills (18-1-34) in a nationally televised match against Northern Iowa, one of eight matches where she hit .400 or better.

2002: Freshman Season

Saleaumua quickly adapted to the college ranks, earning first-team All-Big 12 honors in her first season at Nebraska • Ranked among the team leaders in most categories, including first in service aces (30) and third in kills (2.89 digs per game) • Was 10th in the Big 12 with 3.02 digs per game in league matches, just under her season average of 3.05 digs per game • Totaled 10-or-more digs in 14 matches, including a season-high 20 against Santa Clara • Recorded at least 10 kills in 13 matches, highlighted by a stretch of four straight matches when she broke or tied her career high in kills • Hit .295 on the season while hitting .400 or better in 10 matches, including a 10-kill effort on 19 swings against Kansas State on Nov. 30 • Hit a season-high .562 against Pepperdine Sept. 6, producing 10 kills and erring just once on 16 attacks • Recorded six of her seven double-doubles in league matches, including a 13-kill, 14-dig effort at Texas on Nov. 9.

High School

Saleaumua enjoyed an impressive high school career at Bonita Vista High School for Coach Carolyn Taeatafa-Hudson • Named Volleyball Magazine's National High School Player of the Year in 2000 after guiding Bonita Vista to a 43-0 record, the 2000 CIF state championships and a No. 1 national ranking • Set a CIF record for single-match kills with 57 in the state championship match • Selected as the San Diego Union-Tribune Co-Female Athlete of the Year, the California Interscholastic Federation Player of the Year, the California Gatorade Player of the Year, the Paul Mitchell All-American Player of the Year and the Metro League MVP as a senior • Competed for the Coast Volleyball club, winning the USVBA silver medal in the 17-and-under division in 1999 and the bronze medal in the 17 open division the following year • Also played three seasons of basketball at Bonita Vista • Comes from impressive bloodlines, as her uncle is former Kansas City Chiefs defensive lineman Dan Saleaumua • Originally signed a letter-of-intent with Hawaii for the 2001 season, but never enrolled in school • Contacted the NU coaches during the fall of 2001 about the possibility of joining the Huskers and enrolled at Nebraska in January of 2002.

DANI BUSBOOM

5-11 | Junior | Setter | Cortland, Neb. (Adams Freeman)

2005: Outlook

Dani Busboom returns as Nebraska's starting setter after earning AVCA All-Midwest Region honors in 2004. Is an exceptional athlete who continues to grow into the position, as she has only set since her senior year of high school. Ranked third in the Big 12 with 13.10 assists per game - the highest average by a Husker in seven years. Helped NU rank in the top 20 nationally in both hitting percentage and kills per game in her first full year as a starter. Earns raves from the coaching staff for her competitiveness. Can adapt to running either the 5-1 or 6-2 offenses. Is a four-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and could contend for academic honors in 2005.

"Dani is one of the most athletic setters in the country, and her next step is to become a great setter," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has a bunch of great hitters around her, and we are looking for Dani to open up our offense a little bit and make us harder to defend. If she can consistently do that, it will raise the level of our entire team."

2004: Sophomore Season

Busboom took over the full-time starting position at setter, guiding an offense that ranked in the top 15 nationally in both hitting percentage (.281, 15th) and kills per game (17.20, 12th). Was an honorable-mention AVCA All-Midwest Region selection. Continued to excel in the classroom, earning first-team academic All-Big 12 honors and was a candidate for academic All-America laurels. Ranked third in the Big 12 with 13.10 assists per game, the highest average since All-American Fiona Nepo in 1998. Became only the fifth Husker setter in school history to average more than 13 assists per game. Totaled 50-or-more assists nine times, including a career-high 66 in a four-game win at No. 16 Kansas State on Oct. 13. Recorded 64 assists against both USC on Dec. 11 and at Notre Dame on Sept. 4. Was the only setter in the Big 12 to have 50-plus assist games in a three-game match (vs. Western Michigan on Sept. 6, vs. Missouri on Sept. 15 and vs. Kansas State on Nov. 6). Posted a team-best 15 double-doubles (assists-digs), including 10 in Big 12 play. Enjoyed one of her best performances in a sweep of Missouri on Sept. 15, which included four kills on .500 hitting, 50 assists and eight digs. Turned in a career night at Kansas State on Oct. 13 with 66 assists, NU's highest single-match total since the 2000 season, while helping NU hit .356 as a team. Was third on the team with 2.59 digs per game, matching her career high of 18 digs in the regional final against USC. Averaged 0.56 blocks per game, including a career-best five blocks against Maryland on Sept. 12 and Oklahoma on Oct. 9, and finished the year with 19 service aces.

2003: Freshman Season

Busboom played in every match as a freshman, splitting time with Michelle Lynch in the 6-2 offense. Averaged 5.98 assists per game, as her 700 assists were the second-highest total by a Husker freshman. Topped NU in assists in the Huskers' last five matches, while averaging 7.40 assists per game in three NCAA Tournament matches. Recorded a season-high 36 assists in a win over Baylor. Had four of her five double-doubles (assists-digs) in Nebraska's final five matches of the year. Finished third on the squad with 33 service aces, a total which was second on NU's all-time freshman chart. Had 31 aces through the first 21 matches, but a shoulder injury helped limit her to two aces in the Huskers' final 12 matches. Also averaged 1.84 digs per game, including a season-high 18 in the NCAA Regional against UCLA on Dec. 12.

High School

Busboom was a three-sport standout at Adams Freeman High School, starring in volleyball, basketball and track. Shared the Lincoln Journal Star Girls High School Athlete-of-the-Year Award with NU teammate Christina Houghtelling and was the only Omaha World-Herald First-Team All-Nebraska selection in both volleyball and basketball in 2002-03. Earned first-team Super State honors from the Lincoln Journal Star in each of her last three seasons. Committed to NU in 2001 following her junior season and moved from outside hitter to setter as a senior. Was a four-time all-state selection who led Adams Freeman to a 29-2 record and Class D-1 state tournament semifinals in 2002. Finished with 272 kills, 227 assists, 69 blocks and a state-record 104 aces as a senior. Also set state records for career service aces (388) and service aces in a single match (11). Excelled on the basketball court, where she was a four-time first-team all-state selection and a two-time Super State honoree. Averaged 18 points per game as a senior while leading 28-0 Freeman to its second straight Class D-1 state title. Had 27 points against Falls City Sacred Heart in the state title game, and finished her career with 1,712 points. Lettered three times in track and won the Class D 100-meter high hurdles at the 2003 Nebraska state track and field meet. Also carried a 3.98 grade-point average.

CHRISTINA HOUGHTELLING

One of the Huskers' most improved players over the last year, junior Christina Houghtelling will contend for All-Big 12 and All-America honors this season • Ranked fourth on the squad with 2.91 kills per game, more than doubled her freshman year averages in kills and digs • Can effectively play at either outside hitter or middle blocker • Proven herself as an excellent passer and has the athleticism to shut down opposing players • A late invitee to Team USA's training camp in May, impressing the coaches enough to earn a spot on the A-2 National team that competed at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland • Totaled eight points on six kills, one block and an ace against Germany in the consolation semifinals • Carries a 3.897 GPA in elementary education and will be a strong contender for academic All-America honors in 2005.

"Christina finally has a year where she was able to train in the spring and summer and is beginning to scratch the surface of how good she can be," Nebraska Head Coach John Cook said. "Her selection to play with Team USA in Switzerland opened her eyes, and she benefitted from the experience even more than Melissa (Elmer) and Jennifer (Saleaumua). She continues to get quicker and stronger and has a great understanding of what it takes to be an All-America-caliber player."

2004: Sophomore Season

Houghtelling enjoyed a breakthrough season, appearing in 30 of NU's 32 matches following knee surgery in the spring of 2004 • Averaged 2.90 kills and 2.34 digs per game while splitting duty with Dani Mancuso • Ranked seventh in the Big 12 with 0.34 service aces/game, matching her career high with four against No. 10 Texas on Nov. 24 • Had 10 or more kills 13 times, including a career-high 17 kills in a sweep of Missouri on Nov. 17 • Finished with a .739 hitting percentage (17-0-23), as her 17 kills were the single-highest match total without an error in school history • Enjoyed a seven-match stretch between Sept. 15 and Oct. 9, averaging 3.50 kills per game on .279 hitting • Tied or eclipsed her career high in kills four times in that stretch, including a 15-kill effort against Oklahoma on Oct. 9 • Had 13 kills on .500 hitting (13-2-22) in a sweep of No. 24 Kansas on Sept. 29 • Picked up her first double-double with 12 kills, 13 digs and three aces against Baylor on Oct. 6 • Played one of her best matches of the year against No. 10 Texas on Nov. 24 with 10 kills, seven digs and four aces in a sweep of the Longhorns • Provided an offensive spark during the NCAA Tournament, averaging 3.38 kills and 3.15 digs per game while posting three double-doubles • Had 15 kills, 11 digs and four blocks in NU's second round win over Wichita State on Dec. 3 • Totaled 24 kills and 24 digs in two regional matches, including a career-high 14 digs in the regional title match against USC on Dec. 11 • Earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors.

2003: Freshman Season

Houghtelling was enjoying a strong debut season before being sidelined for six weeks with a knee injury • Averaged 1.67 kills while hitting .257 in 16 matches

DANI MANCUSO

6-2 | Junior | Outside Hitter | Omaha, Neb. (Omaha Gross)

2005: Outlook

A part-time starter at outside hitter the past two seasons, Dani Mancuso (Man-CUE-so) is one of three returning outside hitters with starting experience • Split time with Christina Houghttelling on the left side in 2004, averaging 2.77 kills and 2.27 digs per game • Showed the all-around ability to take over a match, coming off the bench to lead the Huskers to road victories over nationally ranked Notre Dame (11 kills in the final two games) and Kansas State (a career-high 22 kills) • Brings energy, emotion and intense competitiveness every time she steps on the court • Trained at libero during the spring, recording a match-high 15 digs against Wichita State • Has shown the versatility to train at both outside hitter positions • Earned academic All-Big 12 honors in 2004 and will contend for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors this fall.

"Dani has shown over the last two years that she can play at an all-conference level," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has gotten stronger and has matured mentally, and we are looking for her to become a more consistent player for us. If she does that, she is going to have a chance for a lot of playing time this season."

2004: Sophomore Season

Mancuso saw extensive duty at outside hitter, splitting time with Christina Houghttelling • Averaged 2.77 kills and 2.27 digs per game in 24 matches • Was fifth on the team in kills despite making just nine starts • Shined coming off the bench to provide a change of pace • Led NU's comeback at No. 25 Notre Dame on Sept. 4 with 11 kills on .688 hitting (11-0-16) in the final two games to help the Huskers erase a 2-1 deficit • Recorded her only double-double of the year against Florida A&M, matching her career high with 16 kills and adding 11 digs • Starred as she single-handedly led the Huskers to a win at No. 16 Kansas State on Oct. 13, totaling a career-high 22 kills on .559 hitting along with two service aces and three blocks • Was one of only two Huskers to have 20 kills in a match in 2004 (also Sarah Pavan) • Had 10 kills in game four alone, leading NU back from a 19-13 deficit • Came off the bench for 12 kills and five digs in a win at Baylor on Oct. 23 • Returned to the starting lineup against Colorado on Oct. 29, drilling a match-high 18 kills on .424 hitting in a sweep of the Buffaloes • Turned in a solid effort in a start against Oklahoma on Nov. 20, setting a career high with five blocks, while also totaling 11 kills and nine digs against the Sooners • Played in three NCAA matches, including both matches in the regional.

2003: Freshman Season

Mancuso emerged as one of the Huskers' top performers during her freshman season • Played in 29 matches, averaging 2.01 kills and 1.72 digs per game • Recorded 10-or-more kills on six occasions, including a season-high 16 kills in a win at New Orleans on Sept. 5 • Totaled a season high 16 digs in a win at Colorado on Nov. 26 • Trained on both the left and right sides before breaking into the lineup for the last 12 matches on the left side • Provided a spark in the lineup, averaging 2.24 kills, 2.29 digs, 0.52 blocks and 0.40 service aces per game, as NU

SARAH PAVAN

One of three returning All-Americans, sophomore right side hitter Sarah Pavan is one of the nation's top collegiate players • Was the first freshman to earn AVCA All-America honors since 1999, pacing the Huskers with 4.54 kills per game • Recorded 10 or more kills in 26 of 32 matches, including seven 20-kill efforts • Closed the 2004 season with a career-high 35 kills in the regional final against USC, setting a Husker postseason record in the process • Holds two distinctions for the Husker program, as she is the tallest player in school history as well as the first Husker volleyball player from Canada • Pushes herself academically as well, carrying a 4.0 GPA in biochemistry and will contend for academic All-America honors this fall • Has the ability and dedication to become one of the best players in the program's history.

"Sarah had a great freshman year, but she is never satisfied with what she has done and that is what makes her such a special player," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "I think people will notice how much more physically stronger she has gotten over the summer."

"We know she is a great attacker, and where she can make the next step is when she can score points with her attack, her block and her serve," Cook said. "She has a chance to be one of the best in the country in scoring points in all three areas."

2004: Freshman Season

Pavan more than lived up to the expectations of being the nation's top recruit, turning in arguably the best freshman season in school history • Became the first freshman to earn first-team AVCA All-America honors since Logan Tom in 1999 • Named AVCA National Freshman of the Year, becoming the first player in school history to earn the prestigious honor • Set single-season freshman marks in kills (481) and kills per game (4.54), a total that led NU and ranked fourth in the Big 12 • Became only the second freshman in school history to lead NU in kills and kills per game (Eileen Shannon, 1989) • Topped the Huskers in kills 21 times, including seven matches of 20 or more kills, as her total tied the entire team totals from the 2001 to 2003 seasons • Played many of her best matches against NU's toughest opponents, as she averaged 5.08 kills per game on .316 hitting against ranked teams • Improved nearly all of her numbers in Big 12 play, as she ranked fourth in the league in kills (4.43/gm), fifth in blocks (1.38/gm) and seventh in hitting percentage (.339) in Big 12 matches • Put together a match for the ages against USC in the regional final, setting NU postseason record for kills (35) and attacks (90), as her 35 kills were the fifth-highest total in school history and the most by a Husker in the rally scoring era • Named the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week on Nov. 29 after averaging 7.00 points, 5.83 kills, 1.83 blocks and 1.17 digs per game while hitting .455 in wins over No. 11 Texas and No. 18 Texas A&M • Had 15 kills and nine blocks against the Longhorns, holding Big 12 Player of the Year Mira Topic to a season-low six kills and -.081 hitting • Selected for Big 12 Player-of-the-Week honors in September after totaling 39 kills in sweeps over No. 25 Colorado

TRACY STALLS

2005: Outlook

Often overlooked in Sarah Pavan's amazing freshman season was the outstanding year that middle blocker Tracy Stalls put together • Ranked 11th nationally in blocking with 1.65 blocks per game • Joins Melissa Elmer to form one of the most imposing middle blocking duos in college volleyball • Has a high volleyball IQ with the ability to make her teammates better • Has a wealth of experience, as she spent two years in the U.S. National Developmental Program and toured with the U.S. National Team • Missed most of the spring after off-season knee surgery in April • Will be limited early in fall camp, but should be ready to go for the opener.

"Tracy brings a level of experience for our team that you can't coach," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has great instincts and such experience that as soon as she gets healthy and is on the court, she raises the level of our team. The other thing we learned about Tracy last year is that she is the ultimate competitor. The bigger the match, the more she rises to the occasion."

2004: Freshman

Stalls provided an immediate impact for the Huskers, starting 30 matches at middle blocker • Set single-season freshman records for total blocks (160) and block assists (148) • Ranked third in the Big 12 and 11th nationally in blocks (1.65 per game) • Was also in the top 10 in the league in hitting percentage (.322, eighth) • Recorded five or more blocks 17 times • Tied a school postseason record with nine blocks in NU's win over Iona on Dec. 3 • Totaled nine blocks in victories over No. 9 Colorado State on Nov. 7 and No. 25 Kansas on Nov. 12 • Recorded seven or more kills 16 times, including six double-figure efforts • Enjoyed her best match of the year against Iowa State on Oct. 16, when she had a career-high 14 kills on .824 hitting - the fourth-highest total on school charts • Sparked NU's win at No. 16 Kansas State on Oct. 13 with 12 kills on .579 hitting and a team-high eight blocks • Posted her first career double-double at Baylor on Oct. 23 with 10 kills and a season-high 10 digs • Finished the year with 12 kills and seven blocks in the regional title game vs. No. 8 USC on Dec. 11 • Ranked third on the squad with 21 service aces, including three at Western Michigan on Sept. 6 and against Creighton on Oct. 10.

National Developmental Program

Stalls spent nearly two years in the USA Volleyball National Developmental Program after becoming the first participant in the program in May of 2002 • Traveled with the U.S. National Team for several

MEGHAN SMITH

6-1 | Sophomore | Middle Blocker | Sidney, Neb. (Sidney)

After a season of adjusting to college volleyball, sophomore middle blocker Meghan Smith will look to play an increased role in 2005 • Considered by the coaching staff as one of the most athletic middle blockers at NU in recent memory • Continued to make strides during her first season, appearing in eight matches behind All-American Melissa Elmer and U.S. National Team player Tracy Stalls • Saw extensive action at middle blocker during the spring, as Stalls missed time after knee surgery • Had five kills and four blocks in a sweep of Minnesota in her first spring action • Impressed the coaches with her work ethic and competitiveness • Will have an opportunity to push for playing time, as Stalls works her way back into the lineup.

"Meghan was our most improved player in the spring," NU Head Coach John Cook said. "She is the quickest and most explosive athlete in our program and broke several testing records in the spring. Now she has to use that to become a great volleyball player in our program. Two-a-days will be important for her as she shows her teammates that she is ready to contribute."

2004: Freshman Season

Smith saw limited duty backing up All-American Melissa Elmer and Tracy Stalls at the middle blocker position • Appeared in nine matches, including four in conference play, recording her only kill of the year in a win over Iowa State on Oct. 16 • Posted her first career block in the win over Iona in the first round of the NCAA Tournament on Dec. 3.

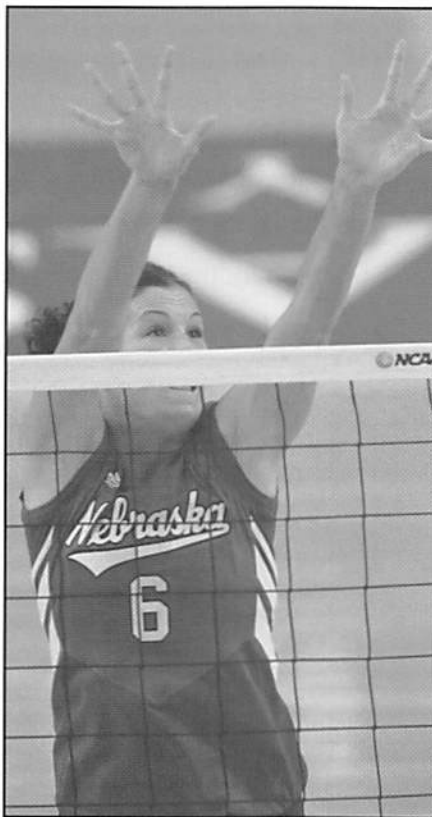

High School

Smith was a three-sport standout at Sidney High School, starring in volleyball, basketball and track • Was named the High School Athlete of the Year by the Scottsbluff Star Herald in 2004 for her exploits • Garnered two-time All-Nebraska honors from the Omaha World-Herald, including first-team accolades as a senior • Was a four-year starter for Coach Jack Thorpe and was named to Volleyball Magazine's Fab 50, recognizing the top high school players in the nation • Topped Class B in kills (6.15 per game), blocks (2.54 per game) and aces (0.80 per game), while ranking among the state leaders with a .445 hitting percentage as a senior • Led Sidney HS to a 21-11 record and a berth in the state tournament • Paced all high school players in the state in blocks as a junior (202) and senior (191), setting an all-class record with 604 career blocks • Played club volleyball with the Panhandle Volleyball Club before joining the

AMANDA GATES

6-2 | Freshman | Middle Blocker | Columbus, Neb. (Columbus)

2005: Outlook

One of two Fab 50 recruits in this fall's incoming class, middle blocker Amanda Gates will add to an already talented corps of middle blockers • Was a two-time all-state selection, earning first-team Super State honors in 2004 after leading Columbus High School to a Class A runner-up finish • Comes off a strong summer where she earned All-America honors at the 2005 Junior Olympics in Salt Lake City • Idolizes former NU All-American and Columbus, Neb., native Laura Pilakowski, who starred on the Huskers' 2000 national title team • Could be counted on early, as Tracy Stalls recovers from off-season knee surgery.

"Amanda has a tremendous opportunity to play as a freshman with Tracy coming back from surgery," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has a great attitude toward the game. Amanda loves the competition and has a lot of fun on the court, and it shows in the way she plays."

High School

Gates was a three-year letterwinner for Coach Betsy Rall at Columbus High School • Was a Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 selection and ranked No. 50 nationally on Prep Volleyball's Senior Aces list • Started each of her last three seasons, totaling 1,232 kills in her career

- Garnered first-team All-Nebraska and Super-State honors in 2004, leading Columbus HS to a 38-3 record and a runner-up state finish in Class A (largest class)
- Topped Class A in hitting percentage (.451) while drilling 476 kills and adding 97 blocks despite missing several matches with an ankle injury • Committed to NU during her junior season, a year where she was a first-team Class A selection and a second-team Super-State honoree • Topped the Discoverers with 433 kills on .316 hitting and 109 blocks • Played club volleyball for the Nebraska Juniors in 2005, earning All-America honors while helping the team to a third-place finish in the 18-Open Division at the Junior Olympics in Salt Lake City • Competed for the Challengers Volleyball Club, earning All-America club honors in both 2003 and 2004 while helping the club to a runner-up finish in the 17-and-under division of the 2004 USA Junior Olympics • Earned letters in basketball and track at Columbus High School, finishing her prep career with 11 varsity letters • Was heavily involved in campus activities, working as the sports editor of the student paper, participating in the dance club and serving as president of the National Honor Society • Earned academic all-state honors in all three sports, as she ranked 11th in her graduating class of 250.

MAGGIE GRIFFIN

2005: Outlook

A late addition to the Husker roster, sophomore Maggie Griffin transferred to Nebraska from Michigan State in July • Started for the Spartans as a freshman in 2004, ranking sixth in the Big Ten with 12.98 assists per game to earn Big Ten All-Freshman team honors • Was one of the country's top recruits in 2003 after leading Sports Performance Volleyball Club to a pair of Junior Olympic national titles • Could fill a variety of roles, especially if Nebraska switches to a 6-2 offense.

"Maggie is a very skilled setter who has tremendous instincts," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She knows how to take a team and win, and has won two Junior Olympic National titles. Maggie is not a typical newcomer, as she gained a lot of experience playing in the Big Ten last year, and she gives us a number of options to work with at the setter position."

2004: Freshman (at Michigan State)

Griffin served as the Spartans' starting setter in 2004, appearing in all 102 games, averaging 12.98 assists and 2.18 digs per game • Selected to the Big Ten All-Freshman Team, as she ranked sixth in the league in assists, a total which was eighth on MSU's single-season lists, and 10th in service aces • Totaled eight double-doubles and had 50-or-more assists 12 times in 26 matches • Selected to the Gamecock Invitational and Coca-Cola Classic All-Tournament teams • Recorded double-doubles in consecutive matches against Arkansas and Wichita

State, totaling 56 assists and 13 digs against WSU • Recorded a career-high 68 assists against Purdue • Totaled a season-high five blocks, along with 57 assists and five digs in a win over NCAA qualifier Michigan • Keyed an upset win over No. 21 Illinois with 61 assists.

High School

Griffin was a four-year letterwinner for Coach Lisa Kasper at Rosary (Ill.) High School • Was a Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 selection and ranked No. 12 on Prep Volleyball's Senior Aces list • Named all-state in 2003, and earned honorable mention all-state accolades in 2002 • Was a two-time all-area selection • Chosen the Kane County Player of the Year • Was named the Player of the Year by both the Arlington Heights Daily Herald and Aurora Beacon News in 2003 • Selected team captain as a senior and was a two-time all-area pick • also earned all-conference recognition all four years • Played nine years with Sports Performance Volleyball Club • Named an AAU All-American in 2001 and 2004, as well as the AAU MVP in 2002 • Helped lead her squad to back-to-back Junior Olympic Open Championships in 2003 and 2004 • Named Junior Olympic Most Valuable Player in 2003 and 2004 • Earned Junior Olympic All-America accolades in 2001 and 2002 • Comes from an athletic family, as her mother (Mary) played volleyball and basketball at Xavier.

RACHEL HOLLOWAY

5-10 | Freshman | Setter | Franklin, Tenn. (Smoky Hill (Colo.) HS)

2005: Outlook

Setter Rachel Holloway brings a wealth of international level experience into the Husker program • Captained the U.S. Youth National team the last two summers, leading Team USA to a fourth-place showing at the Under-18 World Championships in 2005 • Earned Colorado Gatorade Player-of-the-Year honors in 2004 • Possesses great leadership skills and is strong in all facets of the game • Joins a position that features two-year starter Dani Busboom and Michigan State transfer Maggie Griffin.

"We believe that Rachel is the top setter recruit in this class," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has great instincts, and was trained by her club coach, Jim Miret, to do a lot of things that you only see international setters do. She is a highly skilled all-around player, and has an opportunity to come in and play as a freshman."

I don't think it is a coincidence that she has been chosen as captain of the U.S. Youth National Team for the past two years, and that team has been one of the most successful in the national program."

High School

Holloway originally committed to Nebraska for the 2006 campaign, but graduated from high school in the spring of 2005 • Has been a standout performer in the USA Volleyball program, serving as the starting setter of the Youth National Team for the past two years •

JORDAN LARSON

6-2 | Freshman | Outside Hitter | Hooper, Neb. (Logan View)

One of the nation's top recruits, Jordan Larson arrives at Nebraska after one of the most decorated high school careers in state history • Was a three-time Super-State selection at Logan View High School, setting a state record with 561 career service aces, topping the mark of 388 set by Dani Busboom • Played with the U.S. Junior National Team for two years and was the MVP of the 2004 NORCECA Continental Junior Championships • Possesses amazing athletic ability and has the all-around game to be an impact player in the college ranks as a freshman • Became the earliest commitment in program history, announcing her intentions following her sophomore year.

"Jordan has proven with the Youth National Team and at the Junior Olympics that she is one of the elite players in her age group in the country," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "She has ability as an attacker to score points with her block and serve, but I think her best skills are her passing and ability to play defense. There are very few players in the country that have skills in those areas like Jordan has."

High School

Larson dominated the high school ranks during her four-year career at Logan View, earning first-team Super-State honors in each of her final three seasons • Was a Volleyball Magazine Fab 50 pick and was ranked the No. 2 player in the country by Prepvolleyball.com • Led Logan View to a 25-2 record and berth in the Class C-1 state semifinals in 2004 • Established a C-1 record with 501 kills, hitting .490 with 49 blocks as a senior • Set a state all-class record with 179 aces en route to Gatorade Player-of-the-Year honors • Paced LVHS to a 25-3 record and a state final appearance in 2003, totaling 357 kills on .424 hitting while serving 158 aces • Burst on the scene as a sophomore, setting a C-1 state record with 15.08 kills per game • Totaled 377 kills on .386 hitting and added 137 aces • Represented the United States on the Youth and Junior National Teams for two years • Led the U.S. Junior National Team to a gold medal at the 2004 NORCECA Continental Junior Championships, earning MVP, Best Receiver and All-Tournament honors • Named to the all-tournament team in the 2003 Under-18 World Championships while also being named the tournament's top server • Played club volleyball for the Nebraska Juniors, earning All-America honors at the USA Volleyball Junior Olympics from 2003 to 2005 • Also competed in basketball and track in high school • Earned second-team all-state honors in 2003-04, averaging 14.8 points, and nine rebounds, per game as Logan View finished 21-2 and reached the state tournament • Chosen as the Lincoln Journal Star's Female High School Athlete of the Year in 2003-04 • Was also a member of the honor roll at LVHS.

RACHEL SCHWARTZ

5-9 | Freshman | Libero | Lincoln, Neb. (East)

2005: Outlook

One of three in-state products in the Huskers' 2005 recruiting class, freshman Rachel Schwartz walked on to the Husker program • Was an all-state performer at outside hitter at Lincoln East, but will move to the libero position in the college ranks • Comes from a tradition-rich Lincoln East program that produced Jaime Krondak and Nikki Stricker (Best) among others • Is the only recruited libero in the Husker program • Will train primarily at the libero position, but could also be used as a serving and defensive specialist and could earn playing time early in her Husker career.

"Rachel is a great athlete and has proven that she can compete in different environments," Nebraska Coach John Cook said. "We are looking forward to having her at the libero position and think that she can be a great libero in our program."

High School

Schwartz was a three-year letterwinner for Coach Myron Oehlerking at Lincoln East High School • Finished her career as Lincoln East's all-time leader in kills, digs and hitting percentage • Earned Prepvolleyball.com All-America honors as a senior • Was a first-team Super State selection in 2004, leading the Spartans to a 29-10 record and the school's first state tournament appearance since 1997 • Ranked among the state leaders in both digs (444) and kills (444), establishing school marks in both categories • Served as captain of the all-city volleyball team as a junior and senior, while garnering all-city accolades in each of her final three years • Selected to the Heartland Athletic Conference team from 2002 to 2004 • Played club volleyball for Coach Gwen Egbert and the Nebraska Juniors, helping the team to a third-place finish at 2005 Junior Olympic National Championships • Earned All-America honors at the 2004 Junior Olympics, helping her squad to a runner-up finish • Was a four-year letterwinner in basketball, earning honorable-mention all-state accolades in her final three seasons • Helped Lincoln East to a Class A state title in 2004 and a runner-up finish in 2003 in basketball • Carried a 3.30 GPA and was also involved in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Campus Life.

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL CAMPS

Each summer, Nebraska conducts four different camps for young players ranging from the beginner to the high school level. Head Coach John Cook directs the campers, along with instruction from a staff of outstanding college and high school coaches from across the country and members of the Nebraska volleyball squad.

Team Camp

Team camp is a training and teaching camp for the athlete and coach. Each team should have a minimum of 10 players and may be accompanied by one coach with no charge. Each team will be provided with a camp staff coach or assistant, depending on your team's needs. Coaches, please contact the volleyball office to reserve a place for your team.

Individual Camps

The individual day camp is designed to teach players (eighth grade through graduated seniors) the fundamentals of power volleyball. The camp's goal is to meet the needs of each individual camper.

Setters Camp

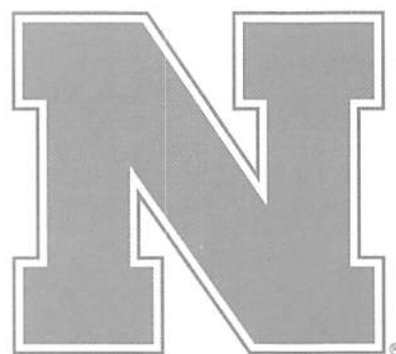

Setters camp is designed to teach players the fundamentals of setting and is recommended for grades 8-12. This one-day camp covers all aspects of setting and will provide campers with many drills and exercises that they can take home. The camp caters to both beginning setters and the most experienced setters at the high school level.

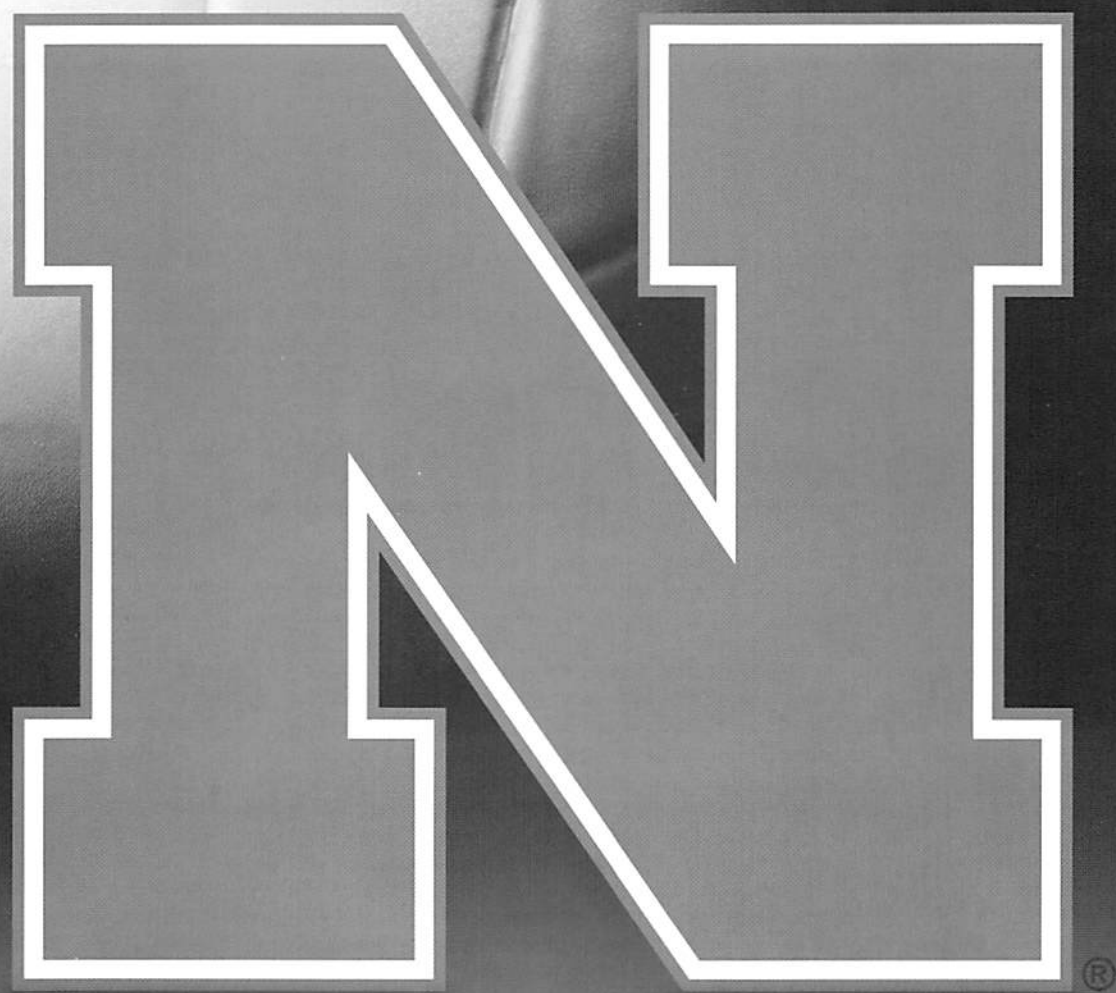

Setter Academy

This camp is designed to develop and train players for both the technical and mental aspects of the setter position. The camp is broken down into 10 sessions over four days.

Questions

Camp brochures will be available around Feb. 1, 2006. For a brochure, write to: Husker Volleyball Camp, PO Box 880146, 206 Coliseum, UNL, Lincoln, NE 68588-0146. Phone: (402) 472-2399. For more camp info and brochures, go to Huskers.com.

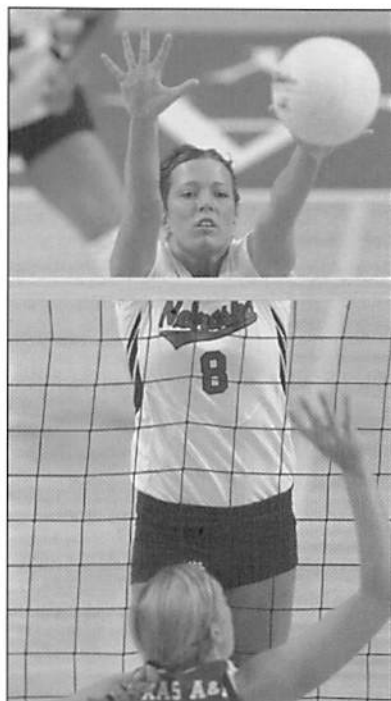

2004 REVIEW

ONE GOAT - ONE TEAM - ONE CHAMPION

N

2004 IN REVIEW

30-2 Overall | 20-0 Big 12 | NCAA Regional Finalist

All-American Melissa Elmer averaged a national-best 1.89 blocks per game in 2004.

While USC ended the Huskers' storybook season one win shy of a ninth NCAA semifinal appearance, the memories of the 2004 campaign won't be forgotten anytime soon.

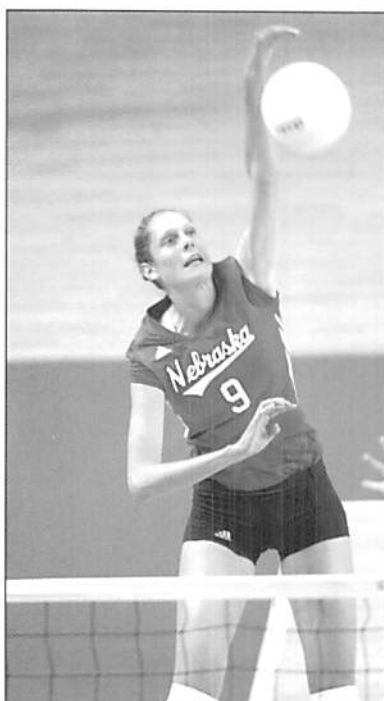

With a 30-2 record and a No. 5 national ranking, the Huskers put together a magical season, which included a perfect 20-0 mark in the Big 12 - a league that sent seven teams to the NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers continually frustrated opponents on the court, leading the nation in both blocks (4.02 blocks per game) and opposing defense (.103), setting a school record in that category while holding six opponents to negative hitting totals in a match. Melissa Elmer, a first-team All-American, led the nation in blocks (1.89 per game) while freshman Tracy Stalls ranked third in the conference and 11th nationally, averaging 1.65 digs per game.

Nebraska also led the Big 12 and set a single-season mark for digs per game (17.43). Amanda McCormick set school marks for total digs in a season (480) and digs per game (4.53), while Jennifer Saleaumua became NU's all-time leader in digs (1,132) and was named the Big 12's Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

While their forte was on defense, Nebraska also enjoyed one of the most prolific and balanced attacks in school history. NU set single-season marks for assists (15.62) and kills (17.20) per game, ranking among the national leaders in both categories, as it did with hitting percentage (.281).

Sarah Pavan led the potent attack, earning first-team All-America and AVCA National Sarah Pavan was named AVCA National Freshman of the Year.

Freshman-of-the-Year honors after leading the Huskers with 4.54 kills per game while hitting .322. Pavan had seven matches with at least 20 kills, including a Husker postseason record 35-kill effort against USC.

Saleaumua, a first-team All-Big 12 selection and second-team All-American, averaged 3.09 kills and 3.74 digs per game. Elmer, who averaged 2.91 kills per game on a team-high .345 hitting, was joined by sophomore outside hitters Christina Houghtelling and Dani Mancuso, who also both averaged more than 2.75 kills per contest. Sophomore Dani Busboom guided the prolific offensive attack by averaging 13.10 assists per game, the most by a Husker setter in six years.

The Huskers also relied on a deep bench that often came up big when called upon. From serving specialist Michelle Lynch, who ranked among the Big 12 leaders in service aces, to senior Ally Rebholz, who provided leadership and a spark off the bench, Nebraska found ways to win throughout the season against one of the most difficult schedules in the country. The Huskers went 13-1 against nationally ranked teams and played 21 matches against NCAA Tournament teams. NU won 19 of the first 20 matches, and fell three points shy of a ninth NCAA semifinal appearance in a dramatic five-game match against USC in Louisville.

It would only be appropriate that Louisville, the hometown of Muhammad Ali, would host a showdown between two of college volleyball's heavyweights.

The matchup had all of the ingredients of a prize fight with a berth to the NCAA semifinals on the line and weeks of hype preceded the contest between two storied programs.

The matchup featured a two-time national champion that boasted a trio of All-America caliber players in USC against an equally talented Nebraska squad which was looking to deliver the knockout punch to USC's attempt for a dynasty.

Through five grueling sets, neither team budged, as the match more than lived up to its championship billing.

Nebraska won the first game 35-33, only to see the Women of Troy take the next two games to take a 2-1 lead. Behind the play of freshman Sarah Pavan's career-high 35 kills, the Huskers fought off four match points in game four before evening the match with a 36-34 win. In the finale, USC raced out to a four-point lead, only to see the Huskers rebound, tying the match at 11 and forcing a USC timeout.

"I really thought at 11-11 we were going to win," John Cook said.

The Huskers then tied the match at 12-all on a block by Melissa Elmer, her 10th of the match and 200th of the year. The block would be the Huskers' final point of 2004, as USC would end the match and Nebraska's postseason run by scoring the final three points.

"I thought USC and Nebraska were two Final Four teams," Cook said. "What's disappointing is that we didn't take advantage of our opportunity at the end to win it and gave it to USC. They had a lot of experience over there and probably some of our inexperience showed up, but I thought our team competed really well and found ways to stay in there."

Despite the loss, the Huskers' journey through the 2004 season provided many memorable moments and continued NU's tradition of excellence on the volleyball court.

Early Season Bumps

With five returning starters from a team that went to the NCAA Regional semifinals in 2003 and the top-rated freshman class in the country, the Huskers opened the season ranked second nationally, but Coach Cook knew there would be bumps in the road.

The Huskers switched offensive systems prior to the season, going to a 5-1 offense with Busboom in her first full season of starting. In addition, the Huskers often showcased a lineup that had as many as five freshmen or sophomores on the court at one time.

After a 3-0 start that included a pair of wins over Notre Dame, the Huskers returned to the friendly confines of the NU Coliseum to host the First National Bank/Arby's Invitational.

While Florida A&M didn't carry a big-name reputation heading into the tournament, the Rattlers stunned a sellout crowd at the NU Coliseum with a four-set win over the Big Red, handing the Huskers their first home loss to an unranked team since 1986.

At the time, the setback dropped the Huskers from second to eighth in the national polls, but the loss served as an early season wake-up call.

"We challenged them to get better, and they've certainly shown they were one of the dominant teams in the country when they want to be," Cook said. "We got more dominant as the season went on."

The Huskers rebounded from the loss in impressive fashion, holding Ball State and Maryland to negative hitting numbers in sweeps to improve to 5-1 heading into the Big 12 opener with Missouri.

Starting Fast in Big 12 Play

With only two weeks from the start of the season to the start of conference play, the Huskers knew they would need to rely on their veterans early in conference play.

Facing a dangerous Missouri team, Saleaumua and Elmer had 13 kills each, combining for .438 hitting in a sweep of the Tigers. Four Huskers ended the night with at least 10 kills, while Busboom had 50 assists and 13 digs to help NU open the Big 12 on the right foot.

Following wins at Texas Tech and No. 25 Colorado, the Huskers faced a stern early season test against No. 11 Texas A&M. Playing in front of a national audience on College Sports Television, the Huskers passed the test with flying colors, posting a 30-20, 30-20, 30-27 win over the Aggies. The match also gave the nation the first glimpse of Pavan's immense skills, as she had a match-high 23 kills and hit .500 in the sweep. McCormick sparked the Huskers' defensive effort, recording 25 digs, the second-highest total ever by a Husker in a three-game match.

The Huskers then traveled to No. 25 Kansas for a matchup with the Jayhawks - NU's third straight match against a ranked opponent. The Huskers continued their dominance over the Jayhawks with a 30-13, 30-14, 30-24 sweep, as Houghtelling set career bests in kills (13) and hitting percentage (.500), while NU held the Jayhawks to -.046 hitting - the lowest by a Husker opponent since 2002.

Nebraska opened October with three straight wins, sweeping Oklahoma and Baylor at home before traveling to North Platte to take on Creighton. Playing in front of a sellout crowd of 2,400 at North Platte High School, the teams played a spirited three-game match won by the Huskers. The three wins gave NU a 13-1 mark entering a tough league stretch.

Huskers Face Midseason Tests

After being swept by Kansas State in 2003, the Huskers wanted to exact revenge in the first meeting of the year. The Wildcats took advantage of several errors to win the first game, but the Huskers roared back, to win the last three games to cap a 28-30, 30-21, 30-25, 30-23 victory. Mancuso came off the bench to spark the Huskers, drilling a career-high 22 kills on .559 hitting against KSU. The sophomore was one of many stars for the Big Red, as Stalls set career bests in kills (12) and blocks (eight) while hitting .579, and Busboom totaled a season-high 66 assists, helping NU hit .356 in the win.

Following a sweep of Iowa State at the Devaney Center, the Huskers, who climbed to No. 4 in the rankings, headed to No. 10 Texas looking to increase a slim one-match lead in the league standings. The Huskers not only were forced to battle a Texas team that was undefeated at home, but also the flu, as Pavan, McCormick and Michelle Lynch were less than 100 percent.

The Huskers dropped the first two games, but rallied back behind the performance of Saleaumua, who matched her career high with 19 kills on .450 hitting. The Huskers battled back to even the match before winning the decisive fifth game, 16-14. The win, the first by a Husker team when trailing 0-2 in seven years, put the Huskers in the driver's seat for the league crown and also showed the fighting spirit of the squad.

"Every team gets opportunities to prove it can be great," Cook said. "For our players, this shows that they've got big hearts and great character, and that this group can be special."

The Huskers closed October with four more wins to enter the homestretch of the year with a 19-1 record and a No. 3 national ranking. With five of the final eight matches at home, the Huskers were in a perfect position to gain momentum heading into the NCAA Tournament.

The Huskers opened November against Texas Tech in front of the 50th straight sellout at the NU Coliseum. The Red Raiders were no match for a fired-up Husker squad that dominated in a 30-10, 30-14, 30-22 rout. Elmer matched her season high with 13 kills, while the Huskers hit .324 and had 10 aces and limited Texas Tech to -.055 hitting. After Allie Rebholz salutes the crowd following Senior Night ceremonies at the NU Coliseum. The only senior on the 2004 roster, Rebholz played in 27 matches, averaging nearly a block per game.

Nebraska went 20-0 in the Big 12 to record its seventh Big 12 title in nine years.

sweeping Kansas State, the Huskers played host to No. 9 Colorado State in a crucial non-conference match. The Huskers started slowly in the nationally televised contest, and trailed 18-12 before Lynch came off the bench to deliver three aces in a 5-0 run to get NU back into the match. From that point on, the Huskers used exceptional defense to hold CSU to .087 hitting, more than .200 below its season average. NU recorded a 16-8 advantage in blocks, as Stalls had a season-high nine stuffs in helping NU record its 19th straight win.

Nebraska moved closer to clinching the Big 12 title with a sweep of Kansas and headed to No. 24 Missouri with a three-game lead in the Big 12 race with four matches remaining. Behind the play of Houghttelling and Lynch, the Huskers claimed a share of the Big 12 crown with a 30-26, 30-27, 30-19 win over the Tigers. Houghttelling came out blazing, recording kills on her first nine attempts and finished the contest with 17 kills and no errors on 23 swings, a total which ranked 12th on NU's all-time list. Michelle Lynch almost wrote her name in the Husker record book with six aces, one shy of NU's single-match mark. The win gave the Huskers their seventh Big 12 title in nine seasons and 26th conference crown in 29 years of competition. NU clinched the outright crown in its next match at Oklahoma, as Elmer had 18 kills and 12 blocks in a four-game win in Norman.

"It's a great championship to win," Cook said. "I think there are people who probably do take it for granted, but it's hard to win a Big 12 championship, I don't care what sport you're in."

With the conference title wrapped up, Nebraska looked to complete a perfect Big 12 season as they hosted No. 11 Texas and traveled to No. 18 Texas A&M. Against the Longhorns, the Huskers honored senior Ally Rebholz on Senior Night by donning red ribbons before turning in one of their most impressive performances of the year.

NU held Texas to .032 hitting, while shutting down All-American Mira Topic to a season-low six kills. Pavan did most of the damage, recording a season-high nine blocks and a match-high 15 kills in the sweep of the Longhorns.

Three nights later, Pavan continued her torrid play, delivering 20 kills in a three-game sweep in College Station, to earn Big 12 and AVCA National Player-of-the-Week honors. The win was the first by a Big 12 team in College Station in 2004, and also capped NU's fourth undefeated Big 12 season in five years.

NCAA Tournament

After ending the regular season with a 27-1 record, the Huskers ascended to No. 1 in the national poll and were awarded the top seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Huskers were selected as one of 16 first and second-round host sites and welcomed Iona, Wichita State and Nevada to Lincoln.

The middle blocking duo of Elmer and Stalls led NU to a sweep of Iona, who was making its first-ever NCAA appearance. Elmer had 12 kills on .550 hitting, while Stalls tied a school post-season mark with nine blocks. Wichita State would prove to be a much tougher test, but Pavan's 16 kills led another balanced attack in the sweep of the Shockers to send NU to its 11th straight Sweet 16 appearance and a trip to Louisville.

The host Cardinals would pose unique problems for the Huskers, as they were one of the few teams that had the size to match up with the Big Red. Despite being out-blocked for the second time all year, Nebraska used superior defense to silence a school-record crowd of 3,800 in a 30-22, 32-30, 30-19 win over Louisville. Houghttelling had 13 kills and 10 digs while Elmer had 12 kills to set up a long-awaited match-up with USC with a berth in the national semifinals on the line.

With six returning starters, including three All-Americans, Nebraska will look to use the lessons learned and make a return to the national semifinals in 2005.

Career Wrapup

Kelsey Fautsch was a two-year letterwinner for the Husker program, sharing a starting spot at outside hitter in 2003. She appeared in 47 matches at Nebraska, totaling 220 kills, 40 digs and 67 blocks. Fautsch, who redshirted in 2002, backed up AVCA National Freshman of the Year Sarah Pavan in 2004, appearing in 19 matches and averaging 0.64 kills per game. Fautsch's best match of the 2004 season came against NCAA qualifier Maryland, when she totaled a season-high six kills on 13 swings. Fautsch saw her most extensive action in 2003, averaging 2.17 kills per game and ranking sixth on the team in blocks (54). She had 10-or-more kills in six matches, including a career-high 13 at Missouri. Fautsch was an outstanding student, earning first-team academic All-Big 12 honors in 2003 and 2004, and was a nominee for CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in her last year at Nebraska.

Career Wrapup

Amanda McCormick wrapped up her Husker career following the 2004 season. A two-year starter at libero, she finished with 718 digs while appearing in 54 matches at NU. McCormick set a single-season school record with 480 digs, shattering the previous mark of 441 set by All-American Jennifer Saleaumua in 2003. McCormick appeared in all 106 of NU's games, ranking second in the Big 12 with 4.53 digs per game. She had 20 or more digs in four matches, including a school postseason record of 30 in the regional title match against USC. McCormick served as team co-captain in her final season at Nebraska and was named the outstanding libero at the First National Bank/Arby's Classic. In her first season as a Husker, she averaged 3.74 digs per game, a total that is third on NU's single-season lists. McCormick recorded a career-high 31 assists in a match against Missouri, the third-highest single-match total in school history. A first-team academic All-Big 12 selection, she was a two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

- 2004 CoSIDA Academic All-America Nominee
- Eight-Time Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll

Career Wrapup

Michelle Lynch was a three-year letterwinner who was sidelined by a back injury in May of 2005. Lynch played 84 matches during her three-year Husker career, totaling 973 assists, 119 digs and 93 services aces, while helping NU to three Big 12 titles in her four years on campus. In 2004, she was the Huskers' reserve setter and serving specialist, helping the Huskers to a 30-2 record, a Big 12 title and an appearance in the NCAA Regional Finals. She ranked seventh in the Big 12 in aces per game (0.34 SA/gm), including a career-high six aces in NU's Big 12-clinching win at Missouri. She saw her most extensive time in 2003, splitting the starting role with Dani Busboom in the Huskers' 6-2 offense. Lynch led NU with 843 assists (7.21 per game) as she started all 33 matches in helping NU to the regional semifinals. She had at least 30 assists on eight occasions, including a career-high 40 in a match against Georgia Tech. Lynch, who is scheduled to graduate in May of 2006, also excelled in the classroom, where she was a two-time academic All-Big 12 performer and eight-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll.

Ally Rebholz helped Nebraska to three Big 12 titles in four seasons.

HISTORY

ONE GOAL - ONE TEAM - ONE CHAMPION

HISTORY OF SUCCESS

Two NCAA Titles | Eight NCAA Semifinal Appearances | 25 AVCA All-Americans

by Mike Babcock

A bulletin advertising an opening for the head volleyball coach's job at Nebraska had been discarded in a wastebasket in the coaches' office at Louisburg College. Paul Sanderford, the first-year head coach of the women's basketball team at the North Carolina junior college, retrieved the bulletin from the wastebasket and handed it to Terry Pettit, the school's head volleyball coach.

Without that assist from Sanderford, Pettit, an aspiring English teacher with a background in creative writing and poetry as well as coaching, would not have known about the opening. If he had not known about the opening, he would not have applied. And if he had not applied and been hired, the history of Husker volleyball would have been altered dramatically, because he and Husker volleyball became one and the same.

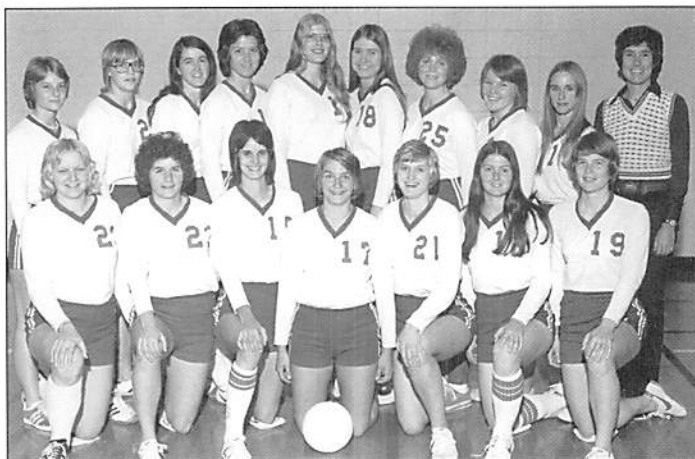

Pettit was the Nebraska volleyball coach from 1977 to 1999 — all but two years of the program's first 25 years of existence. Pat Sullivan, the Huskers' first volleyball coach, compiled an 83-21 record in two seasons of competition sanctioned by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

Before 1975, Nebraska didn't sponsor women's athletic teams. If women wanted to compete, they did so on loosely organized and unfunded club teams. It had been that way since the early 1900s, when a women's basketball team occasionally competed against teams from outside the University.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896, and as was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other.

Nebraska's first All-University women's team was organized in 1896 and included the best players regardless of class, according to the Nebraska State Journal. The team never lost, which should not be surprising, given how it was chosen and the quality of its intramural competition.

The first women's basketball game played before an audience was part of the University's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923," published in Nebraska History in the spring of 1975.

The first Husker volleyball team, coached by Pat Sullivan (far right, second row), set the tone for future teams, compiling a 34-8 record and advancing to the AIAW regional finals in 1975.

The 2000 Nebraska volleyball team (34-0) is the only team in school history, and just the second in NCAA history, to finish an undefeated season with a national title.

Louise Pound seems to have been the driving force in women's basketball at Nebraska, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was captain of the first team to play against an opponent from outside the University in March of 1898. Pound, who also was the first All-University tennis champion, scored 11 points in a 15-7 victory against a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Memorial Hall. Nebraska was represented by an A team and a B team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High School and Wahoo High School. Nebraska's A team won the two-day competition and a month later won a rematch with the Omaha YWCA in Omaha.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west," according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its more experienced — and to that point undefeated — opponent, losing 31-4.

The Nebraska women did not suffer their first defeat until 1904, when they lost to a team from the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out a team from the Lincoln YWCA. The Nebraska women avenged the Minnesota loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

The Nebraska women played games against the University of Minnesota, home-and-home two weeks apart, again in March of 1908, losing both, the second after a five-minute overtime.

Before the Minnesota games, Nebraska had defeated Nebraska Wesleyan to finish what was to be its final season with a 1-2 record against outside competition. University women were allowed to compete in basketball, as well as other sports, only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908.

In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the University board of regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. If not for the passing of Title IX by Congress in 1972, there probably would not be women's intercollegiate athletics now.

Initially, "there wasn't an embracing of women's athletics," Pettit said. "It's like any civil rights movement almost. It's tolerated, and you have to educate the public as to what it means. Today if you asked on a ballot if women should have the opportunity to compete in sports, there would be an overwhelming majority of people who would support it. But that wasn't the case in the 1970s.

"One of the things that allowed Nebraska to be successful was that we jumped in with both feet," Pettit said. "Nebraska decided: 'Well, if we're going to do this, let's do it well.' Whereas some schools were hesitant to get going, Nebraska was one of the first to offer scholarships. In any endeavor, if you're among the first, that gives you a tremendous advantage, and you continue to reap the benefits years later."

Under Pettit's direction, volleyball became to Husker women's athletics what football is to the Nebraska men's program. Pettit's teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament semifinals six times, and his 1995 team won the national championship, defeating Texas in the finals at Amherst, Mass.

The 1995 Huskers finished 32-1, with their only loss coming against Stanford in the second match of the season. Senior Allison Weston was the AVCA Co-Player of the Year and among three first-team All-Americans from Nebraska. The others were Christy Johnson and Lisa Reitsma.

Weston, a middle blocker, earned first-team All-America honors three times, the first Husker to do so. But Nebraska consistently has been represented on All-America teams since 1980, when Terri Kanouse became the Huskers' first volleyball All-American, as selected by the AIAW.

Three Huskers have earned first- or second-team All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association in the same season 11 times since 1984 — most recently in 2004, when Melissa Elmer and Sarah Pavan earned first-team honors and Jennifer Saleaumua was named to the second team.

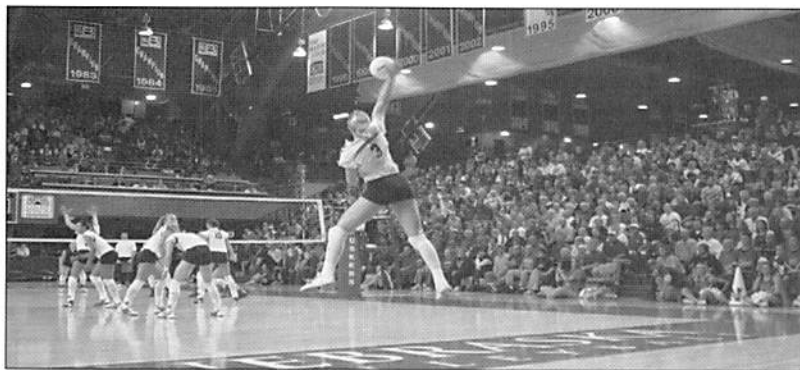

After the 1999 season, Pettit turned the program over to his long-time friend and former NU assistant coach, John Cook.

Cook arrived at Nebraska with impressive credentials after building the Wisconsin volleyball program into a national power, and he wasted no time making his mark at NU. In what was supposed to be a transition year, Cook led the Huskers to a perfect 34-0 record and the 2000 NCAA title.

The following season, Cook again guided the Huskers to the NCAA semifinals, where they lost to eventual national champion Stanford. And in each of the last three seasons, Cook has taken the Huskers to two regional finals and a semifinal. In five years, Cook has guided Nebraska to a 154-11 record, a national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and four Big 12 championships, including a perfect 20-0 mark in league play in 2004.

The tradition that Cook continues to build began in 1978, when Kanouse and Shandi Pettine were the first Nebraska volleyball players to be recruited with full scholarships. By 1981, Pettit could award 12 scholarships.

"We had a full complement," he said. "And that put us ahead of some schools."

Those first Nebraska teams included primarily in-state athletes. But Kanouse was from Indiana and Pettine was from Colorado, evidence not only of Pettit's interest in expanding the Huskers' recruiting base, but also of the respect his program was earning beyond the state's borders.

Fiona Nepo, one of only eight setters in NCAA history to earn All-America certificates three times came from Honolulu, Hawaii.

Karen Dahlgren, an All-American in 1985 and 1986, and Lynae Loseke, whose career was cut short by a knee injury, walked on, another element of the volleyball program's consistent success shared by the football program.

"We don't have 50 walk-ons, but if we can get one good one a year, it pays off," Pettit said.

The 1981 and 1982 recruits, which included Cathy Noth (from Iowa) and Mary Buysse (from Minnesota), gave the Huskers "two really good classes in a row," Pettit said. And, except for Dahlgren, who redshirted, they helped get Nebraska into the NCAA Tournament for the first time.

The Huskers had qualified for the AIAW National Tournament in 1978 at Tuscaloosa, Ala., but "there was no excitement because nobody here got to see the matches," Pettit said.

That changed in 1982, when Nebraska defeated a Penn State team coached by Russ Rose (Pettit's assistant in 1977) in the NCAA Tournament's first round before a large and enthusiastic crowd at the NU Coliseum.

"That was a dramatic step for the program," Pettit said. "It was the first time we really had an opportunity to market something. I don't think anything changes the perception of an athletic program like hosting an NCAA event. From then on, we were always playing, always hosting."

The Huskers have qualified for 23 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, which "may be our biggest achievement is the consistency. We're always very competitive," Pettit said.

Nebraska reached the NCAA finals for the first time in 1986, Dahlgren's senior season, defeating Stanford in the semifinals but losing to Pacific on its home court in Stockton, Calif.

Three seasons later, the persistent Huskers were back in the NCAA title match, losing to Long Beach State (after defeating UCLA) at Honolulu, Hawaii. Pettit realized then that his program had progressed to a point where winning the national championship was a realistic goal.

Several other factors contributed to the success of the Nebraska volleyball program, including the Coliseum, which was refurbished and reconfigured specifically as a volleyball facility in 1993.

The intimacy of the Coliseum is a significant factor in fan support, which has kept Nebraska among the nation's leaders in attendance, annually ranking in the top-three nationally, including second in 2004. Nebraska has sold out its last 56 straight matches at the 4,020-seat Coliseum, dating back to 2001.

In addition, the Huskers annually play a match at the Bob Devaney Sports Center. Nebraska set a then-NCAA regular-season attendance record in 2000, when 12,504 fans attended the Huskers' match against Colorado at the Devaney Center.

The Coliseum, however, is Nebraska's home.

"I believe it is a major reason for interest," Pettit said. "People like the building. They like watching events here," Pettit said. "It's an intimate facility. It's a collegiate facility. You walk into the big fieldhouses, and you could be anywhere in the country."

Fans also know what to expect from the Husker teams that play there.

"They know what type of effort they're going to see," Pettit said. "The fans are only 10 or 15 feet removed from the playing court, so they can tell whether or not there's enthusiasm, whether or not people (the athletes) are communicating. That's what they really come to see. It certainly helps that Nebraska wins. The winning gets you there the first time. But you can't have a great enterprise, whether it be a business or an athletic team, unless you have an identity."

"People have that feeling about Nebraska volleyball. They know exactly what it is. They know what type of athlete is on the court. They know the style of play. They know the effort. They know the consistency. They know that she's a good student. And they know that she's a solid citizen when she goes on to her career after volleyball."

The attraction wasn't immediate. Though the program has been successful from the beginning, it experienced some lean times as far as interest and support.

"It's been a slow, consistent growth," Pettit said. "I think that fits Nebraskans. They aren't real impressed with flash or something that just happens in the short term. What they want to see is progress over the long run. 'Show me that you'll continue to get the job done.' If you do that, then they'll ride with you even when things aren't so good."

Terry Pettit, pictured with former NU assistant coach Cathy Noth, led NU to six NCAA semifinals and the 1995 national title.

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the 2000 season with a No. 11 preseason ranking and an eagerness to prove the pollsters wrong. Competing with a new coach, a new setter and without two-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) didn't scare the Huskers. A trio of sophomore All-Americans, including AVCA Player-of-the-Year Greichaly Cepero, emerged to lead NU to a 34-0 record and the program's second national title. With a 3-2 win over Wisconsin Dec. 15 in the championship final, the Huskers became just the second team in NCAA history to finish a season undefeated. First-year Head Coach John Cook earned AVCA Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska relied on its greatest strength - its block - to stifle Hawaii at the net in a 3-1 victory. The Huskers out-blocked the Rainbow Wahine 23-7.5, as Jenny Kropp and Amber Holmquist each tallied 10 block assists. With the win, the Huskers broke the school record for consecutive victories in the modern era of five-game matches. NU produced 36 victories in 1976 when all matches were played as two-out-of-three contests.

Final

After falling behind 2-1, Nebraska breezed to a 15-2 win in the fourth game to force a rally-scoring fifth game for the national title. With senior Kim Behrends at the service line, Laura Pilakowski slammed her 23rd kill of the match to secure the championship. Pilakowski was joined on the NCAA All-Tournament team by classmates Greichaly Cepero and Amber Holmquist. Cepero added 52 assists, eight digs, eight kills and seven blocks, while Holmquist added 16 kills on a .387 hitting efficiency with five blocks.

Highlighting the 2000 Season

- Nebraska claimed its 23rd Big Eight/Big 12 championship in 25 seasons. With a 20-0 run through the league, the Huskers improved their all-time mark against Big 12 schools to 375-32-1, an amazing .920 winning percentage.
- Nebraska, ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Coaches poll for 14 straight weeks, swept 26 of its 34 opponents and 17 of its 20 conference opponents, losing just five games in Big 12 play. Only three teams took NU to five games.
- Amber Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. Holmquist also broke the Big 12 record for total blocks in a single game with 16 at Texas on Oct. 22.
- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 12,504 fans cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Nov. 4, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"If there are 10 teams better than us, I think it's going to be a heck of a year in college volleyball, because believe me, we're going to be pretty good."

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the season with one goal in mind, win the national championship. Led by a talented trio of seniors, the Huskers capped their championship run by hammering Texas 3-1 in the title match. After three previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Huskers' incredible drive and focus fueled them to their first national title.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska countered a 10-15 loss in game one, by winning the second and third games, 15-8. Michigan State responded to NU's challenge, winning the fourth game, 15-9. In the fifth and decisive game, with the score deadlocked at 7-7, NU scored four consecutive points, forging to an 11-7 lead. The Spartans added one more point, but the Huskers prevailed, 15-8. Allison Weston led the Husker charge, recording a team-high 30 kills.

Final

In the finals, Texas jumped to an early 12-4 lead in game one, but the Huskers rallied to make it close, losing 10-15. Although they lost the first game, the Huskers gained momentum, playing solidly at the end of the game. NU cruised to wins in games two and three, thumping the Longhorns, 15-2 and 15-7. Game four swayed back and forth, but the Huskers persevered, sealing NU's first national title with a 16-14 victory. Billie Winsett and Kate Crnich led the way, posting 25 kills each. Crnich's 25 kills were a career high, hitting .500 for the match.

Highlighting the 1995 Season

- After losing its second match of the season to then-No. 1 Stanford, NU reeled off 31 consecutive matches to claim the NCAA title.

An amazing 28 of Nebraska's 32 victories were 3-0 wins.

- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever national championship, the Huskers posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Nebraska finished with a 32-1 (.970) record, bettering the .969 percentage it posted in 1994 (31-1). NU also matched the then-school record for wins, equalling the 1990 squad's record total of 32.

- Allison Weston shattered Eileen Shannon's Husker school record for career kills (1,521), finishing her career with 1,778.

- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 11,529 cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Oct. 21, at the Devaney Center. NU set the previous record of 11,032, Sept. 14, 1991, also at the Devaney Center. The mark would stand until the 2000 season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We certainly should be strong. We have great senior leadership in Allison Weston, Billie Winsett and Christy Johnson. We were 31-1 last season (1994), and I think we're going to be better this year."

NCAA TOURNAMENT

A Second Time

After a two-year hiatus, Nebraska, led by seniors Virginia Stahr and Carla Baker, made its second appearance at the NCAA Championships. In 1986, the Huskers had advanced to the championship match before losing to Pacific. In 1989, NU was hoping for better luck in Honolulu, Hawaii. But fate was not on Nebraska's side. The Husker hitters made quick work of UCLA, before losing, 3-0, to Long Beach State.

Semifinals

A balanced Husker attack and solid defensive play propelled Nebraska past a UCLA team that had lost just two matches all season. Cris Hall led NU with 19 kills, while Janet Kruse had 12, Eileen Shannon had 11 and Virginia Stahr added 10. NU out-hit UCLA .265 to .160.

Final

Unfortunately, Nebraska's second championship match was much like its first in 1986. Nebraska battled hard in the first game, only to lose 15-12. From that point on, the Huskers could not regain their winning ways, as Long Beach State cruised, 15-0, 15-6 to win the match. The Huskers were runners up for the second time, while the 49ers won their first NCAA title. Shannon led Nebraska with 11 kills, and Hall added 10.

Highlighting the 1989 Season

- Nebraska lost just four matches on the year, its lowest total since the 1985 (28-3) season.

- Virginia Stahr captured several awards in 1989 including Delta Scholar Athlete of the Year, Woody Hayes Female Athlete of the Year, Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Today's Top Six Award.

- Nebraska won its 14th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record. NU won the tournament crown with a 3-0 win over Oklahoma.

- The Huskers started the year with a season-high 14-match winning streak.

- Nebraska set team records in 1989 with 2,031 kills, 1,803 assists and a 17.07 kill average.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"I believe we will have one of the deeper teams we've ever had. As to whether or not we are in a position to challenge for the national championship will depend on if we stay healthy."

1986 NCAA Finalist | 29-6 (10-0 Big Eight) | Stockton, Calif.

Breakthrough Season

After losing in the Midwest Regional final the previous two seasons, Nebraska broke through the field in 1986 and made its first-ever trip to the NCAA championship. Led by senior All-Americans Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise, the Big Eight champion Huskers traveled to Stockton, Calif., with an impressive 28-5 record. The Huskers defeated Stanford, 3-1, before falling to Pacific, 3-0.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska bounced back from a 15-7 loss in game one. Schonewise led the Husker attack with 15 kills, while Angie Millikin had 11 kills and a match-high 18 digs. Nebraska hit .258 (66-25-159) for the match and held the Cardinal to just .089 (54-38-180).

Finals

In the championship match, Nebraska met a Pacific team that had lost just one game during the entire NCAA Tournament. The Huskers hung tough in game one, coming back from a 14-9 deficit to cut the margin to two at 14-12. But the Tigers were too much, as they converted their third game point for the 15-12 win. The first game took too much out of the Huskers, as they fell in games two and three by scores of 15-4, 15-4.

Highlighting the 1986 Season

- Nebraska set four single-season team records, including most kills, attacks, hitting percentage and digs. Schonewise set individual season records for kills, kills per game and attacks.

- The Huskers set an NCAA record with a .331 hitting percentage, a mark that still ranks fifth all time.

- Nebraska won its 11th straight Big Eight championship in 1986 with a 10-0 record and defeated Oklahoma, 3-0, for the tournament trophy in Salina, Kan.

- Nebraska won a season-high nine matches in a row from Sept. 27 to Oct. 25. The Huskers never lost two matches in a row all season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We have never graduated three people that were as exceptional players at their positions as Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise. They were among the top two or three players at their positions in the country."

NCAA TOURNAMENT

Huskers Make Eighth NCAA Semifinal Appearance

Nebraska fell two wins shy in its bid to repeat as national champions, as U.S. National Team member Logan Tom pounded 22 kills to lead Stanford to a 3-0 win over NU in the NCAA semifinals. The loss capped an otherwise successful season for the Huskers, who were 31-2 overall and 20-0 in the Big 12 Conference, dropping just three games in conference play. NU Coach John Cook was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the Big 12 Player of the Year.

Return to the Championships

The Huskers' eighth semifinal bid did not come easily. After breezing to wins in games one and two, Nebraska lost the competitive third game and then dropped game four to Florida. NU, which had not played a five-game match all year, trailed 12-10 when Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) responded with back-to-back kills to even the score. After a Florida service error, Metcalf (Meendering) pounded another kill to bring Nebraska within a point of the win. AVCA All-American Aury Cruz held NU off with a kill, but Metcalf (Meendering) answered on the next rally with her 25th kill of the match for the 15-13 NU victory.

Regional Semifinals

Sophomore outside hitter Anna Schrad produced a career-best 17 kills and a team-high 13 digs to lead the second-seeded Nebraska volleyball team to a 29-31, 30-21, 30-26, 36-34, victory over No. 15 seed Colorado State in the NCAA Tournament regional semifinal match at the NU Coliseum. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Laura Pilakowski each added 13 kills for the Huskers, and Jenny Kropp tallied a match-high 10 blocks, as the Huskers out-blocked CSU

18-11 while holding the Rams to a .168 hitting percentage in the nailbiter.

Highlighting the 2001 Season

- The Huskers earned their eighth NCAA semifinal bid – including their fourth in the past six years – and made their 20th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

- NU played host to an NCAA regional for the 12th time in school history.

- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 12th time in program history and the second straight season, posting an amazing 65-2 mark during the 2000-01 seasons.

- Nebraska broke the school record for opponent attack percentage, holding teams to a .106 combined mark. The previous record of .109 was set by the 1995 national championship team.

- NU set a school record with four All-Americans in the same season, including first-team selections Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Amber Holmquist and second-team honorees Jenny Kropp and Greichaly Cepero.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"I envision it all the time. It's where I was born, where I started coaching, where I went to school for graduate and undergraduate degrees. It's kind of a dream to go back where I started coaching. It should be really neat."

NU Makes Third NCAA Semifinals Appearance in Four Years

Nebraska's senior-laden team of Fiona Nepo, Megan Korver and Jaime Krondak guided the Huskers to one of the best seasons in NU history. While Nepo and Krondak couldn't grab the second national championship of their careers, the Big 12 champions made their third trip to the NCAA semifinals. Nebraska finished the season with a perfect 18-0 record at home to extend its Coliseum win streak to 65 matches.

Return to the Championships

Nebraska's victory over Wisconsin in the regional championship in Lincoln was a memorable one, as the longest match in school history spanned nearly three hours. Nebraska avoided a two-game deficit by withstanding 14 game points to win game two, 18-16. Wisconsin won game three, 15-9, but Nebraska came right back to claim game four, 15-10. In the rally-scoring fifth game, NU recovered from a 9-7 hole to blitz to a 15-10 win. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the tournament MVP after posting 27 kills and breaking a 12-year Coliseum record for attacks with 78.

NCAA Semifinals

The match between the Huskers (32-1) and the Penn State Nittany Lions (34-0) featured three AVCA All-Americans on each side of the net and the top offense (PSU) and top blocking attack (NU) in the country. The third-ranked Huskers rallied from a two-game deficit by winning game three and led midway through game four, 6-2. But Lauren Cacciamani recorded seven kills in nine swings to lead Penn State to the victory. NU finished with 20 blocks.

Highlighting the 1998 Season

- Nebraska opened the season with a perfect 25-0 record to extend its regular-season streak to 35 straight wins.

- Nebraska claimed its second Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league record and advanced to the NCAA semifinals for the third time in four seasons. Nebraska also led the nation with 3.93 blocks per game.

- Fiona Nepo shattered Nikki Stricker's career assist record by becoming Nebraska's all-time assist leader. Nepo finished her career as one of only six setters in NCAA history to earn three AVCA All-America certificates.

- Fiona Nepo, Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Megan Korver were named AVCA All-Americans, marking the seventh time NU had three AVCA All-Americans in one season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"I don't know that I've ever had this strong of conflicted feelings. I was happy as I could be and as sad as I could be for Wisconsin. Certainly you can celebrate, but I'm just more in awe of the match, more than I am wanting to celebrate."

— Terry Pettit after Nebraska's 3-2, come-from-behind victory over Wisconsin in the NCAA Pacific Regional

Near Repeat

Despite the loss of three standout seniors who guided Nebraska to its first national title in 1995, and injuries to three key players, the Huskers nearly became the first team to repeat as NCAA champions since UCLA turned the trick in 1990 and 1991. NU fell only two matches shy of back-to-back national championships, dropping a hard-fought decision to eventual champion Stanford in the semifinals.

Fifth NCAA Semifinal Berth

Nebraska's thrilling come-from-behind victory over Penn State in the East Regional final propelled the Huskers to their second consecutive NCAA semifinal berth and fifth in program history. In the East Regional final, the Huskers claimed the first and third games, while the Nittany Lions won the second and fourth games. In the fifth game, PSU quickly forged ahead, moving to an 11-5 advantage, before a furious Husker rally. Each team fought off four match points before the Huskers prevailed 20-18, as Megan Korver slammed three straight kills to secure the win.

NCAA Semifinal

The 30-3 Huskers faced top-seeded Stanford (29-2), which featured four AVCA All-Americans. Nebraska won the first game, 15-9, but the Cardinal amassed large leads in each of the next three games, securing a 3-1 win. Two days later, the Cardinal swept Hawaii for the national title. Lisa Reitsma led the Huskers, as she had all season, with a match-high 22 kills. Kate Crnich smacked 16 kills and added a match-high 15 digs.

Highlighting the 1996 Season

- Nebraska opened the season by recording its then-school record 32nd-straight victory, a 3-1 triumph over host Illinois State in the second annual State Farm/NACWAA Classic.

- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league ledger, the Huskers claimed the NCAA East Regional crown, advancing to the NCAA semifinals for the second consecutive season. Nebraska's 30-4 record marked the third straight season the Huskers tallied 30 or more wins. The Huskers were 17-0 at home.

- Lisa Reitsma shattered Kathi DeBoer's single-season kill total (529 in 1987) with 611. In addition, Reitsma established a new kills per game mark (5.05), bettering Allison Weston's 1994 figure of 4.99 kills per game.

- In her first season as NU's starting setter, sophomore Fiona Nepo posted a school-record 1,653 set assists, eclipsing the 1989 standard of 1,608, set by Val Novak.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

Back-to-Back

For the second consecutive season, Nebraska returned to the NCAA Championships, only to be ousted one match short of the finals. Once again, as it did in 1986, Pacific sent the Huskers home with a 3-1 loss. It was the Tigers' second victory of the season against Nebraska, as the Tigers defeated the Huskers 3-1 in an early season tournament.

NCAA Semifinals

A close match throughout, Nebraska and Pacific's intense game one set the tone. Nebraska led 13-11, but saw the Tigers score four unanswered points and claim the crucial first game. The Huskers rebounded for a 15-11 win in game two, scoring the game's final three points. Games three and four were equally competitive, but the Tigers had the stamina to thwart Nebraska's attack, winning 15-9 and 15-12. Cris Hall led NU with 18 kills, while Val Novak had 46 assists and a match-high 17 digs. Krissy Fifer led the Pacific attack with 21 kills.

Highlighting the 1990 Season

- In terms of winning percentage, Nebraska finished with its then-best season ever at 32-3 (.914). Before losing to Pacific in the semifinals, Nebraska had won 16 straight contests.

- Nebraska set team records in block assists (558) and opponent hitting percentage (.135).

- Nebraska won its 15th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record and the tournament crown with a win over Colorado.

- The 1990 season was the last at the Nebraska Coliseum until it reopened for volleyball in 1992. In 1990 the Huskers were a perfect 18-0 and drew an average of 2,816 fans. At the Devaney Center in 1991, Nebraska set the then-national attendance record with 11,032 fans in a match against UCLA.

- The Huskers placed a school-record four players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2001, as Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) and Amber Holmquist earned first-team honors, and Jenny Kropp and Greichaly Cepero were named to the second team.

ALL-AMERICAN BIOS

Right Side/Opposite, Kitchener, Ontario

Sarah Pavan capped the greatest freshman season in school history by earning first-team All-America honors. The AVCA National Freshman of the Year, Pavan set Husker freshman marks for kills (481) and kills per game (4.54), while recording 20-or-more kills seven times, including a career-high 35 kills in the regional final against USC. She is the first freshman to be an AVCA first-team All-American since Stanford's Logan Tom in 1999. Pavan ranked fourth in the Big 12 Conference in kills per game, while also ranking seventh with a .322 hitting percentage. A first-team All-Big 12 selection, Pavan was also selected as the league's Freshman of the Year.

Outside Hitter, National City, Calif.

One of the best all-around players in the Big 12, Jennifer Saleaumua earned second-team AVCA All-America honors following the 2004 season. She ranked second on the team in both digs (3.74) and kills (3.09) per game. Saleaumua was chosen as the Big 12 Co-Defensive Player-of-the-Year after helping the Huskers lead the nation in opponent hitting (.103) and topping the Big 12 with 17.42 digs per game. Saleaumua finished with 10 double-doubles, including a career-high 19 kills on .450 hitting with 11 digs at No. 10 Texas on Oct. 20.

Middle Blocker, Fort Wayne, Ind.

Melissa Elmer has earned All-America honors in each of the last two years. As a junior in 2004, Elmer led the nation with 1.89 blocks per game, totaling 200 total blocks en route to first-team All-America honors. In 2003, she led the Big 12 in blocks per game (1.64) and hitting percentage (.379) in league matches. Elmer also ranked sixth nationally in blocks per game, while her 169 blocks ranked third in school history at the time. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native broke the NU postseason single-match hitting percentage mark, posting 15 kills on a .737 clip against Dayton in the second round of the 2003 NCAA Tournament.

Setter, Dorado, Puerto Rico

Greichaly Cepero virtually redefined the setter position with her all-around skills and blocking ability during her highly decorated career at Nebraska. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. She also earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors in 2000 and shared the award with teammates Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski in 2002. A CoSIDA Academic All-American, Cepero was also the 2000 Honda Award winner for volleyball. The best blocking setter in NU history, Cepero ended her senior season tied for fourth on the all-time charts with 84 career solo blocks, and ranks seventh all-time in total blocks (507) and third in set assists (3,987). In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU never hit less than .304 and ranked among the top 10 nationally in that category each of her three seasons.

Middle Blocker, Houston, Texas

Amber Holmquist will be remembered as the best middle blocker in school history. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2001 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2000, Holmquist owned or shared 17 school records and eight Big 12 Conference records. Holmquist concluded her career ranked second on the all-time charts with a .396 hitting percentage and 11th on the all-time kills chart with 1,122. As a sophomore in 2000, Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. A 2002 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, Holmquist also set Big 12 records for single-season hitting percentage, total blocks and blocks per game, as well as single-match records for block assists and total blocks. Holmquist finished her career as the only player in school history to lead NU in hitting percentage and blocks per game in four consecutive seasons.

Outside Hitter, Columbus, Neb.

Laura Pilakowski earned first-team AVCA All-America honors in her first season as a starter in 2000, and second-team honors in her final season with NU in 2002. Pilakowski finished her career ranked ninth all-time with 1,183 kills and eighth with a .318 career hitting percentage, the best mark in school history by an outside hitter. The Huskers' go-to offensive player during the 2000 national title run, Pilakowski led NU with 4.30 kills per game and a .336 hitting percentage in 2000. She is just the third three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American in school history.

Jenny Kropp, 2001

Middle Blocker, Grand Island, Neb.

Jenny Kropp was named an AVCA Second-Team All-American after dominating opponents at the net in 2001 with 1.73 blocks per game and 180 total blocks. Offensively, Kropp hit .371 with 2.45 kills per game as a senior. She finished her career with 816 kills and a .331 career hitting percentage. Kropp still ranks fifth all-time in total blocks (544), third in block assists (484) and is tied for 10th in solo blocks (60).

1998, 1999, 2001

Right Side Hitter, Hull, Iowa

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) will be remembered as one of the best players in Nebraska volleyball history. Metcalf was just the second three-time AVCA First-Team All-American at Nebraska and played for the United States in the 2004 Olympics. She was also honored as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year, a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, the 2001 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, a two-time NCAA Regional MVP and a three-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree. Metcalf finished her career with 1,603 kills and 412 blocks, joining U.S. National Team captain Allison Weston as the only two players in program history to rank among the NU top 11 in career kills and career blocks. Metcalf was the only Husker to record six 30-kill matches in a career, and owned or shared 13 school records, including kills in a single match with 39 against Kansas State in 1999.

ALL-AMERICANS

Megan Korver, 1998
Middle Blocker, Panama, Neb.

Megan Korver, a native of Panama, Neb., emerged as one of the dominant middle blockers in the country during her senior season to earn second-team AVCA All-America honors. Korver led the nation in hitting percentage through the first half of the season and finished with an impressive .358. She broke a school record and became just the 11th player in NCAA history to hit 1,000 in a match by recording 10 kills on 10 swings against Iowa State. Korver ranks seventh on the school charts with 517 total blocks despite playing just two seasons at NU.

Setter, Honolulu, Hawaii

Fiona Nepo had one of the most decorated careers of any player in Nebraska volleyball history. The 1998 Big 12 Player of the Year, Nepo finished her career as the all-time assist leader at NU with 4,824, and she also owns the NU single-season assists record, which she set in 1996 with 1,653. Nepo was one of only seven setters in NCAA Division I history to earn three All-America certificates, earning first-team honors her sophomore and senior seasons. With Nepo in the starting lineup, Nebraska compiled an 88-13 overall record, including a 54-6 Big 12 mark, won two Big 12 championships and made two NCAA semifinal appearances. The three-time team captain was also a tremendous jump server, notching 94 service aces during her career.

Lisa Reitsma, 1995, 1996, 1997
Right Side Hitter, Sanborn, Iowa

Lisa Reitsma earned first-team All-America honors as a sophomore and junior and a second-team award as a senior. Reitsma was a three-time first-team all-conference selection, including the 1996 Big 12 Player of the Year. She burst on the scene as a sophomore and was a key ingredient as the Huskers won their first national title. Reitsma left her mark on the Husker record books, as she ranks in the top 10 in kills (1,633, second), attacks (3,766, second) and hitting percentage (.302, 10th). She had more than 25 kills in a match nine times, the second-most by any Husker in school history.

Christy Johnson, 1994, 1995
Setter, Omaha, Neb.

Christy Johnson guided the Huskers to their first national championship in 1995 and earned first-team All-America honors her junior and senior seasons. She holds the second-best winning percentage of any starting setter in school history, leading Nebraska to a near-perfect 63-2 record, including 24-0 in Big Eight play, over her final two seasons. She still holds the top two season marks for assists-per-game in school history and ranks fifth in career assists with 3,183. She was also a 1995 CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Allison Weston, 1993, 1994, 1995
Outside Hitter, Papillion, Neb.

Allison Weston, a native of Papillion, Neb., is arguably one of the best collegiate players in NCAA history. Nebraska's first three-time, first-team AVCA All-American, Weston capped an impressive career by winning the 1995 national title and sharing AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors with Cary Wendell of Stanford. The former captain of the U.S. National Team, Weston still holds school records for kills in a four-game match (37) and career kills (1,778). She also ranks in the career top 10 in attacks (fourth, 3,659), service aces (sixth, 119), solo blocks (tied for fourth, 84), block assists, (eighth, 422), total blocks (eighth, 506), and hitting percentage (sixth, .353). Weston holds three of the top-10 single-match kill performances. A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, Weston was also a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year.

Kelly Aspegren, 1994
Outside Hitter, Callaway, Neb.

Kelly Aspegren, a two-year starter for the Huskers, had 332 kills as a senior and hit .344 to lead Nebraska, including .410 in Big Eight play. Aspegren was a first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior and was tabbed honorable mention as a junior. She was also a two-time academic All-Big Eight selection. During her two years as a starter, Nebraska compiled a 56-7 overall mark and a 22-2 Big Eight ledger. She finished her career with 557 kills on 1,329 attacks for a .280 career hitting percentage and an average of 2.29 kills per game. She also recorded 657 digs and 152 blocks for career averages of 2.70 and 0.64 per game.

Middle Blocker, Union, Mo.

Stephanie Thater was the second three-time All-American in Husker volleyball history and is still regarded as one of the best middle blockers to come through the NU program. She led her team to the NCAA semifinals as a sophomore and compiled an 81-14 record in her three years as a starter. Her teams went 48-0 in regular-season conference play, winning four Big Eight titles and three conference tournament championships. Thater was a three-time first-team All-Big Eight selection, including the 1991 and 1992 conference player of the year. She holds school records for block assists in a five-game match with 14. Her season records for block assists (165), total blocks (197) and blocks per game (1.92) stood for seven years before Amber Holmquist topped them in 2000, and her career records for block assists (502) and total blocks (591) stood for 10 years before Holmquist surpassed them in 2002.

Cris Hall, 1991
Outside Hitter, Chanute, Kan.

Cris Hall is one of only five athletes and the only female in Nebraska history to earn All-America honors in two different sports. Hall was a second-team All-American as an outside hitter in 1991, and earned four All-America track certificates from 1991 to 1993 (three high jump, one heptathlon). Hall still holds the NU all-time outdoor track records in the high jump (6-2 1/4) and heptathlon (5,936 points). Her career-high 30 kills against Ohio State still rank among Nebraska's top-20 performances. Her 1,251 career kills rank eighth in school history.

Outside Hitter, Fort Calhoun, Neb.

Janet Kruse is one of the finest student-athletes to ever play for the Huskers. A native of Fort Calhoun, Neb., Kruse was Nebraska's first three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in 1989 and 1990 and second-team honors in 1991. She was also named the NCAA Woman of the Year for Nebraska and garnered an NCAA Today Top Eight award in 1992 after twice earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1990 and 1991. She also earned third-team academic All-America honors in 1989. During her career, the Huskers made two NCAA semifinal appearances, including a title appearance in 1989. Her 33 kills in a five-game win over Kentucky are tied for eighth on the all-time single-match charts. Kruse also ranks seventh on Nebraska's career kill charts with 1,269 kills.

Val Novak, 1989, 1990
Setter, Oak Lawn, Ill.

A native of Oak Lawn, Ill., Val Novak earned first-team All-America certificates after leading the Huskers to NCAA semifinal appearances in 1989 and 1990, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Novak, who converted to setter after playing outside hitter her first two seasons, ended her career by earning the Big Eight Player-of-the-Year award in 1990. She finished with 778 career kills, holds the school record for career service aces (161), and ranks fourth in digs (1,068) and fourth in set assists (3,305). She led the nation in assists per game and guided Nebraska to the nation's top hitting percentage in 1989. NU never finished lower than fifth in the national rankings during her career.

Virginia Stahr, 1988, 1989
Middle Blocker, Waco, Neb.

Virginia Stahr set the standard for excellence in the Nebraska volleyball program as a standout athlete and student. Stahr was tabbed a two-time All-American and capped her career by leading the Huskers to a national runner-up finish in 1989. She earned the NCAA Today Top Eight award after earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1988 and 1989. Her teams won four Big Eight regular-season titles and three conference tournament titles, and she was named the 1989 Big Eight Player of the Year. She still shares the school record for service aces in a five-game match (7), while her 31 kills vs. Texas rank 16th on the all-time single-match charts. She also ranks second in school history in career service aces (159) and solo blocks (106), and she is third in total blocks (555). Stahr ranks fifth all-time in block assists.

Lori Endicott, 1987, 1988
Setter, Springfield, Mo.

Lori Endicott is the most decorated setter in Nebraska's long line of All-America setters. Endicott earned first-team honors as a senior and was a second-team selection as a junior after playing right side her first two seasons. Endicott continued her playing career as a member of the U.S. National Team from 1988 to 1996. She was America's starting setter at the 1992 and 1996 Olympic Games and was named the best setter at the Barcelona Games after leading the United States to a bronze medal. A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year, Endicott led Nebraska to four Big Eight regular-season titles during her career. She was also named a 1988 CoSIDA Academic All-American. Several of Endicott's marks may stand untouched for years, including her school-record 109 assists vs. Texas, which still stands as the NCAA single-match record.

Tisha Delaney, 1986
Setter, Festus, Mo.

Tisha Delaney is responsible for leading Nebraska to its first NCAA semifinal appearance in 1986, where the Huskers defeated Stanford before losing to Pacific in the title match. An AVCA Second-Team All-American as a senior, Delaney set school records as a senior for assists in four-game (63) and five-game matches (88), both of which Lori Endicott surpassed in 1988. Delaney still ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in service aces (49), and assists (1,433) as well as career assists (2,605).

Enid Schonewise, 1986
Outside Hitter, Beatrice, Neb.

Enid Schonewise earned second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big Eight honors in 1986. Schonewise established one of the program's oldest school records by slamming 38 kills against Arizona State, which stood until 1999. She also ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in kills (493) and total attacks (1,076), as well as career hitting percentage (.304).

Karen Dahlgren, 1985, 1986
Middle Blocker, Bertrand, Neb.

Karen Dahlgren played a key role in Nebraska's 1986 national runner-up finish. A two-time All-American, Dahlgren was honored as a Honda-Broderick Award winner in 1987 after being named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team three straight years. Dahlgren holds school records for solo blocks in three- and four-game matches. She also holds the top two single-season solo block marks as well as NU's career solo block record. She ranks fourth on the all-time total blocks chart with 550. The Bertrand native is also third in school history with a career hitting percentage of .386. She is one of only two players to lead the Huskers in a statistical category (blocks) all four years.

Annie Adamczak, 1985
Middle Blocker, Moose Lake, Minn.

Annie Adamczak was a three-year starter in the Nebraska volleyball program and capped her career by earning first-team All-America honors as a senior after leading the Huskers with 354 digs. She is one of three Nebraska volleyball players to be named the conference Female Athlete of the Year, joining Virginia Stahr in 1989 and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) in 2001. A two-time All-Big Eight selection, Adamczak holds the three-game school record with 28 digs against Montana. Her 932 career digs rank 12th all-time in NU school history. During Adamczak's career, Nebraska won all four regular-season and tournament conference titles and twice advanced to the NCAA Midwest Regional Championship.

Setter, Bettendorf, Iowa

Cathy Noth moved from outside hitter to setter her junior season and earned AVCA All-America honors in 1983 and 1984. Noth guided NU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1982 and helped Nebraska compile a four-year-record of 112-24, winning four Big Eight regular-season titles and four Big Eight Tournament crowns. She set a then-Big Eight and school record with a .398 hitting percentage in 1984. Noth's career hitting percentage of .366 still ranks fourth in school history. Noth was also Nebraska's first three-time All-Big Eight selection and the only volleyball player in the history of the conference to earn three Big Eight Tournament MVP awards. Noth served as an assistant coach under Terry Pettit from 1988 to 1998.

Terri Kanouse, 1980 (IAIW)
Middle Blocker, St. Paul, Ind.

Terri Kanouse helped put Nebraska on the volleyball map by earning IAIW All-America honors in 1980, the program's first national honor. A two-time first-team all-district selection, Kanouse was also named first-team All-Big Eight her final three seasons. Kanouse was also a two-year team captain for the Huskers.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

ONE GOAL • ONE TEAM • ONE CHAMPION

NEBRASKA VOLLEYBALL

Nebraska has set the standard for excellence in college volleyball, winning 26 Big Eight/Big 12 championships in 29 seasons. Nebraska has also won eight NCAA regional crowns, advancing to the NCAA semifinals in 1986, 1989, 1990, 1995, 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2001. No other program has produced more All-Americans than Nebraska, which has seen 25 athletes earn 49 AVCA All-America certificates.

The Huskers are one of only two teams to be ranked in the USA Today/CSTV top 25 rankings for all 319 weeks, 285 of which have been in the top 10. Nebraska has been ranked No. 1 for a total of 40 weeks in school history, including the final 14 weeks of the 2000 season.

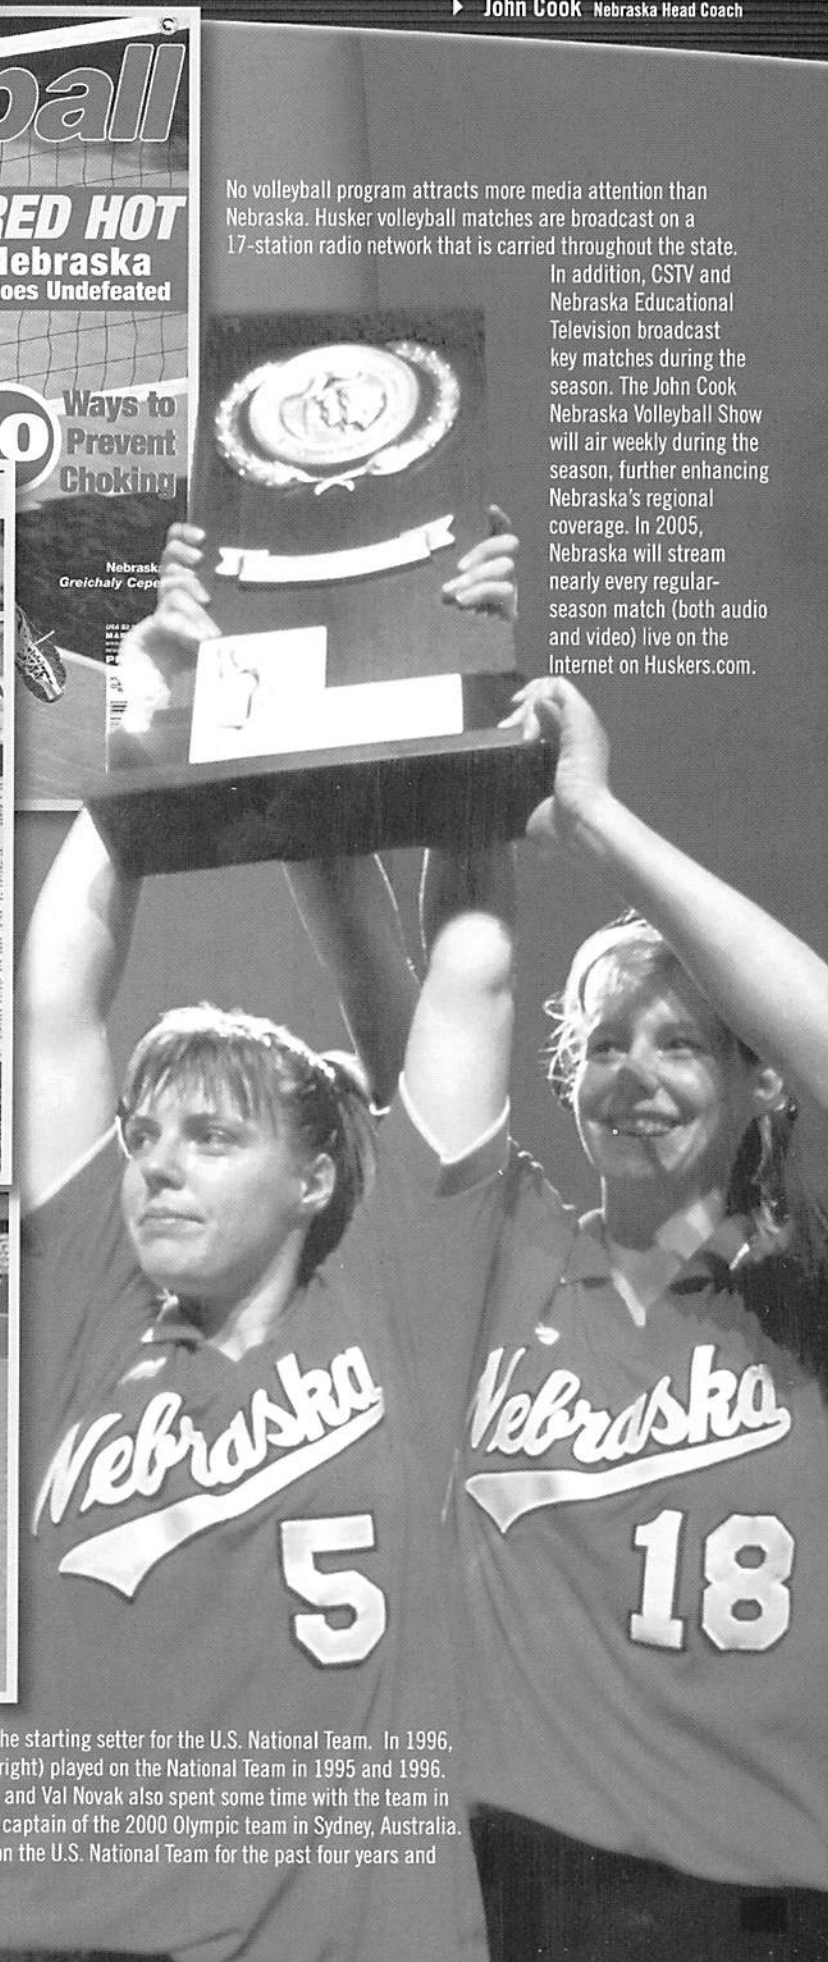

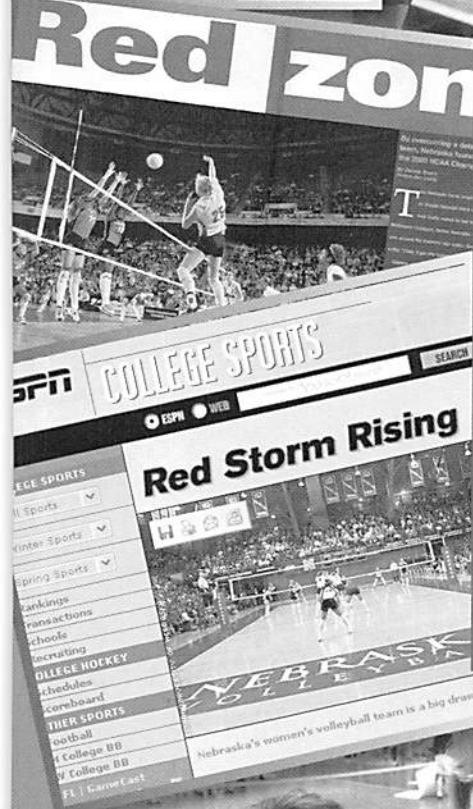

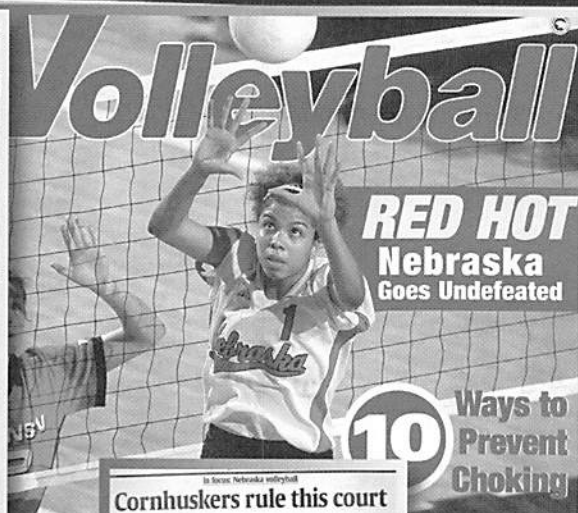

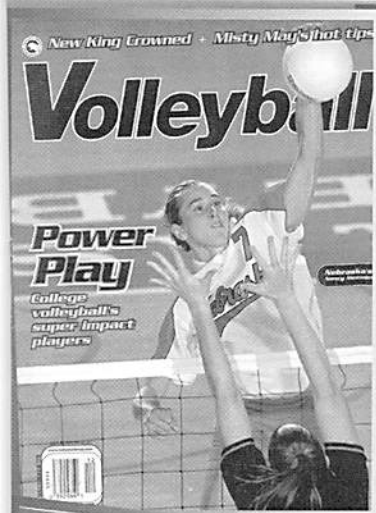

As they enter the NU Coliseum, fans are greeted by a bronze statue entitled "The Players." Symbolic of Nebraska volleyball, the statue was created in 1992 by nationally renowned artist George Lundeen. Former coach Terry Pettit (left) had this to say when it was unveiled on Sept. 1, 1992.

"I believe that as you enter the Coliseum for the first time and look upon the three players, each intense, focused and committed to the task, it will occur to you, as it occurs to me, that something important happens here. Something beyond individual honors or accomplishments. Something more important than the individuals themselves. This statue says, 'This is where women come to compete.'"

"I think that is why there is a love affair with our fans and our team. They're great kids and they're good students, and they've grown up wanting to be Nebraska volleyball players."

No volleyball program attracts more media attention than Nebraska. Husker volleyball matches are broadcast on a 17-station radio network that is carried throughout the state.

In addition, CSTV and Nebraska Educational Television broadcast key matches during the season. The John Cook Nebraska Volleyball Show will air weekly during the season, further enhancing Nebraska's regional coverage. In 2005, Nebraska will stream nearly every regular-season match (both audio and video) live on the Internet on Huskers.com.

Lori Endicott (left), a two-time All-American at Nebraska, spent eight seasons as the starting setter for the U.S. National Team. In 1996, she competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta. Former Husker Stephanie Thater (right) played on the National Team in 1995 and 1996. Former assistant coach Cathy Noth was a member of the team from 1985 to 1988, and Val Novak also spent some time with the team in 1991. The 1996 AVCA Co-National Player of the Year, Allison Weston served as the captain of the 2000 Olympic team in Sydney, Australia. Former three-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) has been competing on the U.S. National Team for the past four years and was chosen for the 2004 U.S. Olympic Team.

Magical Experience

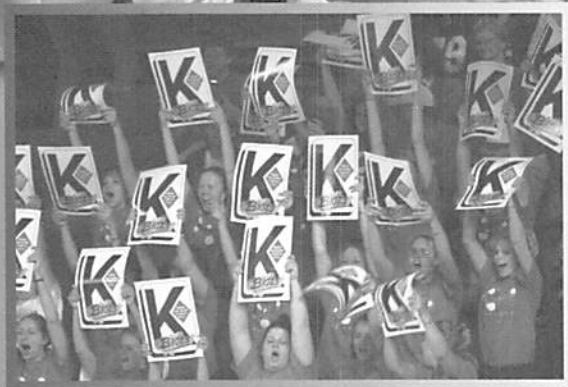

HUSKER GAME DAY

At the Nebraska Coliseum, volleyball is not just a game, it's an event. Some of the things you'll see at an NU volleyball match include: Fans chanting "Husker Power" at deafening levels, Lil' Red entertaining children, the Husker drum line whipping the crowd into a frenzy before introductions and autograph seekers swarming the Huskers after each match.

Composed of some of the most dedicated fans in the nation, The Match Club is the official booster club of the Nebraska volleyball team. Following the team to all parts of the country, The Match Club sells a variety of Husker volleyball merchandise at each match, including chairbacks, T-shirts, posters, etc. For more information on The Match Club, call (402) 441-9826 or visit their website at thematchclub.org.

Among the national leaders in attendance every season, Nebraska boasts dedicated and loyal fans. In 2003, the Huskers finished second in the nation in attendance, drawing 69,378 fans in 16 matches for an average of 4,336 per contest.

The Nebraska Coliseum has been home for the Huskers since the program began in 1975. The Huskers will carry a streak of 56 consecutive sellouts at the NU Coliseum into the 2005 season, and the Huskers annually rank among the national leaders in attendance.

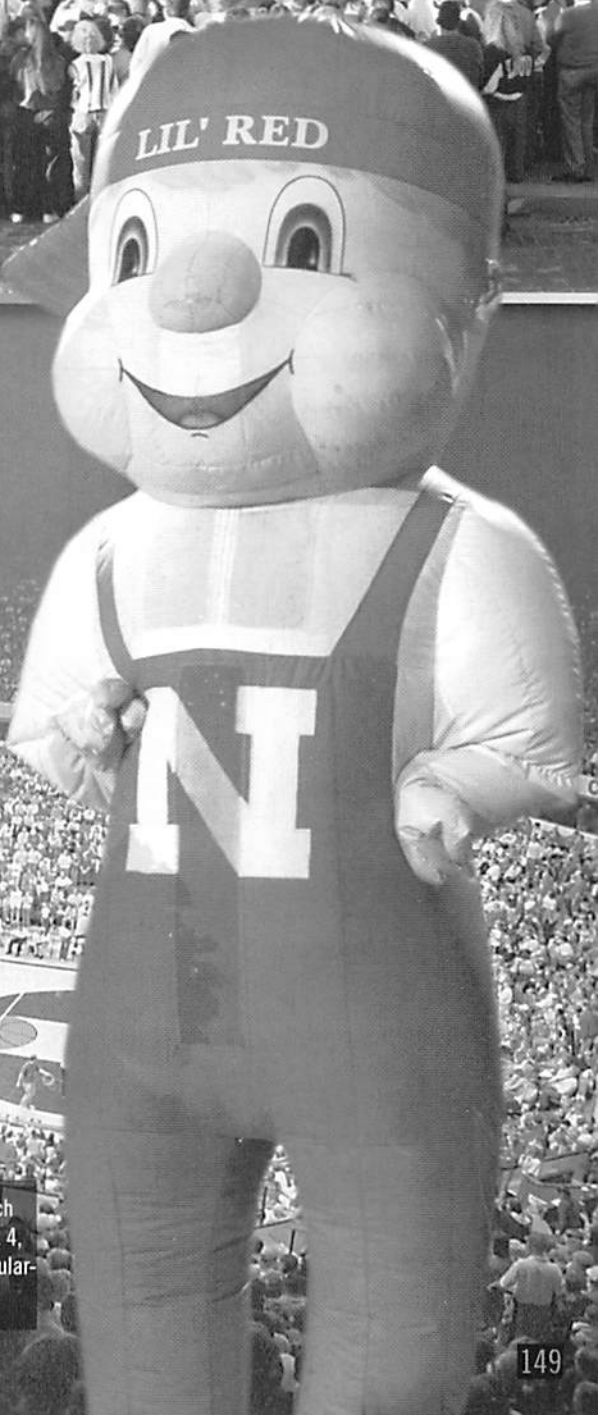

"The first game when I was walking out on the court as a freshman, I had goosebumps. I was almost in tears knowing I was playing in a place that is so special."

► Dani Busboom

Fans are known to line up as much as three to four hours in advance for a chance to see their beloved Husker volleyball team in action.

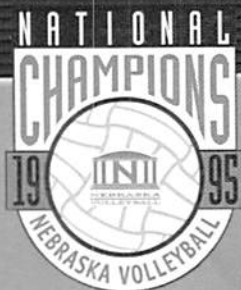

A school-record crowd of 12,504 attended Nebraska's match against Colorado in the Bob Devaney Sports Center on Nov. 4, 2000 (above). Nebraska holds two of the three largest regular-season crowds in NCAA history at the Devaney Center.

N

After losing to Stanford in its second match of the season, the 1995 Nebraska volleyball team reeled off 31 consecutive wins, including a 3-1 win over Texas to claim the program's first national title. An amazing 28 of the Huskers' 32 victories were 3-0 wins. Nebraska posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Three NU players were named AVCA All-Americans, including AVCA Co-National Player-of-the-Year Allison Weston (right).

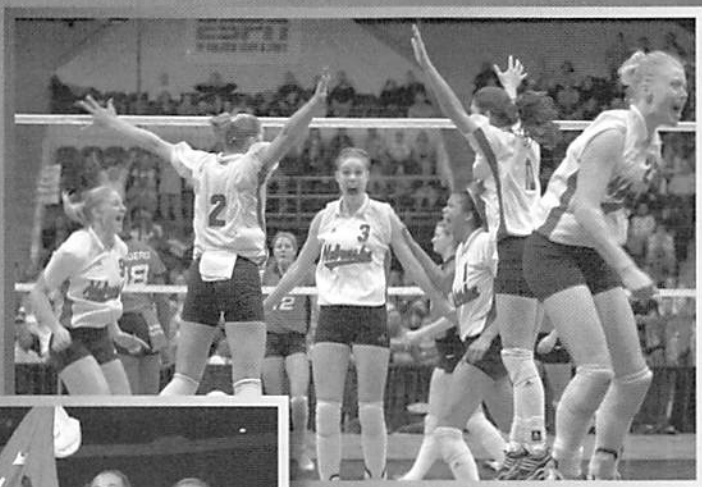

Nebraska beat Texas, 3-1, with the help of 25 kills each from Billie Winsett (right) and Kate Crnich.

Nebraska beat Wisconsin, 3-2, and took the national title when Laura Pilakowski pounded her 23rd kill of the match.

The 2000 Nebraska volleyball team produced one of the most successful seasons in NCAA history en route to winning the program's second national championship with a 3-2 victory over Wisconsin. Ranked sixth and 11th in the preseason polls, the young Huskers surprised everyone but themselves, finishing the season with a 34-0 record and becoming just the second team in NCAA history to go undefeated and win a national title. First-year Coach John Cook was named the AVCA Coach of the Year, and first-year setter Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors.

Partial Speech from President Bush - May 31, 2001

"This has been an unbelievably strong team, made up of some unique individuals, starting with the Player of the Year, Greichaly Cepero. It is a huge honor to be the player of the year. And Greichaly, congratulations to you, and Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski. But it's more than just being great players, it's important to be good people, too. And that's the thing that I have been most impressed with by this club. Not only are the girls up here champs on the court, but they've been champs in the classroom. And it's important for young men and women who look at the Nebraska champs to understand that quality of life is more than just blocking shots. Good quality of life means excelling in the classroom and also in the neighborhoods across America ... And finally, I can't go without saying how impressed I am by the Nebraska fan base. Whether it be for women's volleyball or maybe football. But there's nothing like the Big Red."

Coaching Excellence

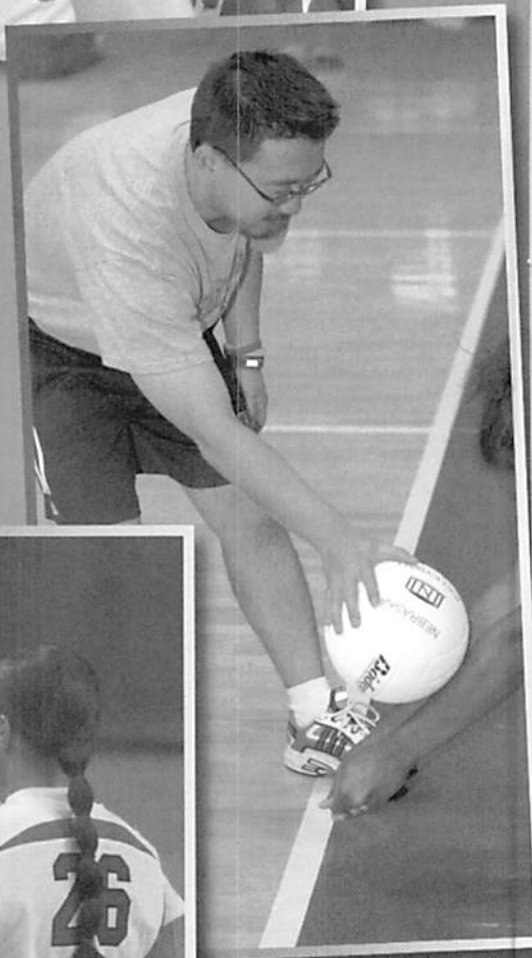

COOK/MAES/TAGALOA

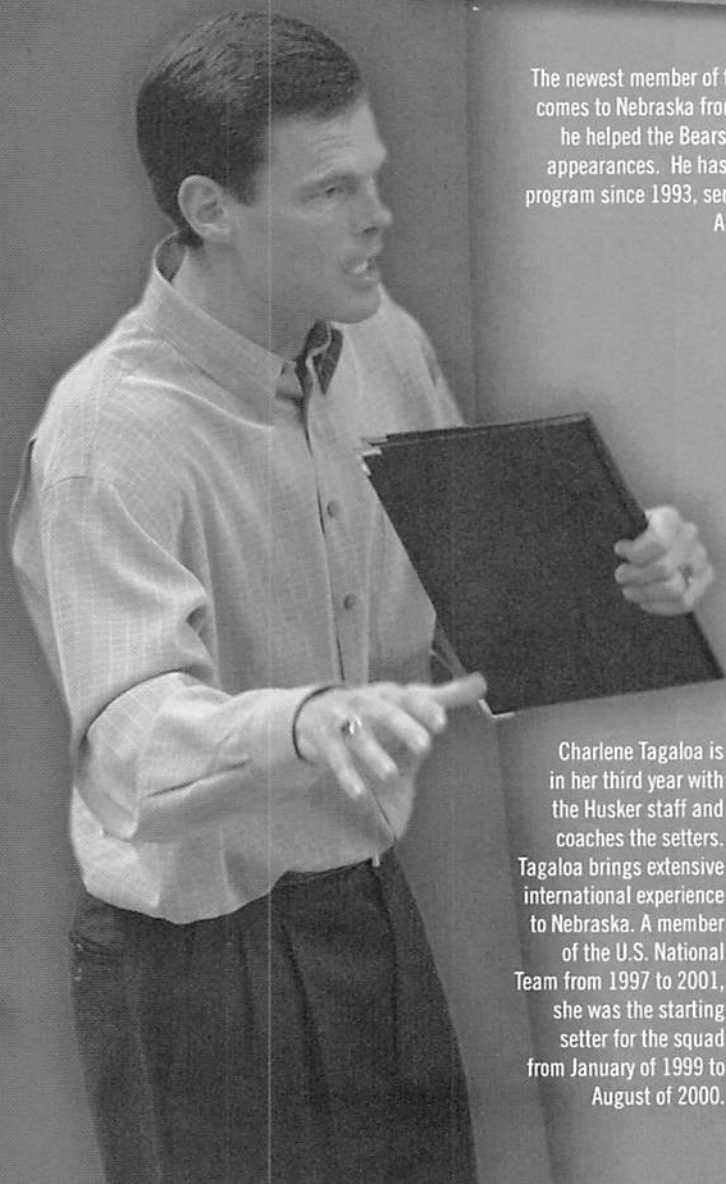

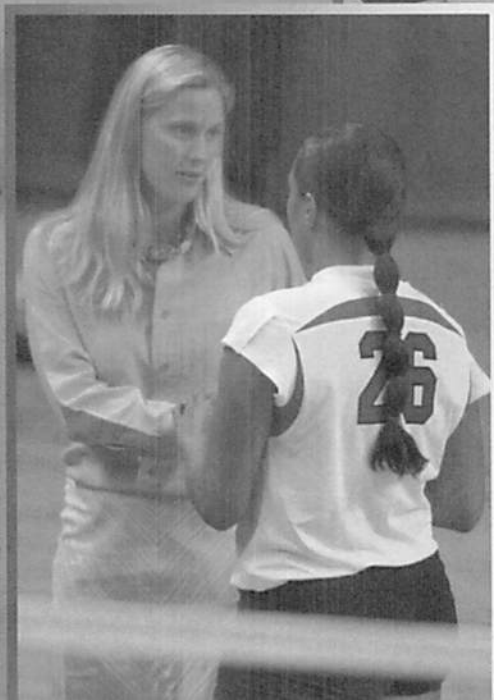

Since taking over for legendary coach Terry Pettit on Dec. 15, 1999, John Cook has led Nebraska to the 2000 national championship, two NCAA semifinal appearances and four Big 12 Conference titles. Cook has guided NU to a 154-11 overall record and a 97-3 league mark. With Cook at the helm, NU has produced one U.S. Olympian, one AVCA Division I National Player of the Year, one NCAA Top Eight award winner, one Honda Award winner, 14 AVCA All-Americans, one CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year and six CoSIDA Academic All-Americans.

The newest member of the Husker coaching staff, Lee Maes comes to Nebraska from the University of California, where he helped the Bears to three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. He has also worked with the USA Volleyball program since 1993, serving as an assistant coach with the A-2 National Team in 2004 and 2005.

Charlene Tagaloa is in her third year with the Husker staff and coaches the setters. Tagaloa brings extensive international experience to Nebraska. A member of the U.S. National Team from 1997 to 2001, she was the starting setter for the squad from January of 1999 to August of 2000.

Giving Back

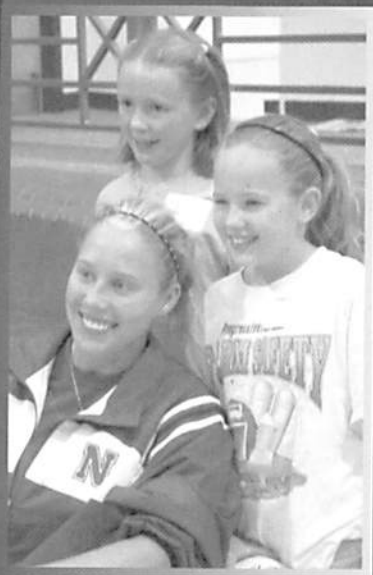

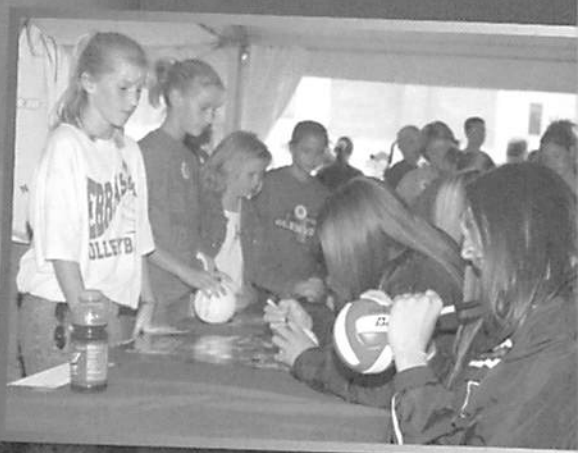

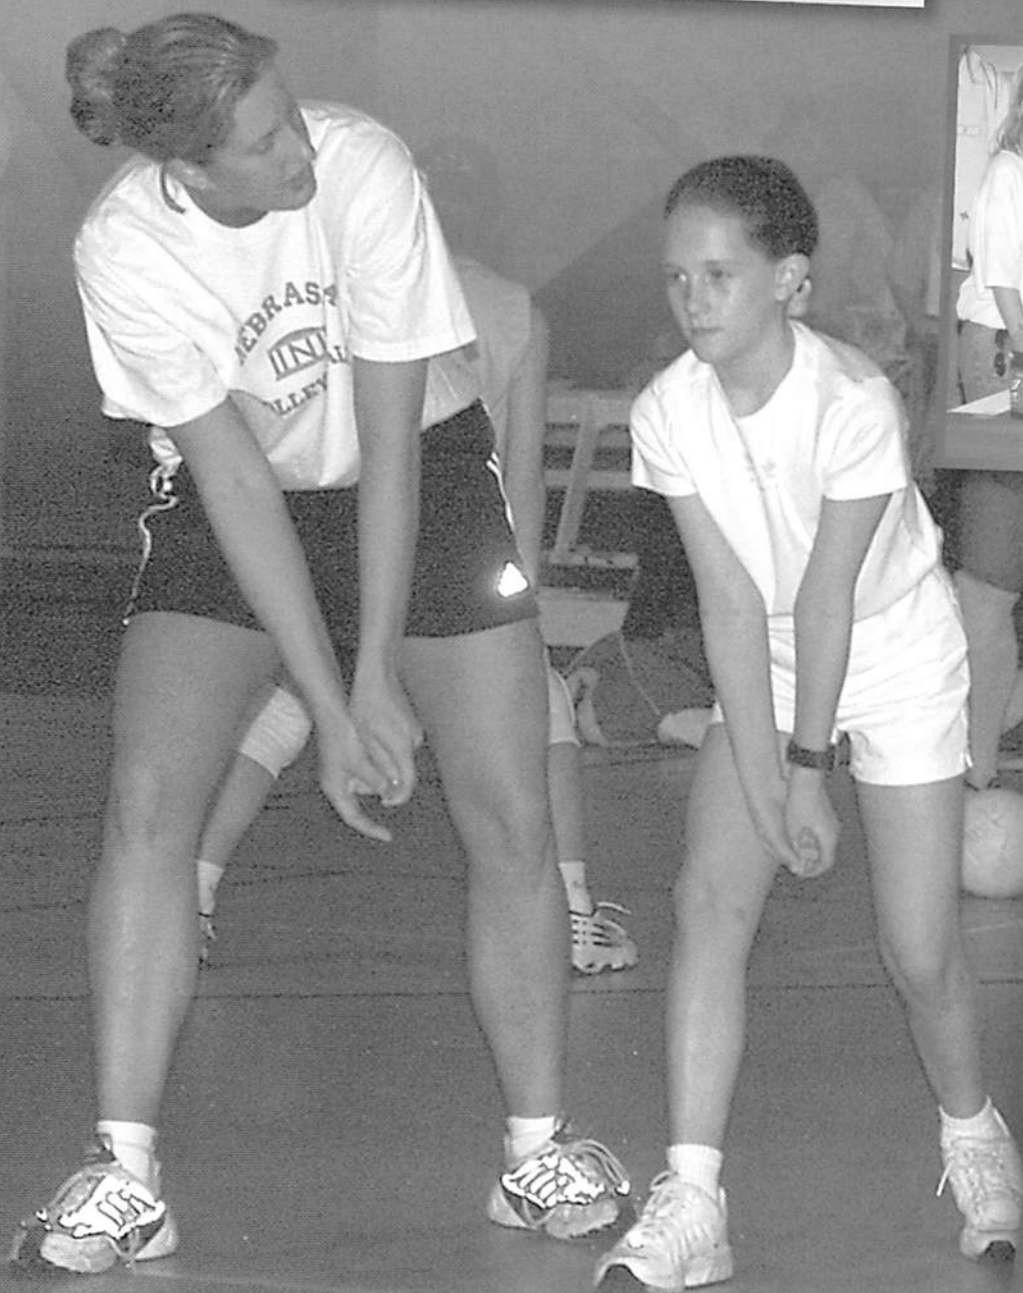

HUSKER OUTREACH

N

Nebraska players participate in clinics and camps, working with youth from across the state. Huskers have also participated in the "I've Got Heart Card Series," Lincoln Children's Museum Big Red Day, and Meals on Wheels.

The Nebraska volleyball team gives back to the community in many ways. Husker players mentor youths in local schools, visit children in hospitals and make appearances at events like the "School is Cool" Jam, which reaches children across the state with a positive message. The Huskers also help celebrate amateur athletics in Nebraska through the Cornhusker State Games.

Setter University

ALL-AMERICA HISTORY

N

Nebraska has always had a reputation as one of the most prestigious volleyball programs in the country. But it is Nebraska's reputation of developing student-athletes into the world's best volleyball players that has made it a haven for the game's premier setters. NU has produced 15 All-Americans in 21 seasons at the sport's toughest position.

As a sophomore in 2000, Greichaly Cepero became the first Nebraska setter to earn AVCA Division I Player-of-the-Year honors. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU compiled a 96-4 record and never hit less than .300 in a season to rank among the top 10 nationally each year.

The first in a long line of fine setters, Cathy Noth was a major contributor to the Husker volleyball program as a 10-year assistant. She was a member of the U.S. National Team from 1984 to 1988 and an alternate for the 1988 Olympic Team. Noth was also a two-time All-American, a three-time All-Big Eight selection and the Big Eight Tournament MVP a record three times.

The most decorated of all the NU setters, Lori Endicott joined the U.S. National Team in 1988 and was a mainstay at setter for eight years. She participated in the 1992 and the 1996 Olympic games, earning a bronze medal in the 1992 Barcelona Olympics. A two-time All-America and three-time All-Big Eight performer, Endicott was the Big Eight Player of the Year in 1987 and 1988 and was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1988.

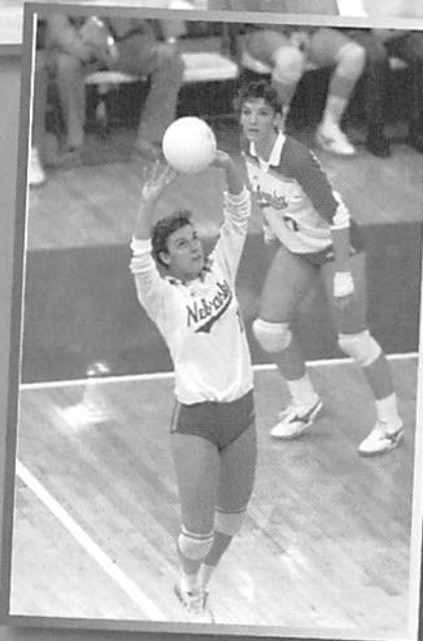

"Our All-America setters all understood the game beyond themselves. They were willing to lead and serve their teammates. They were willing to do whatever it took to make the team a better team. It's an unusual person who is willing to do that over the long haul."

► Terry Pettit Former Husker Coach

Following in the footsteps of Cathy Noth, Tish Delaney earned second-team All-America honors in 1986. Delaney twice earned first-team All-Big Eight honors and was the 1986 Big Eight Tournament MVP.

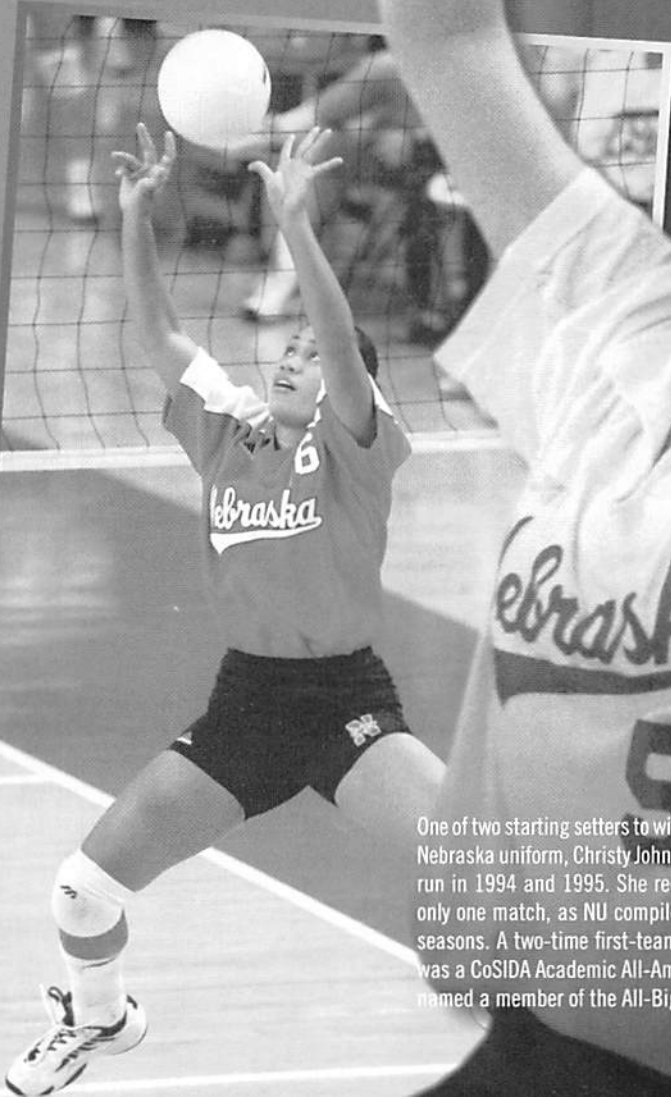

Nikki (Stricker) Best took over the starting setter position her sophomore season after playing middle blocker her first year. Stricker, a three-time All-Big Eight setter, was named the Big Eight Player of the Year in 1993. Not only does she rank second in career set assists at NU with 3,786, but she is seventh on the all-time block assists chart with 313.

One of the most well-rounded players in Husker history, Val Novak (above) earned AVCA All-America honors in 1989 and 1990 and played for the U.S. National Team in 1991. A three-time All-Big Eight honoree, Novak was the 1990 Big Eight Player of the Year.

One of the most athletic players in Nebraska volleyball history, Fiona Nepo (right) put the finishing touches on a standout career by leading the Huskers to an NCAA semifinal finish in 1998. The first three-time All-American setter in school history, Nepo is the school's career assist leader.

One of two starting setters to win a national championship in a Nebraska uniform, Christy Johnson had an incredible two-year run in 1994 and 1995. She redshirted in 1993 then missed only one match, as NU compiled a 63-2 record the next two seasons. A two-time first-team AVCA All-American, Johnson was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 1995 and was twice named a member of the All-Big Eight squad.

Championship Facilities

NU COLISEUM

The home of the Husker volleyball program, the 4,030-seat Nebraska Coliseum is one of the top venues in all of college athletics. Set in the center of the University of Nebraska campus, the Coliseum has served as a home for Husker Athletics since the 1920s and has been the home of the Nebraska volleyball team since the program's inception. Nebraska annually ranks among the nation's attendance leaders and has sold out 56 straight matches dating back to the 2001 season.

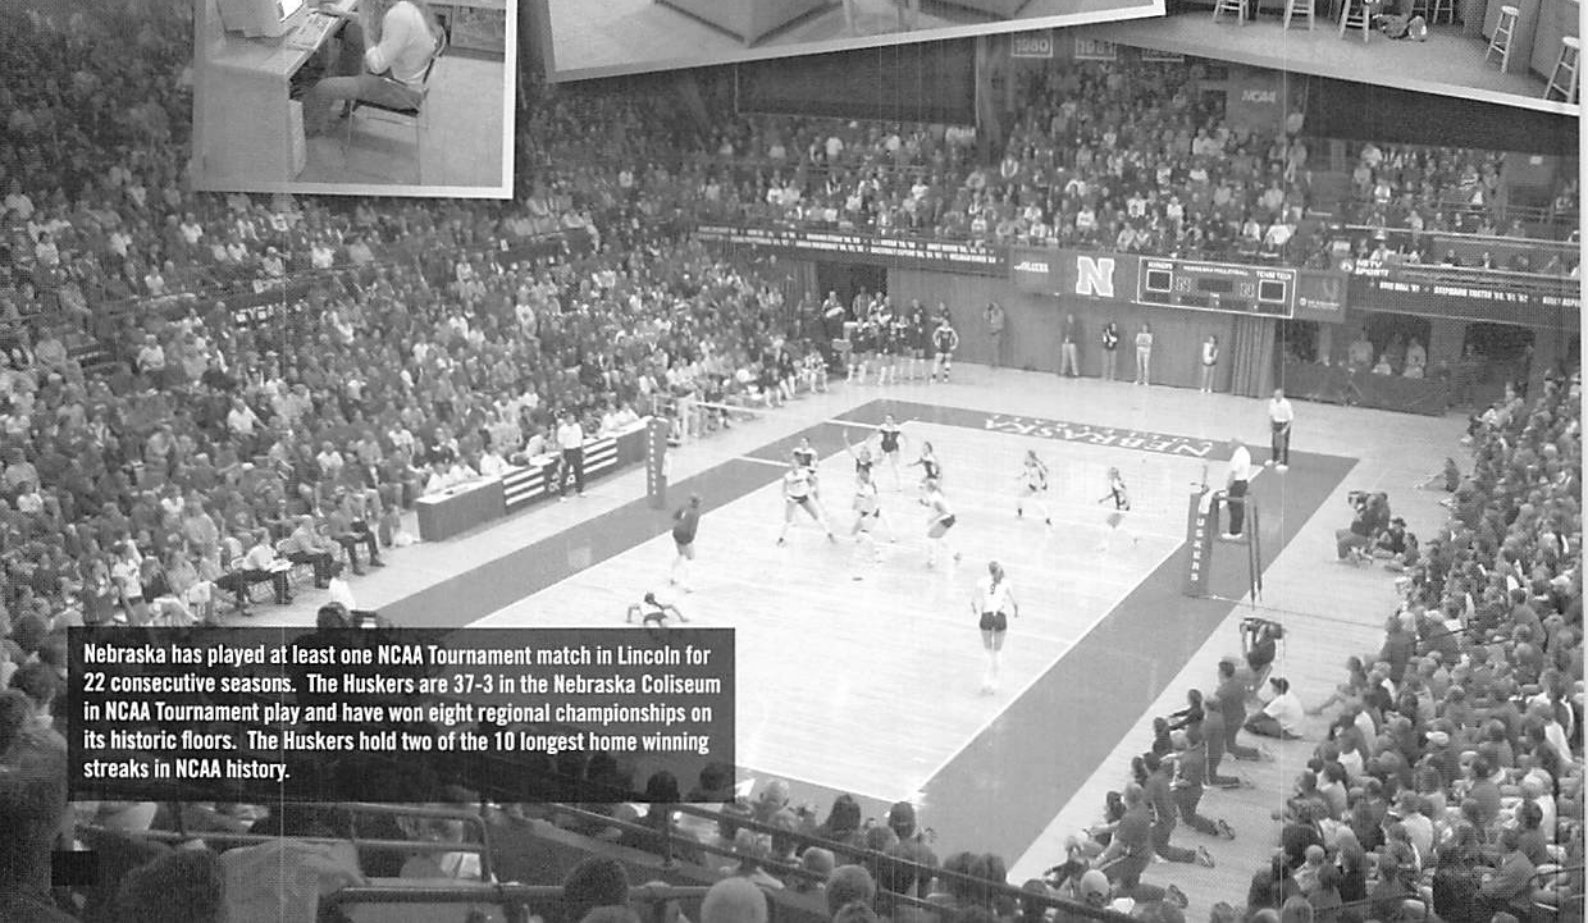

Left: The Nebraska Coliseum is a beautiful display of architecture highlighted by its powerful Roman columns. But while its beauty is appreciated by Husker players, coaches and fans, it is one of the most dreaded places for opponents to play.

Nebraska has played at least one NCAA Tournament match in Lincoln for 22 consecutive seasons. The Huskers are 37-3 in the Nebraska Coliseum in NCAA Tournament play and have won eight regional championships on its historic floors. The Huskers hold two of the 10 longest home winning streaks in NCAA history.

Retired Jerseys

N

Five former Husker volleyball players have received the highest honor the program can bestow, a retired jersey at the Coliseum. Karen Dahlgren, Lori Endicott, Cathy Noth, and Allison Weston received a permanent place in the NU Coliseum in 2003, as a Wall of Honor was created to highlight the accomplishments of these outstanding student-athletes. In 2004, Janet Kruse became the fifth Husker to have her jersey retired.

ALL-SPORT FACILITIES

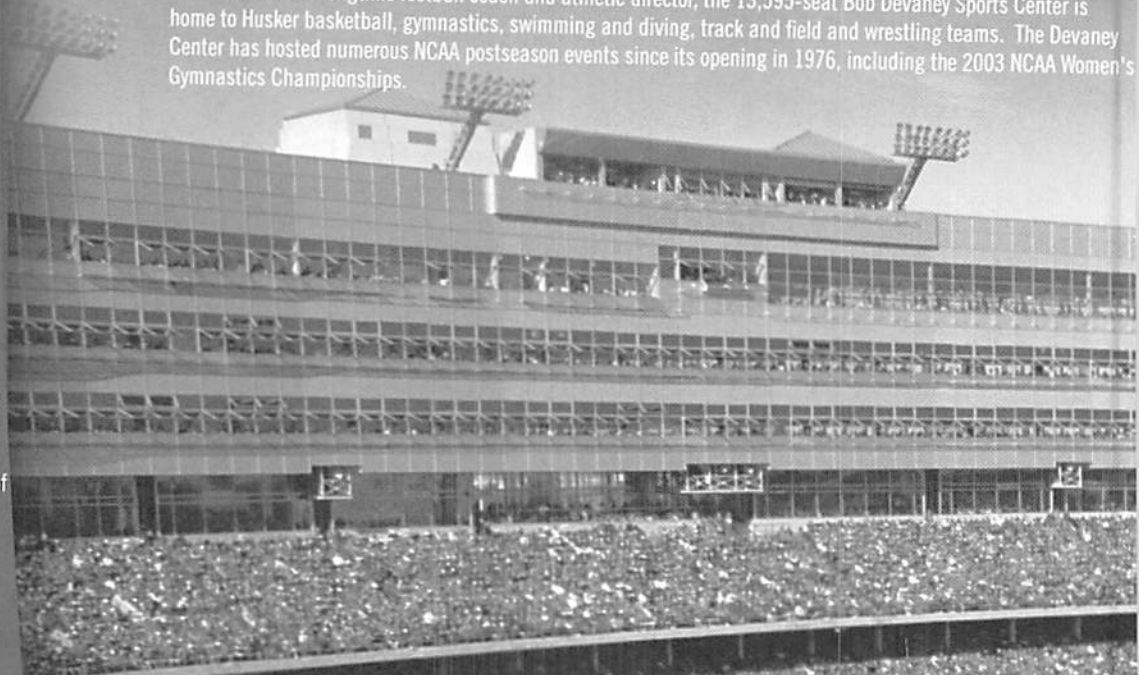

Nebraska's top facilities are not limited to the football program. Nearly every Husker sport enjoys a venue that ranks among the nation's best. With an athletic department budget of more than $55 million, Nebraska is dedicated to providing its athletes top-notch gameday and practice atmospheres in every sport. The Huskers' first-class facilities allowed them to host postseason events in softball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's basketball and women's gymnastics over the past two seasons.

Named after NU's longtime football coach and athletic director, the 13,595-seat Bob Devaney Sports Center is home to Husker basketball, gymnastics, swimming and diving, track and field and wrestling teams. The Devaney Center has hosted numerous NCAA postseason events since its opening in 1976, including the 2003 NCAA Women's Gymnastics Championships.

Right: Nebraska's Memorial Stadium is home to an NCAA-record 268 consecutive sellouts dating back to 1962. Skyboxes and a new media facility were added in 1999 at a cost of $36.1 million.

The Nebraska Indoor Track and Field facility (above) was given a $2.7 million facelift in 2000, distinguishing it among the world's best. The facility features a hydraulic-banked track, one of three in the nation and only seven in the world.

Completed in June of 2001, Hawks Field (above) and Bowlin Stadium (right) are part of a $29.53 million baseball and softball complex that is among the best in the country.

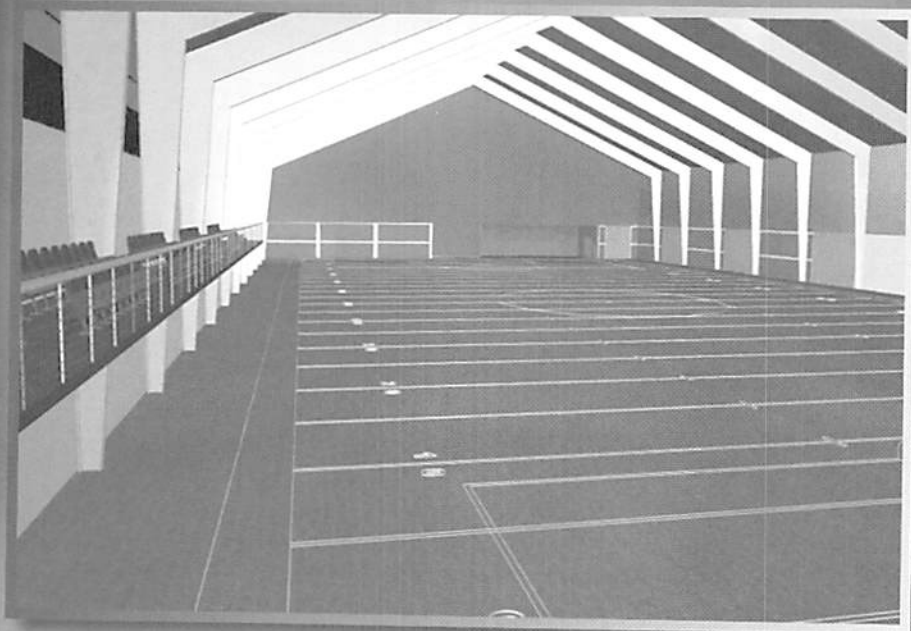

The Future

DRIVE

During the summer of 2004, Nebraska embarked on its most ambitious building project since Memorial Stadium was built in 1923. The Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will be the new home for NU's training facilities, weight room and administrative offices. The Osborne Complex will be attached by a skybridge to a new indoor fieldhouse featuring a 120-yard playing surface and large meeting spaces. The Championship Indoor Facility will be ready for use by Husker Athletes this fall. In addition to offering a second indoor practice facility, the facility will be home to the soccer offices, Husker locker room and an opponent locker room. For more information on the building project, including live construction cameras, visit Huskers.com.

Indoor Fieldhouse

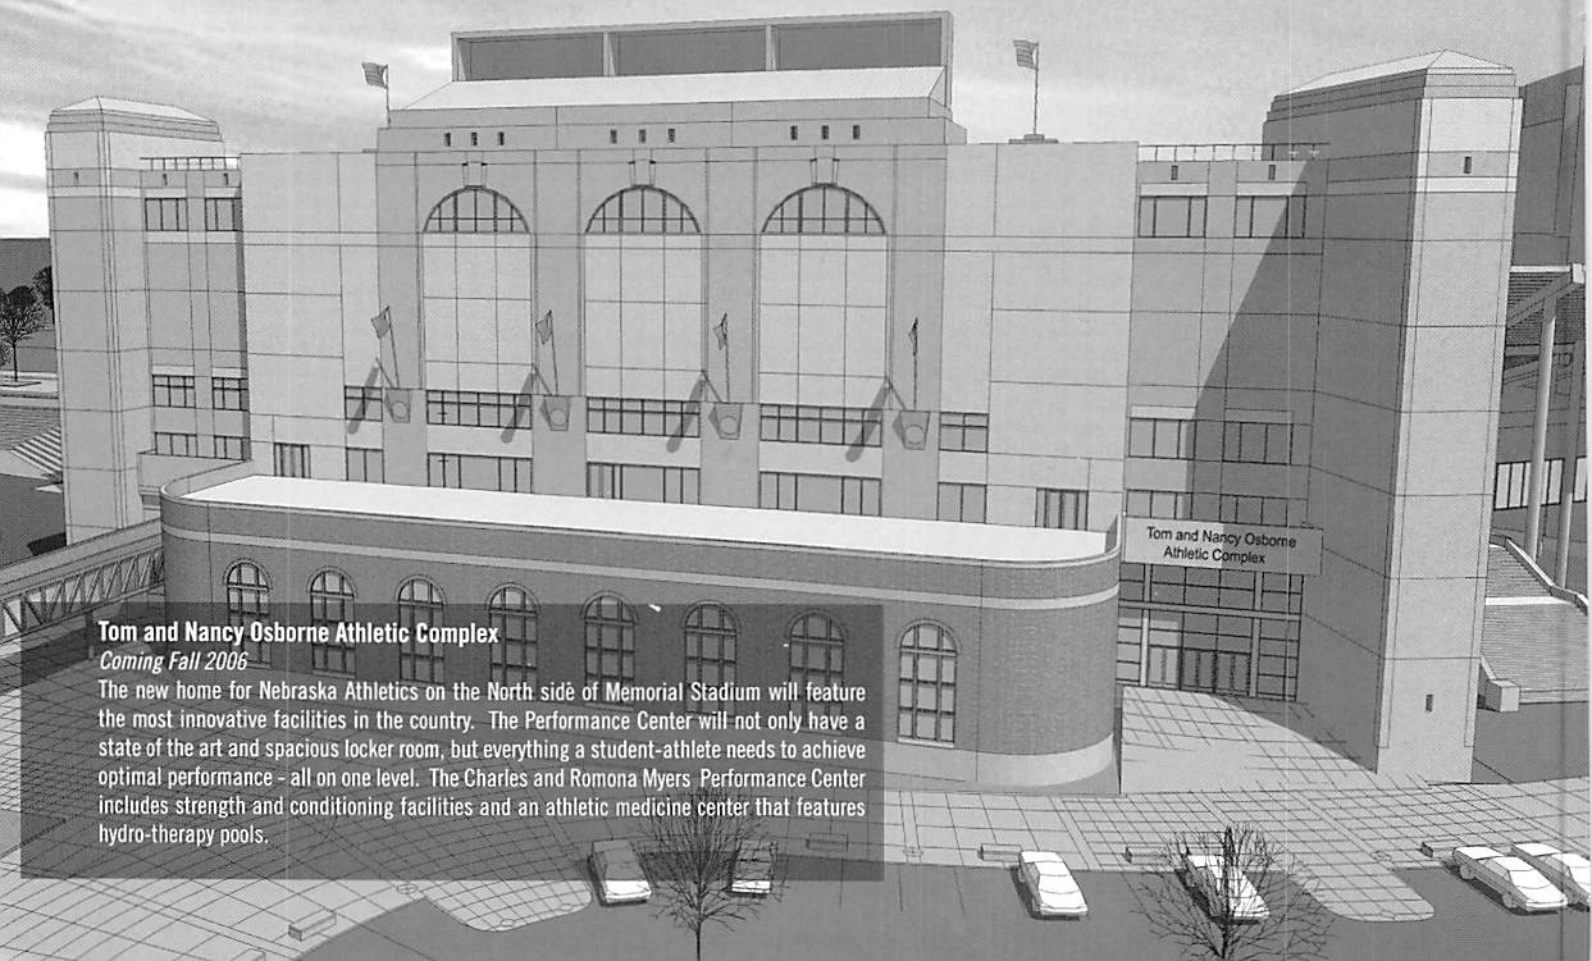

Opening Fall 2005

Connected to the athletic complex by a skywalk, the indoor fieldhouse will provide a second year-round training facility for Husker athletes. The indoor fieldhouse will also house the soccer offices, soccer locker room and a visiting team locker room in addition to a spacious area for batting cages and coaching clinics.

Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex

Coming Fall 2006

The new home for Nebraska Athletics on the North side of Memorial Stadium will feature the most innovative facilities in the country. The Performance Center will not only have a state of the art and spacious locker room, but everything a student-athlete needs to achieve optimal performance - all on one level. The Charles and Romona Myers Performance Center includes strength and conditioning facilities and an athletic medicine center that features hydro-therapy pools.

"Our facilities are designed to allow us to practice smarter, longer, and better. The facility needs to help us improve, educate and recruit with the purpose of winning in mind. If we didn't do that, we would miss the mark."

► Boyd Epley Assistant A.D.

First-Class Features

► The Indoor Championship Center contains an 81,200-square foot full-length football field. This facility gives the Huskers two indoor practice facilities with full-sized fields.

► The FieldTurf surface used for the field in the Indoor Championship Center will be identical to the field used in Memorial Stadium. It is a surface that is artificial, but feels and performs just like real grass.

► The Championship Wing features an 8 x 16 meter Olympic-sized sand volleyball court that can be used by all student-athletes for conditioning.

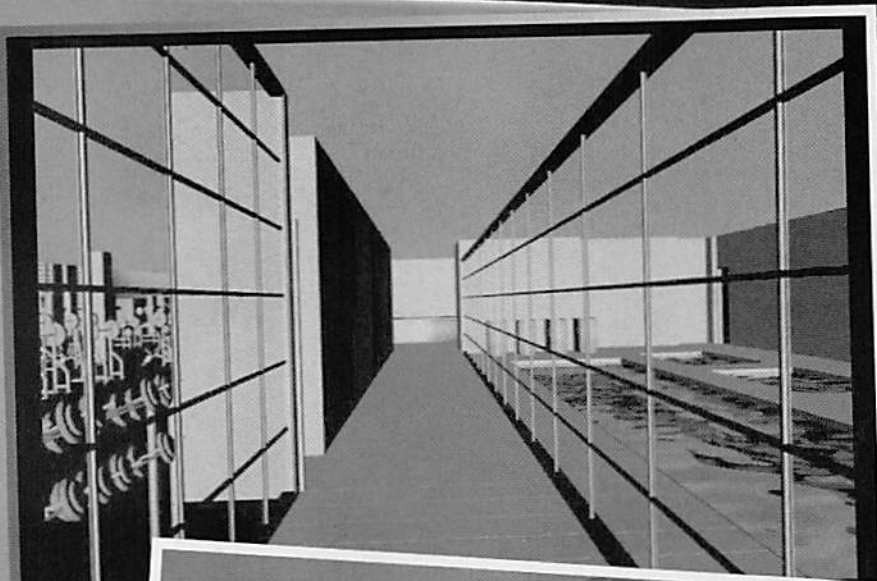

► The Championship Wing will feature two student-athlete locker rooms for use by those athletes who are training in the Championship Wing.

► As part of the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex, the Myers Performance Center is 63,500 square feet devoted to the excellence of student-athletes in all of Nebraska's 23 varsity sports.

► Another luxurious new feature of the Osborne Complex is the state-of-the-art athletic medicine facility. The crown jewel of the new athletic training facility is the beautiful new water rehabilitation area, which includes hydro therapy pools.

► Water rehabilitation is a more effective method of rehab, which will allow Husker student-athletes to stay healthier and get back to competition quicker.

► The nutrition center will feature three hydration stations and two supplement distribution locations throughout the Osborne Complex.

HUSKER POWER

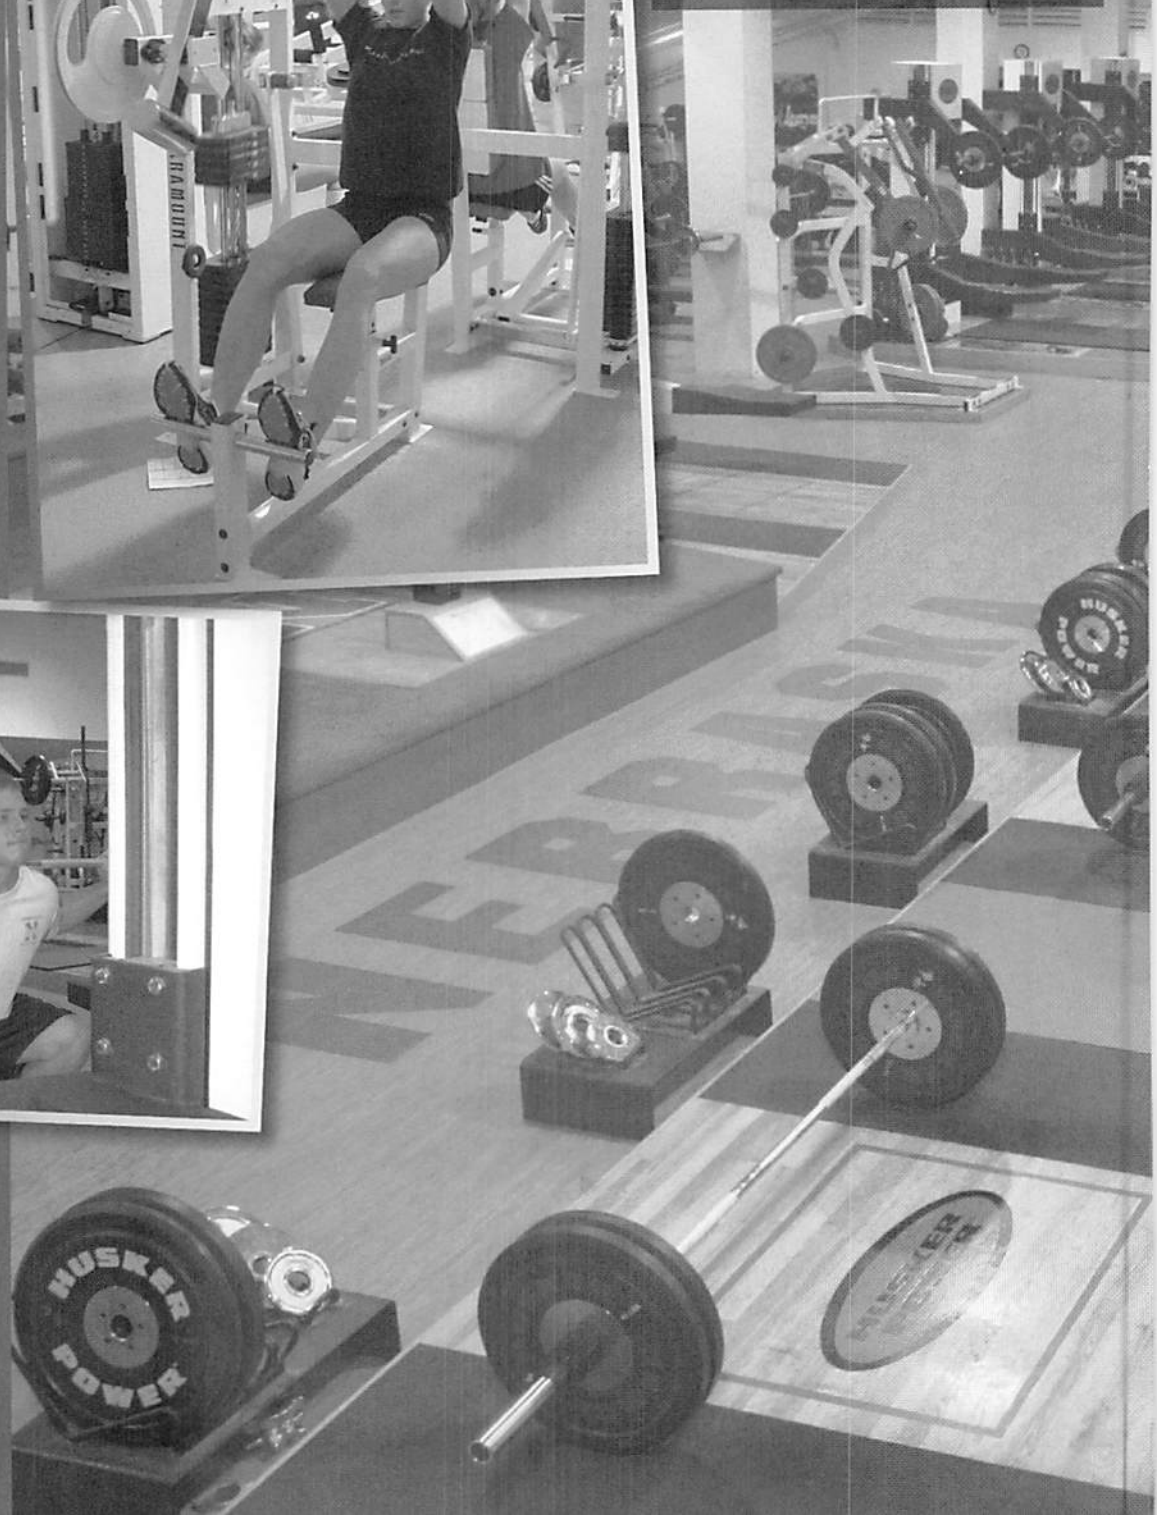

Husker Power, the model strength and conditioning program in the nation, plays a large part in Nebraska's continued success. With eight full-time members and three interns and graduate assistants, Nebraska's Performance Team is one of the most intricate strength and performance organizations in the nation. The strength training facility is one of the largest in the nation and provides athletes with the latest in strength and conditioning equipment.

Volleyball strength coach and former Husker All-American Laura Pilakowski (right) works with Head Strength Coach Dave Kennedy (below) in developing a comprehensive strength training program specifically for volleyball student-athletes.

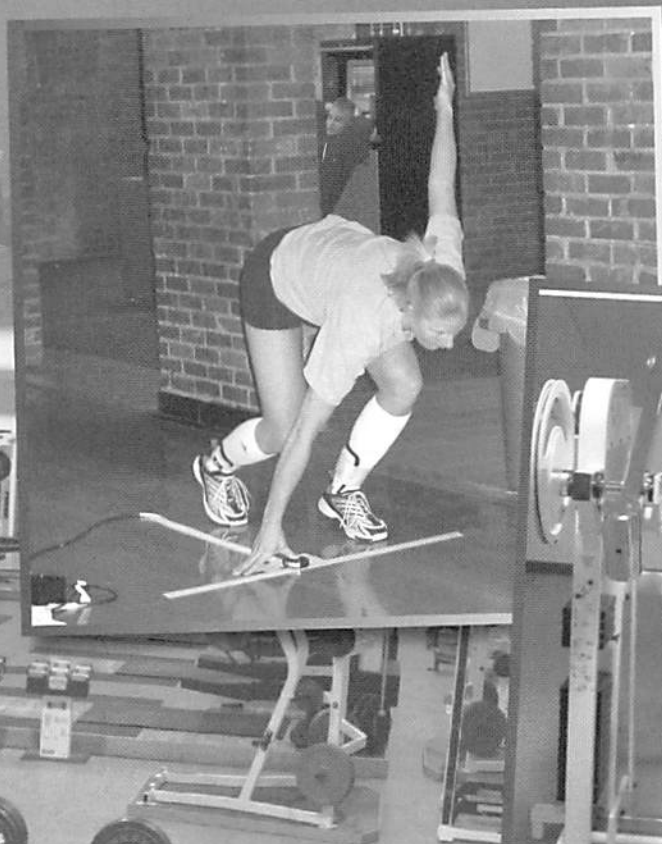

Nebraska's strength training facility has set the standard for weight rooms across America. Located under Memorial Stadium's west wing, the strength complex is one of the nation's finest. Several other universities have expanded their weight rooms, but Nebraska is still a step ahead. NU has three weight rooms in all, including two in the Devaney Center.

"The University of Nebraska strength development program is the model for others in the country."

► Phillip Hage Editor of Physician and Sports Medicine Magazine

Three Reasons for Success

► Program - The Husker Power Strength and Conditioning Program is geared for maximum improvement of performance on the field. Each athlete receives their own individual computerized program.

► Supervision - The Athletic Performance Team has eight full-time strength and conditioning specialists. The Performance Team provides a wide range of services to help athletes prepare for a successful athletic career.

► Facilities - The NU Strength Complex is recognized as the finest in the country. The Wayne Meylan room is used for supplements and for body composition testing. The Husker Power facilities also include the Bob Devaney Sports Center weight room.

Melissa Elmer was named the Husker Power Lifter-of-the-Year for volleyball in 2004

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

The success of Nebraska athletes reaches far beyond athletic arenas. More Husker student-athletes have been selected to CoSIDA Academic All-America teams than from any other school in the nation, and more Huskers have earned academic all-conference honors than athletes from any other league school. NU has led the Big 12 in graduation rates in five of the conference's first nine years.

TRADITION TEAM

In essence, an A h
This, a harmony stater

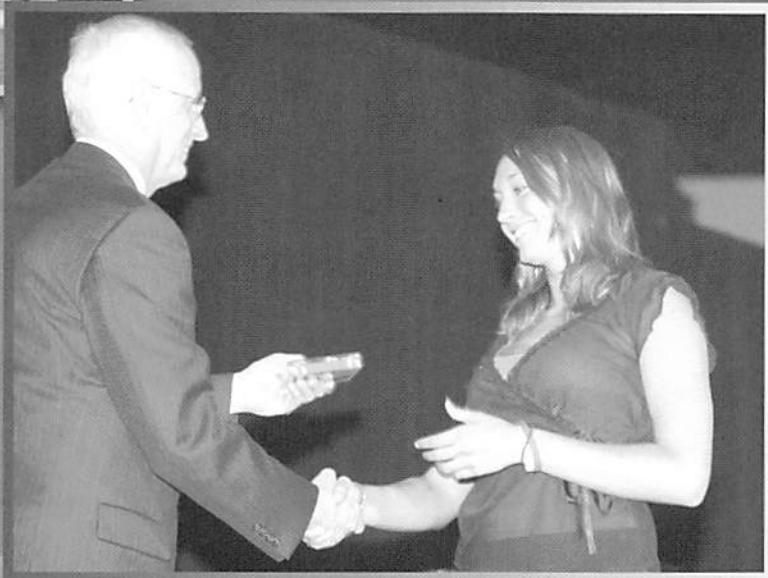

Three-time All-American Amber Holmquist graduated with a degree in communication studies from Nebraska in December of 2003.

"Academically, we have a great tradition of student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, Nebraska volleyball attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students."

The Nebraska Academic Experience

From the day student-athletes decide the University of Nebraska is the right place to be, the athletic academic counseling unit provides personal support, academic support and professional development to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers.

Step 1: Professional Development

► Career Exploration

Services are in place to help student-athletes explore academic majors and career options. Nebraska is considered a pioneer in all phases of career counseling. It is critical to declare a major and find a career path consistent with your skills, abilities and goals.

► Career Planning

Nebraska will prepare you better than any program in the country to be extremely competitive in the job market. Student-athletes have unique transferable athletic skills that provide a definite advantage throughout the job search process.

► Career and Graduate School Placement

Nebraska offers many opportunities for you to network and interact with prospective employers. The athletic department coordinates a student-athlete career fair and hosts an athlete-helping-athlete networking night. Furthermore, University Career Services coordinates numerous job and graduate fairs throughout the year that will help position you for full-time employment or graduate admissions.

Former Husker Academic All-American Anna Schrad received her degree in May of 2005 and will begin medical school in the fall. Volleyball players have combined to earn 26 of Nebraska's nation-leading 222 CoSIDA Academic All-American awards.

Academic Support

HUSKER STUDENT-ATHLETES

Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The athletic support team is comprised of 10 full-time staff members and tutorial staff addressing all subject areas.

Step 2:

Academic Guidance

► Educational Assessments

Assessments are administered during new student-athlete orientation to help determine your strengths and areas for improvement. Results allow academic counselors to develop a personalized academic support program and team.

► Tutorial Support

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support is available from day one up to college graduation. Subject and mentor tutors help provide academic support and study strategies to be successful.

► Supplemental Instruction

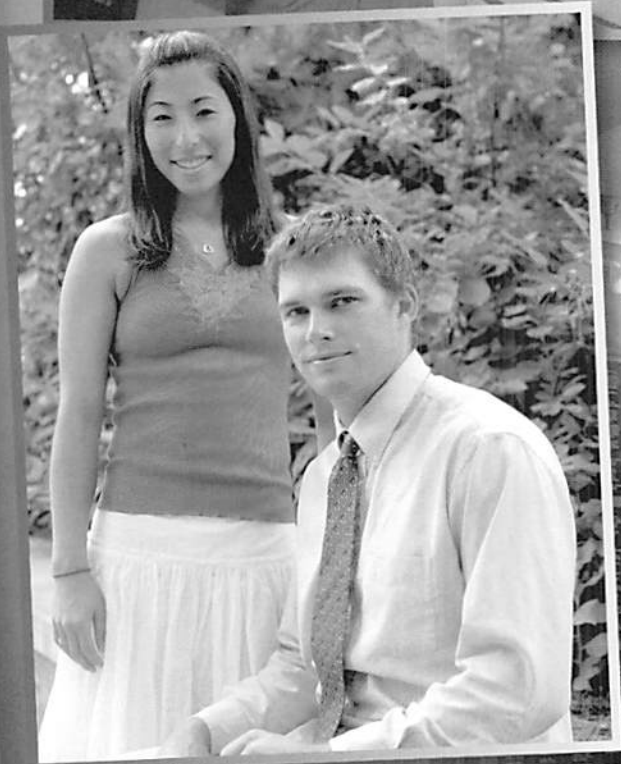

A sub-component of the tutorial program, targeted group review sessions help ease the adjustment to college academics while building academic self-esteem.

► Academic Supervision

Ten professional academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback and monitor athletic eligibility.

► Computer Resources

Student-athletes enjoy a state-of-the-art computer lab with more than 50 computers and professional supervision. Laptops are also available during team travel.

"The opportunity to be around other women who are striving to be successful and do as much as they can really shaped me. When you are surrounded by people who are striving for excellence, it raises your level of expectations as well."

► Karen Dahlgren Schonewise Academic All-American

Step 3: Personal Support Student-Athlete Orientation

The Hewitt Center staff coordinates New Student-Athlete Orientation which will help you adjust to the multiple demands of being a college student-athlete.

► Life Skills Program

Proactive life skills education is provided to teach skills necessary to succeed in college and beyond. National and campus presenters address topics focusing on responsible decision making in all aspects of life. Teams compete for the annual Life Skills Award honoring the team that was the most committed to all aspects of life skills education and programming initiatives.

► Personal Counseling

Student-athletes will find a very supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. Counseling referrals are also made if necessary to mental health professionals at the University Health Center.

► Multi-Cultural Support

Designed to enhance cultural awareness, staff members concentrate efforts on issues of transition, adjustment and retention for students of color, international students and women.

► Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

A leadership student group featuring representation from every Husker team that has continuous communication with athletic administrators, the Big 12 Conference and NCAA staff.

► Husker Outreach Program

Involvement and leadership are priorities at Nebraska. Student-athletes can choose from more than 20 outreach programs ranging from hospital visits to motivational assemblies. Nebraska student-athletes reach over 100,000 youth statewide on an annual basis.

Nebraska's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) gives current Huskers an avenue to expand their leadership experiences beyond the field of competition. Each team is represented on SAAC, giving student-athletes a well-respected voice not only with NU administrators, but also with the Big 12 Conference and NCAA.

A Healthy Diet

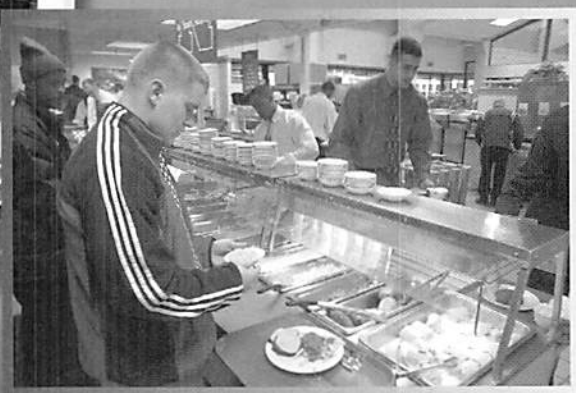

NUTRITION

N

Nebraska caters to the needs of athletes at home and on the road. NU's Coordinator of Sports Nutrition, James Harris, works with all 23 of Nebraska's sports by educating athletes on topics such as staying hydrated, taking advantage of off-season efforts to gain lean mass or lose body fat and utilizing Nebraska's three-step nutrition system when eating at the Performance Buffet.

Making solid nutritional choices not only helps an athlete become stronger, but also enhances gameday performance.

NEBRASKA

The Nebraska Performance Buffet serves breakfast, lunch and dinner every day for Husker student-athletes.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

Volleyball Athletic Trainer Jolene Emricson (right) and the rest of the athletic medicine staff provide Husker athletes with highly trained medical care year round.

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska's Athletic Medicine department has one of the most highly trained and highly skilled staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers and Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber, the 2005-06 Nebraska Athletic Medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/trainers, five athletic trainers, six graduate assistant certified athletic trainers and 28 student assistant trainers. The orthopaedic team is led by Chief of Staff Dr. Pat Clare, a nationally respected orthopaedic surgeon, who is in his 30th year of serving Husker athletics.

The medical facilities at Nebraska are among the best in the country. The Huskers' training facilities are located in South Stadium, the NU Coliseum, the Bob Devaney Sports Center and Haymarket Park.

Already a leader in the field, Nebraska will feature one of the finest Athletic Medicine facilities in the nation when the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex is completed in 2006. The new training room will be nearly 14,000 square feet, including a hydro-therapy pool (above). The state-of-the-art pool will be utilized to help during rehabilitation of injured athletes.

National Powers

N

One of the nation's premier athletic programs, Nebraska is dedicated to and successful in all 23 of its varsity sports. Under the leadership of Athletic Director Steve Pederson, Nebraska continues to build on its tradition each season. Nebraska has won 22 team national titles since 1970.

Athletic Notes

- ▶ Nebraska ranked among the top 25 in 13 of its 23 varsity sports in 2004-05. Individually, 37 Nebraska student-athletes captured 48 All-America awards in their respective sports.
- ▶ Nebraska brought home a league-leading eight conference titles, including a Big 12-best six regular-season crowns.
- ▶ Nebraska's athletic teams took home conference titles in volleyball, baseball, women's gymnastics, rifle and men's indoor track and field and women's indoor and outdoor track and field.

Emily Parsons earned Big 12 Newcomer-of-the-Year honors on her way to All-America accolades to help the Nebraska women's gymnastics program to the NCAA Super Six Finals for the sixth time in the last seven years.

The Nebraska women's track and field program swept the Big 12 Conference indoor and outdoor titles and raced to a pair of top 10 finishes at the NCAA Championships. Anne Shadle (far right) won indoor and outdoor national titles in the mile run and 1,500 meters, while Ashley Selig added an indoor crown in the pentathlon.

The most decorated baseball player in Nebraska history, Alex Gordon led the Huskers to their third College World Series appearance in the last five years. Gordon won Big 12 and national player-of-the-year honors and was the No. 2 overall pick in the 2005 MLB Draft.

Big 12 Leaders

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

First-team All-Big 12 guard Kiera Hardy has helped lead a resurgent Nebraska women's basketball program. Hardy, the Big 12 scoring leader in league play, helped NU to its second straight postseason appearance in 2004-05 and the biggest win in school history with a 103-99 win over eventual national champion Baylor.

Nebraska produced a league-leading eight conference titles in 2004-05, including six regular-season Big 12 crowns. Overall, Nebraska has captured 58 Big 12 championships since the conference formed less than 10 years ago.

The Nebraska men's track and field program claimed a Big 12 indoor title and a pair of top 20 finishes at the NCAA indoor and outdoor championships. Dmitrijs Milkevics also won the NCAA title in the 800 meters outdoors.

Melissa Elmer was one of three Husker All-Americans in volleyball in 2004. As a team, the Huskers finished 30-2 and advanced to the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament.

The Nebraska baseball team captured both the Big 12 regular-season and tournament titles on its way to its third College World Series appearance in the past five years.

Leading the Way

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

As one of the nation's premier public institutions, the University of Nebraska is committed to undergraduate learning and world-class research. In early 2001, Nebraska was named to a national list of 16 schools that serve as a role model for other institutions by the Association of American Colleges and Universities. Quality instruction is emphasized in Nebraska's 147 undergraduate majors, which are spread through nine undergraduate colleges.

Classic architectural images such as the Mueller Bell Tower (right) and Architecture Hall (below right) blend with Nebraska's innovative new building projects such as Othmer Hall (above) to provide an atmosphere of inspiration.

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

All-America City

N

Featuring the advantages of an urban setting, the Star City is only minutes away from the scenic beauty and wide open spaces of America's Heartland. Living in Lincoln enables one to enjoy the benefits of life in a city, while residing in a community that consistently lists one of the lowest crime rates in the nation among cities its size.

Nebraska's capital city, Lincoln's population of nearly 236,000 makes it the second-largest city in the Big 12 Conference. In addition to major entertainers, live stage theaters, art museums and galleries, Lincoln offers more than 6,000 acres of parks, including 10 lakes, 11 municipal swimming pools, more than 80 miles of biking and hiking trails and 12 public golf courses.

The American Institute of Architects declared Nebraska's State Capitol to be one of the modern architectural wonders of the world.

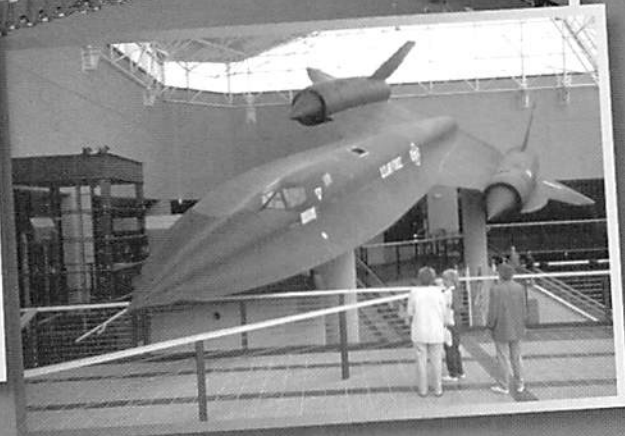

Lincoln, also known as the Star City, was recently ranked among the 10 best places to live in the United States, while Shape Magazine ranked Lincoln the fourth most fit city in the nation in 2000. The Coach Callahan 5K Fun Run for Resources not only helped contribute to Lincoln's fitness level in 2004, it also raised money for diabetes research and the UNL Libraries.

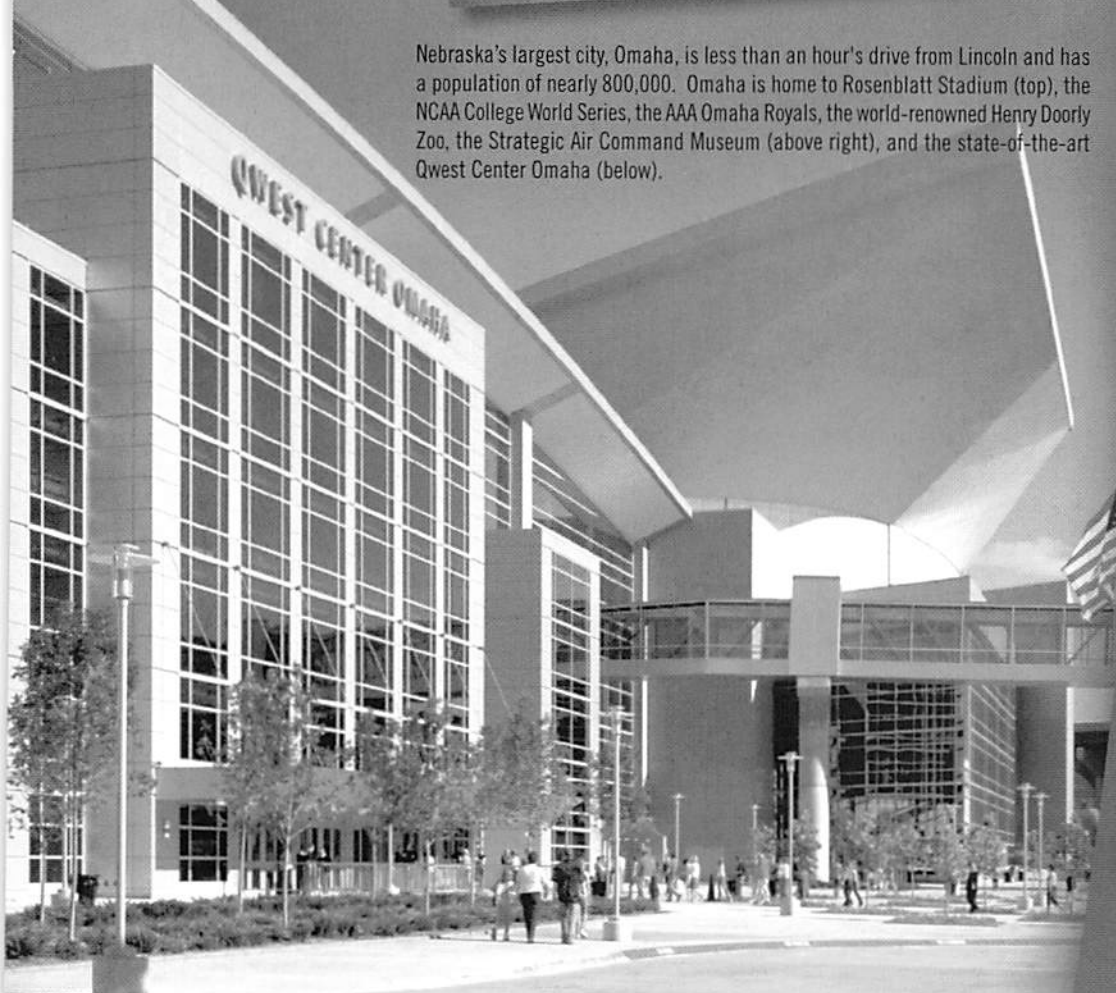

The Good Life

N

Nebraska's largest city, Omaha, is less than an hour's drive from Lincoln and has a population of nearly 800,000. Omaha is home to Rosenblatt Stadium (top), the NCAA College World Series, the AAA Omaha Royals, the world-renowned Henry Doorly Zoo, the Strategic Air Command Museum (above right), and the state-of-the-art Qwest Center Omaha (below).

Nebraska residents truly live "The Good Life." The state features major metropolitan areas, including Lincoln and Omaha, which is the telecommunications capital of the nation, and plenty of history as well. The state also features a diverse landscape ideal for those who enjoy the great outdoors, whether it be hiking, biking, hunting or fishing. Located in the heart of the nation's heartland, Nebraska is centrally located and just a few hours from Chicago, Denver and Kansas City.
